

Arcadia Bindery: Insights. Delivered.

Health plans must manage and engage a large and diverse set of stakeholders to control costs and improve the quality of care. Building reports and scorecards and distributing them across large networks of providers and employer groups creates a tremendous burden on data analysts. Without easily accessible and actionable insights, stakeholder engagement can suffer.

Arcadia Bindery simplifies the creation and distribution of highly personalized and contract-specific reports to providers, employer groups, and more — at scale.

Data analysts can build, publish, and securely distribute prescriptive analytic reports and scorecards tailored to the reader with just a few clicks.
