The image shows the interior of a Hard Rock Cafe. The room is filled with dark wood paneling, including a long booth with woven backrests and leather seats. Several square tables with wooden chairs are arranged throughout the space. The walls are decorated with framed posters, including one for James Brown, and a neon sign that says "BULL DOG". A "Hard Rock Cafe" logo is visible on a wall-mounted TV screen. The lighting is warm and ambient, creating a classic, nostalgic atmosphere.

PITTSBURGH

Though it used to be a steel mill town, Pittsburgh has become a high-tech metropolis that is ranked among the U.S.'s most livable cities. Famous for its friendly ethnic neighborhoods and downtown architecture, there is much to see and do for residents and visitors alike. Check out the great view of Mt. Washington and the Golden Triangle in downtown Pittsburgh where the Allegheny and Monongahela Rivers meet to form the Ohio River. You can spend days just hanging out at Station Square with its wide array of shops and clubs. We're located right between the Grand Concourse Restaurant and the Sheraton Station Square Hotel. Our one-story building features an industrial ceiling, exposed-brick stage, indoor seating for 200 people, and an outdoor patio for 70 people. Music memorabilia is scattered all around the cafe from rock legends. Be sure to stop by The Rock Shop® to pick up a souvenir to remember us by!
