MATCHUP QUICK HITS

Saturday's matchup will mark the New York Liberty's 89th all-time regular-season meeting against the Indiana Fever and the second head-to-head matchup of their four-game season series in 2024. Against the Fever, the Liberty is 39-49 (.443) in their all-time regular season series.

These two franchises have met 14 times in the postseason, with their last meeting coming in the first round of the 2015 WNBA Semifinals (previously Eastern Conference Finals). In the postseason, New York is 6-8 against Indiana.

The Liberty swept the season series against Indiana for the fourth time in franchise history during the 2023 season.

New York scored 96.5 points per game in four matchups against the Fever last season, which was the Liberty's highest single-season scoring average against Indiana in franchise history.

No team averaged more assists per game against a single opponent in 2023 than the Liberty's 29.0 assists per game against Indiana.

The Liberty last played the Fever in the regular season on May 16th in their first meeting of 2024 at Gainbridge Fieldhouse.

New York's 102-66 win was the biggest win over Indiana and the most points scored in a regulation game throughout the history of the matchup. New York's 130.8 offensive rating on Thursday would have ranked as the team's second-highest offensive showing in 2023.

The win extended the team's winning streak against the Fever to seven games, the longest streak against Indiana in franchise history.

Breanna Stewart led the Liberty offense on Thursday, finishing with 31 points on 57% (12-21) shooting from the field to go along with 10 rebounds, four assists, three steals, and two blocks. Stewart's 11-point first quarter was her 14th career double-digit quarter against the Fever, her most against any single opponent.

Jonquel Jones added a double-double of 14 points and 10 rebounds in addition to four assists and three blocks.

Betnijah Laney-Hamilton set a franchise record for single-game plus-minus with a +43 in the 102-66 win.

Five players on the 2024 Liberty (Jonquel Jones, Ivana Dojkić, Breanna Stewart, Betnijah Laney-Hamilton, and Sabrina Ionescu) shot better than 45% from three-point range against the Fever last season.

PLAYER	3P% VS IND
Jonquel Jones	62.5%
Ivana Dojkić	60.0%
Breanna Stewart	52.0%
Betnijah Laney-Hamilton	46.7%
Sabrina Ionescu	45.2%

Breanna Stewart averaged 29 points per game against Indiana, which led all players facing the Fever in 2023. Only 2021 Tina Charles and 2017 Brittney Griner had a higher single-season scoring average against Indiana in Fever franchise history.

Stewart also averaged 6.8 points off turnovers against Indiana, which was the most of any Fever opponent in 2023.

Courtney Vandersloot averaged 11 assists in four games against the Fever last season, which led all Fever opponents and was Sloot's highest assist average against any team during the 2023 season.

Vandersloot and Alyssa Thomas were the only two players to average double-digit assists against an opposing team in 2023.

Breanna Stewart (93.3%) and Betnijah Laney-Hamilton (78.6%) ranked first and second, respectively, among Fever opponents in field goal percentage on shots from the restricted area among players with more than 10 attempts in 2023.

Sabrina Ionescu and Breanna Stewart tied for most above-the-break three-pointers made against the Fever in 2023 with 12 each.

2024 STORYLINES

RUNNING IT BACK

The Liberty return all five members of the 2023 squad's All-Star starting unit with a full year of chemistry under their belts. New York's lineup of Courtney Vandersloot, Sabrina Ionescu, Betnijah Laney-Hamilton, Breanna Stewart, and Jonquel Jones started a league-high 35 games last season and posted a +20 net rating in 517 minutes together on the court.

After missing three starters for most of the 2023 training camp, all five starters were present and participating from day one of training camp this season.

New York's 2023 starting unit posted a +5.2 net rating in 246 postseason minutes, leading the Liberty to the franchise's first WNBA Finals appearance since 2002 and the first home Finals win in franchise history.

DEFENSE WINS CHAMPIONSHIPS

The Liberty look to continue building on a strong defensive performance in 2023, where New York ranked third in defensive rating (99.4) while leading the league in defensive rebound rate (73.3%) and opponent eFG% (47.6%).

No team held the Las Vegas Aces to a lower eFG% (50.9%), FTA rate (20%), or offensive rating (103.1) than the Liberty did in 2023.

