Secretary of State Bruce McPherson Promotes Early Voting in California's June Primary Election

Last day to request an absentee ballot is Tuesday, May 30th

SACRAMENTO, CA - Secretary of State Bruce McPherson today reminded all California voters that they may cast their ballots early at their county elections office through Election Day for the June 6th Primary Election.

"My goal is to make the voting process as user-friendly and as convenient as possible," said Secretary McPherson. "I encourage voters to take advantage of this service offered by their local elections officials and to vote early to avoid lines at the polls on Election Day."

To better serve voters, local county elections offices are open for registered voters to cast their ballots early for the June Primary Election. Any registered voter may go to their county elections office and vote. Some counties offer early voting sites in addition to their elections office where voters can cast their ballots. These counties include: Alameda, Los Angeles, Napa, Orange, Riverside, San Bernardino, and San Mateo. Contact the County Registrars' Offices for more information on early voting sites. Voters can also visit the Secretary of State's website at www.ss.ca.gov for county contact information.

In addition, Secretary of State Bruce McPherson reminded registered voters that the deadline to request an absentee ballot by mail is Tuesday, May 30th. Requests must be received in the Registrar of Voters' Office by close of business. In order to be counted, voted absentee ballots must be received by the elections official no later than the close of the polls on election day, so be sure to return it in the mail in time for it to be delivered by Election Day, June 6th.
