

Transfer Admission Checklist

Prepare for UC Riverside

Senior Year of High School

August–September

- Consider your transfer options. Most of our transfer students begin at a California Community College.
- Organize a college information file.
- Visit transfer.ucr.edu to learn more about UCR transfer admission, majors we offer, and how you will be supported.
- Visit financialaid.ucr.edu to explore your financial aid options.
- Plan your college finances with your family.

October–February

- Apply for financial aid by submitting a FAFSA (fafsa.ed.gov) or DREAM application (dream.csac.ca.gov) between Oct. 1 and March 2. UCR's school codes: FAFSA (001316) and DREAM (001316)
- Confirm whether your high school has filed your Cal Grant GPA verification form by the March 2 deadline. Visit csac.ca.gov to learn more.

March–April

- Apply for admission to the California Community College or university of your choice. Most operate on a semester system, but deadlines vary.
- Attend Highlander Day in the spring (If admitted.) Visit highlanderday.ucr.edu to learn more.
- Connect with your community college for math and writing placement requirements.
- Meet with a counselor and express your interest in transferring to UCR. Develop a transfer plan including English and math courses that meet minimum UC eligibility and UCR selection requirements.
- Review options for completing a general education pattern (IGETC) if it's advisable for your major.
- Plan to enroll in a college career guidance course.

May–July

- Register for classes (for most California Community Colleges).

This information is accurate and reliable at the time of publication but may change without notice. Please contact Undergraduate Admissions for the most up-to-date information. (8/22)

As part of UC Riverside's federal reporting requirements under the Clery Act, you can access our Annual Security and Fire Safety Report at go.ucr.edu/CleryAct. A full list of Consumer and Safety Information Disclosures is also available at go.ucr.edu/ConsumerSafety.

First Year of Community College or University

August

- Research your major at admissions.ucr.edu/majors. Identify prerequisites and minimum GPAs.
- Use the online UC Transfer Admissions Planner (TAP) at uctap.universityofcalifornia.edu to track your course work.
- Secure your future at UCR now! Meet with a counselor to discuss our Transfer Admission Guarantee (TAG) program. Visit transfer.ucr.edu to learn more about TAG.
- Meet with your counselor or adviser to develop an education plan.

September–December

- Meet with a UCR admissions counselor to develop a transfer plan specific to UCR and your desired major. For questions, visit admissions.ucr.edu/ask.

October–February

- Reapply for financial aid by submitting a FAFSA (fafsa.ed.gov) or DREAM application (dream.csac.ca.gov) between Oct. 1 and March 2. UCR's school codes: FAFSA (001316) and DREAM (001316)
- Participate in extracurricular activities and internships.

March–August

- Visit ASSIST.org to learn admission and selection requirements for your major.
- Complete 30 transferable semester units by the end of summer.
- Plan to complete a minimum of 60 UC transferable semester units (90 quarter units) by the end of the next spring term.
- Plan to meet all prerequisites for your major.
- At the close of each term, update course work and grades in UC TAP (uctap.universityofcalifornia.edu).