Opponents shot just 57.9% on field-goal attempts in the restricted area against the Liberty last season, which ranked as the second-lowest restricted area field-goal percentage allowed among all WNBA defenses in 2023.

DROPPING DIMES

The Liberty posted the highest assist rate (75.0%) in WNBA history during the 2023 regular season and set a franchise record with 24.1 assists per game.

New York also set the WNBA single-season record for most assisted three-pointers from the corners (117) in 2023, and only one other team in WNBA history had previous accumulated 100 or more assisted corner three-pointers in a single season (Indiana Fever, 2012).

The Liberty recorded more assists than their opponents in 32 games last season, the most in WNBA single-season history, and went 29-3 (.906) in those games.

Courtney Vandersloot connected with Breanna Stewart for 116 assists in 2023, making them the first assister-scorer duo in WNBA history to exceed 100 assists in a single season.

REVAMPED RESERVES

New York remodeled the second unit this offseason to bring in more athleticism and playmaking, adding Kennedy Burke, Leonie Fiebich, Ivana Dojkić, and Marquasha Davis.

The bench is led by returner Kayla Thornton, one of the most active three-and-D players in the league during the 2023 season.

New York's second unit includes two of the top players from European competition, as Burke and Fiebich won MVP of the French and Spanish Leagues, respectively, last season.

Dojkić looks to help New York push the pace in 2024, as she ranked within the top ten for fast-break points per 100 possessions in 2023 (4.7).

Davis, the 11th overall pick in the 2024 WNBA Draft, was one of three SEC players to average multiple two-point field goals made in transition per game during the 2023-24 NCAA season.

2024 STORYLINES

THREE-AND-B

Betnijah Laney-Hamilton tied the WNBA single-season record for most corner three-pointers made since 2009 with 37 (Katie Douglas, 2012). Tied for third on that list are Liberty assistant coach Roneeka Hodges (34 corner three-pointers made for Minnesota in 2009) and Nicole Powell (34 corner three-pointers made for New York in 2010).

The former WNBA Most Improved Player led the league in three-pointers made from both the right corner and the left corner in 2023.

DOUBLE TROUBLE

For the first time in franchise history, the Liberty had multiple players with 10 or more double-doubles in a single season in 2023 (Breanna Stewart and Jonquel Jones).

Breanna Stewart tied the Liberty franchise record for single-season double-doubles in 2023 with 20 (Tina Charles, 2015).

Jonquel Jones set a WNBA postseason record with eight double-doubles to begin the 2023 WNBA Playoffs.

Liberty players accumulated 41 double-doubles in 2023, the second-most double-doubles by a team in WNBA single-season history.

The Liberty averaged 15.5 second-chance points per 100 possessions and 47.7 points in the paint per 100 possessions with Jonquel in the game last season, compared to just 11.6 second-chance points and 35.6 points in the paint per 100 possessions without Jonquel on the court.

STEW-WAY PLAYER

Breanna Stewart's 23.0 points per game last season was the third-highest scoring average for a player selected to an All-Defensive team in the same season in WNBA history.

Stewart's 39 games scoring in double figures tied for the most in the league (Arike Ogunbowale) and tied the record for most double-digit scoring games in WNBA single-season history.

The 2023 MVP became the second player in WNBA history to win MVPs on two different teams (Elena Delle Donne).

Stewart set a WNBA single-season record with four games of 40 or more points in 2023, and also became the first player to score 900 points in a season throughout WNBA history.

SELFLESS SLOOT

Courtney Vandersloot earned her seventh career WNBA Peak Performer award in assists after finishing the 2023 regular season with a league-best 8.1 assists per game.

The veteran point guard was either first or tied for first in assist average against five WNBA teams in 2023 (DAL, CON, IND, SEA, CHI).

Vandersloot's 40 corner three-pointers assisted in 2023 was the most in WNBA history.

2024 STORYLINES

SA-THREE-NA

Sabrina Ionescu set the WNBA single-season record for made three-pointers with 128 in 2023.

Ionescu's 44.8% three-point percentage in 2023 was the best in WNBA history among players who attempted at least 200 three-pointers.

