

California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA) Metrics Report:

The California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA) requires businesses to report metrics on data subject requests from California residents. The following are the 2023 calendar year metrics:

- Number of “request to know” received, complied with in whole or in part, or denied:
1,492
- Number of “requests to delete” received, complied with in whole or in part, or denied:
4,935
- Average number of days to respond: 6 days

Robinhood does not sell personal information. For more information, visit our Privacy Policy.