

Anxiety & Depression
Association of America
Triumphing Through Science, Treatment, and Education

ADAA Webinar Honorarium

ADAA thanks you for your time and expertise in participating in ADAA's public and professional webinar program. We recognize the effort it takes to develop these presentations.

ADAA's Board of Directors is pleased to offer a $200 honorarium for public and professional live or recorded webinar content of 45 minutes or longer.

ADAA's public and professional webinar presenters will be offered this honorarium (once annually per presenter) as a token of appreciation for their generosity and expertise in support of ADAA's mission.

- The ADAA Board of Directors and Scientific Council members, are not eligible for the honorarium.
- This honorarium is offered for webinars only. ADAA does not provide honoraria for annual conference presentations.
- To receive the honorarium, one must make a request for the honorarium within 10 working days after the completion of the webinar, by sending an email to membership@adaa.org.
- As ADAA is a non-profit organization, we hope you consider continuing to give your time and expertise on a pro-bono basis.

Thank you for collaborating with us to further ADAA's mission.

Please see our ADAA Webinar Honorarium FAQs below.

Download the Honorarium Request Form.

Learn about ADAA's Public and Professional Webinar Submissions.

ADAA Webinar Honorarium FAQs

Please note that webinar submissions must be peer reviewed and approved by the Professional or Public Education Committees. Presenters may only request the honorarium following their presentation.

Q. Do I have to be a member of ADAA to request the honorarium?

A. No. If you are interested in learning more about ADAA membership, click here.

Q. If my webinar is two hours in length, can I request an added honorarium?

A. No.

Q. If I am taking part in a panel of 45+ minutes or more, can I request the honorarium?

A. Yes, all ADAA webinar presenters participating in content of 45 minutes or longer are eligible to request the honorarium.

Q. I want to present several webinars for ADAA. Do I only receive the honorarium for one webinar annually?

A. Yes. While we are pleased to offer this honorarium, ADAA, as a non-profit, will only provide one honorarium per person per year.

Q. Can I be paid for presenting at the annual conference.

A. No. Content developed for the conference is not eligible for the honorarium. Please contact conference@adaa.org for any further conference questions.

Q. Is this honorarium available for both public and professional webinar presentations.

A. Yes, all webinar content of 45 minutes or longer is eligible.

Q. How do I request the honorarium?

A. Please click here. ADAA will pay via check after your presentation has been completed and you have submitted your honorarium request form. Forms will only be accepted after you presentation and must be submitted within 30 days of your webinar presentation. You should receive your check within 30 days of submitting your honorarium request form.

Q. Can I decline the honorarium?

A. Yes. And we appreciate your generosity!

Q. If I am willing to do a series of public or professional webinars (totaling 45 minutes) over the year on a specific topic, can I receive a one-time payment of $200?

A. Yes, please contact webinars@adaa.org to discuss your webinar series.