In 2023, Sabrina became the first player in WNBA history to make at least 100 above-the-break three-pointers in a single season.

Including preseason and postseason, Ionescu has hit at least one three-pointer in each of her last 27 games.

MVP PARTY

Breanna Stewart won the 2023 WNBA MVP award, while Jonquel Jones took home the 2023 Commissioner's Cup MVP award and previously won the 2021 WNBA MVP award.

Jonquel Jones also took home the International Player of the Year award in the Women's Chinese Basketball Association this offseason.

Leonie Fiebich won MVP of the LF Endesa League in Spain for the second consecutive season in 2023-24, and was also selected to the 2024 All-EuroLeague First Team.

Kennedy Burke was named the LFB MVP in France in back-to-back seasons and was a 2024 All-EuroLeague Second Team selection.

SANDY BRONDELLO

NEW YORK LIBERTY HEAD COACH
3RD SEASON WITH NEW YORK | 12TH SEASON | NO. 7 ALL-TIME IN WINS

Veteran WNBA coach, player, and former Australian Olympian Sandy Brondello (braun-DELL-oh) was named the ninth head coach in Liberty franchise history on January 7, 2022. Brondello joined New York after an eight-year head coaching tenure with the Phoenix Mercury where she led the team to a playoff appearance in each of her eight seasons. After the 2023 season, Brondello holds an overall regular season record of 212-156 (.576) over her 11 combined seasons at the helm of the Liberty, Mercury and San Antonio Silver Stars, making her the seventh-winningest coach in WNBA history.

Additionally, Brondello has compiled a 31-27 postseason record throughout her head coaching career, ranking her as the fourth-winningest coach in league postseason history. In 2014, Sandy was named the WNBA Coach of the Year after she led Phoenix to a WNBA regular season-record 29 wins and capped the season with a WNBA Championship. In 2023, Brondello led the Liberty to the Commissioner’s Cup Championship and first WNBA Finals appearance since 2002.

A 19-year veteran of the WNBA coaching ranks, Brondello has been affiliated with the league for 24 of its 27 seasons, including her time as a player. A proven winner internationally and in the WNBA, her 19 total years as an assistant coach and head coach have featured 16 playoff appearances, highlighted by a perfect 11-for-11 in postseason berths as a head coach.

In those 11 postseasons, Sandy led her teams to eight Semifinals round berths (formerly conference finals) and three WNBA Finals appearances in 2014, 2021, and 2023. Prior to her time with the Mercury, Brondello served as lead assistant coach for the Los Angeles Sparks (2011-13) under 2012 WNBA Coach of the Year Carol Ross. Brondello led the San Antonio Silver Stars to a 2010 playoff berth in her debut season at the helm following five seasons on the Silver Stars bench as an assistant under Dan Hughes (2005-09), the fifth-winningest coach in league history.

A 2010 inductee into the Australian Basketball Hall of Fame, Brondello was named the 11th head coach for the Australian Women’s National Basketball team on April 17, 2017. Most recently, Brondello led the Australian National Team to a Quarterfinals appearance in the 2020 Tokyo Summer Olympics. While she serves in her role as head coach for the Liberty, Brondello will continue to prepare the Opals who will host the 2022 FIBA Women’s Basketball World Cup. In addition to her work internationally with the Australian Women’s National Basketball team, Brondello previously served as an assistant coach with UMMC Ekaterinburg in Russia from 2012-2017.

Brondello finished a stellar 17-year professional playing career with a five-year run in the WNBA in which she played for Detroit (1998-99), Miami (2001-02) and Seattle (2003), and was named a 1999 WNBA All-Star. She began her career with the Women’s National Basketball League (WNBL) in Australia (1986-96), and was named the league MVP in 1995. The 5-7 guard was a 10-time German Cup champion while playing with BTV Wuppertal (1992-2002), a three-time European Cup All-Star selection (1994, 1996, 1997), and the 1996 European Cup MVP when she led her team to the title.

An 18-year member of the Australian National Team, Brondello is a four-time Olympian, a two-time silver medalist (2000, 2004) and was named the 1992 Australian International Player of the Year.

Brondello is married to Liberty assistant coach, Olaf Lange, and the couple have two children, Brody and Jayda.
