

Put your data to work to change healthcare

Arcadia turns data into powerful insights and actions that accelerate healthcare transformation. The nation's leading healthcare providers and payers use our data platform, analytics tools, and services to make informed decisions, improve patient outcomes, and optimize operations.

Flexible • Fast • Seamless

Multi-source data aggregation

Any data in any format

Advanced analytics and insights

360-degree view of patients and business

Democratize information

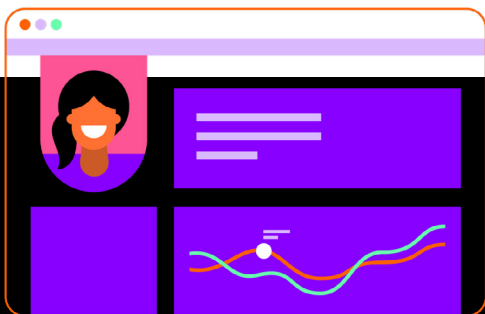

Improved decision-making and outcomes

Trusted by organizations driving the future of healthcare

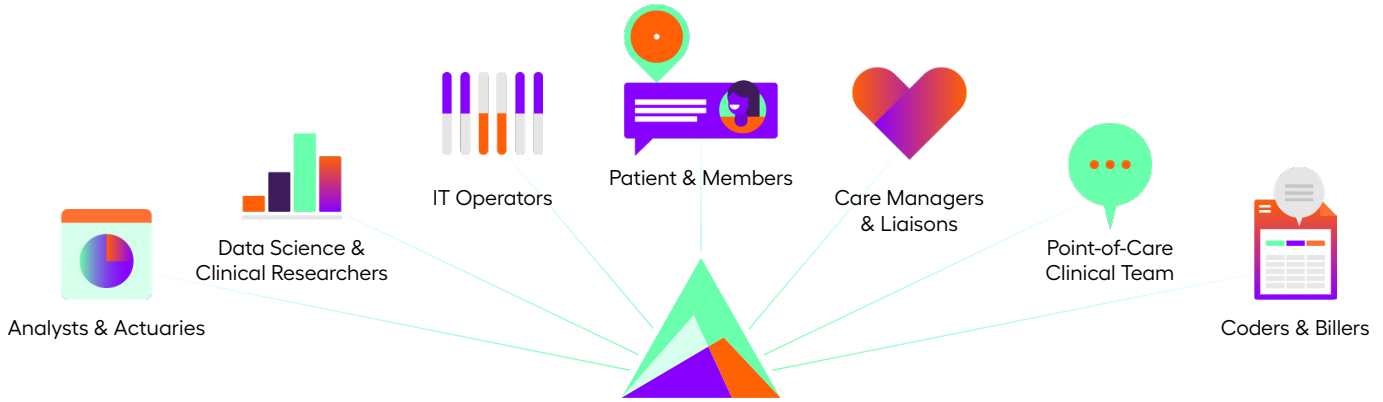

Southwestern Health Resources

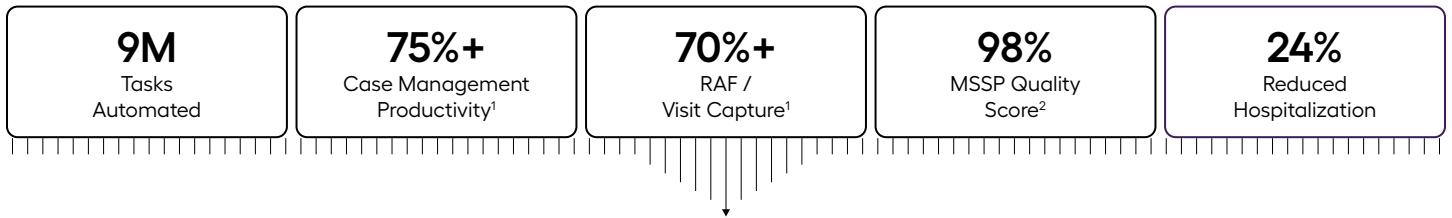

Focus on what matters most to move healthcare forward

Built on an interoperable platform with actionable insights, a flexible analytics ecosystem, and thousands of connected data points, Arcadia empowers your teams to deliver meaningful results across the care continuum.

Improved productivity and clinical outcomes

Driving Economic Value

We're on a mission to create a unified fabric for health and dedicated to happier, healthier days for all. For more information, visit arcadia.io.

1. Individual customer results
 2. Average overall quality score for Arcadia customers that serve as Accountable Care Organizations (ACOs) in the 2020 Medicare Shared Savings Program
 3. Client reported estimates, which reflect feedback from customers on the level of effort for tasks before and after implementing Arcadia. Includes savings based on benchmarks from top performing Arcadia clients, feedback on level of effort for tasks before and after implementing Arcadia and targeted increases in patient retention
 4. Client reported estimates, which reflect savings based on the ability to improve RAF accuracy, close care gaps and increase premiums in Commercial, Medicare and Medicaid contracts