

Spooky Halloween Adventure

One _____(adjective) Halloween night, _____(proper noun) went out for a _____(action verb). Suddenly, there was a _____(adjective) sound that _____(past tense verb) the night sky. Breaking into a _____(action verb), _____(proper noun) moved with _____(uncountable noun).

As the sound _____(intransitive verb) closer, _____(proper pronoun) _____(past tense verb) faster. Without thinking, _____(pronoun) turned left toward _____(common noun). Realizing the _____(adverb) steps were coming closer, _____(pronoun) turned around to get a good look at what was _____(progressive tense verb) closer.

At first glance, it looked like a _____(common noun) was chasing _____(pronoun). But, at a closer glance, there was something familiar about the _____(noun). With a _____(verb) of relief, _____(proper noun) realized what _____(pronoun) thought was a _____(adjective) stalker, was really just a runaway _____(halloween decoration) from _____(pronoun) front yard. Grabbing the rogue yard decoration, _____(pronoun) walked home feeling a little _____(past-tense adjective).

