FUN EXTENDED FOR FALL ON THE DELAWARE RIVER WATERFRONT THROUGH NOVEMBER 3

More, more, more, was the theme of the summer along the Delaware River Waterfront - and, staying on theme for the fall, the Delaware River Waterfront Corporation (DRWC) is thrilled to reveal that Spruce Street Harbor Park will be extended and continue with exciting fall programming and events through November 3rd.

PHILADELPHIA, PA (September 5, 2024) – Philadelphia asked and DRWC answered; fun on the Waterfront will continue through Sunday, November 3! Sweater weather is upon us, and now visitors can enjoy the crisper temperatures with delicious food and drinks, music, events and more all along the Waterfront.

Everyone's new favorite spot at Spruce Street Harbor Park, The Lazy Hammock, will remain open, adorned with fall decor to give you all those autumnal vibes. While The Boardwalk, The Barge, and The Grove will close Sunday, September 29, Philly Tacos, The Lazy Hammock bar, and The Trading Post general store will be open for business in addition to some exciting pop-ups and surprises through Sunday, November 3.

At the bar, seasonal fall cocktails featuring Captain Morgan, Jim Beam, and Hornitos will be offered along with local fall beers from Yards Brewing Co., New Trail Brewing Co., Conshohocken Brewing, and Love City Brewing.

Visitors to the Waterfront can also stroll down to Cherry Street Pier for a jam-packed fall event calendar, delicious eats from La Placita, the dining concept from the James Beard Award-nominated Cantina La Martina, and refreshing cocktails, craft beer, and local wines from the Cherry Street Pier bar.
