

MacBook Air

Before using MacBook Air, review the MacBook Air Essentials guide at support.apple.com/guide/macbook-air. Retain documentation for future reference.

Safety and Handling

See "Safety, handling, and regulatory information" in the MacBook Air Essentials guide.

Avoid Hearing Damage

To prevent possible hearing damage, do not listen at high volume levels for long periods. More information about sound and hearing is available online at apple.com/sound.

Medical Device Interference

MacBook Air contains magnets that may interfere with medical devices. See "Important safety information" in the MacBook Air Essentials guide.

Prolonged Heat Exposure

Your MacBook Air may become very warm during normal use. It's important to keep your MacBook Air on a hard, stable, and well-ventilated work surface when in use or charging. Use common sense to avoid situations where your body is in prolonged contact with a device or its power adapter when it's operating or plugged into a power source, as sustained contact with warm surfaces may cause discomfort or injury. Take special care if you have a physical condition that affects your ability to detect heat against the body.

Regulatory Information

Regulatory certification information is available on-device. Choose Apple menu  > About This Mac, then click Regulatory Certification. Additional regulatory information is in "Safety, handling, and regulatory information" in the MacBook Air Essentials guide.

Disposal and Recycling Information

The symbol above means that according to local laws and regulations your product and/or its battery shall be disposed of separately from household waste. When this product reaches its end of life, take it to a collection point designated by local authorities. The separate collection and recycling of your product and/or its battery at the time of disposal will help conserve natural resources and ensure that it is recycled in a manner that protects human health and the environment. For information about Apple's recycling program, recycling collection points, restricted substances, and other environmental initiatives, visit apple.com/environment.

Built-in Battery and Charging

The built-in battery should only be replaced or repaired by a trained technician to avoid battery damage, which could cause overheating, fire, or injury. Repairs performed by untrained individuals or using non-genuine Apple parts may affect the safety and functionality of the device. The built-in battery must be recycled or disposed of separately from household waste. Dispose of batteries according to your local environmental laws and guidelines. For information about battery recycling and replacement, go to apple.com/au/batteries/ service-and-recycling. For information about charging, see "Important safety information" in the MacBook Air Essentials guide.

Software License Agreement

Use of MacBook Air constitutes acceptance of the Apple and third-party software license terms found at apple.com/legal/sla.

Apple One-Year Limited Warranty Summary

Apple warrants the included hardware product and accessories against defects in materials and workmanship for one year from the date of original retail purchase. Apple does not warrant against normal wear and tear, nor damage caused by accident or abuse. To obtain service, call Apple or visit an Apple Store or an Apple Authorized Service Provider—available service options are dependent on the country in which service is requested and may be restricted to the original country of sale. Call charges and international shipping charges may apply, depending on the location. Subject to the full terms and detailed information on obtaining service available at apple.com/legal/warranty and support.apple.com, if you submit a valid claim under this warranty, Apple will either repair, replace, or refund your hardware device at its own discretion. Warranty benefits are in addition to rights provided under local consumer laws. You may be required to furnish proof of purchase details when making a claim under this warranty.

For Australian Consumers: Our goods come with guarantees that cannot be excluded under the Australian Consumer Law. You are entitled to a replacement or refund for a major failure and for compensation for any other reasonably foreseeable loss or damage. You are also entitled to have the goods repaired or replaced if the goods fail to be of acceptable quality and the failure does not amount to a major failure. Apple Pty Ltd, PO Box A2629, Sydney South NSW 1235. Tel: 133-622.

For EU Consumers: Apple means Apple Distribution International Ltd., Hollyhill Industrial Estate, Cork, Ireland. Consumers might have remedies free of charge against the seller in the event of a lack of conformity, which are not affected by this warranty.
