What To Watch For Tonight

- A victory tonight would be Kansas City's eighth-straight win, marking their longest winning streak of the season.
- The Mavericks winning streak is the longest active streak in the ECHL.
- With the team's next victory, General Manager and Head Coach Tad O'Had will become the franchise's all-time ECHL wins leader.
- KC's 14 road wins this season are tied for the most in the ECHL.
- Kansas City leads the league with 17 wins when scoring first in 2023-24.
- The Mavericks 22 wins over Mountain Division opponents are the most by one team against one division this season.

News & Notes

- The Mavericks picked up a thrilling, come-from-behind 4-3 overtime victory on Wednesday at Idaho. KC is 3-1 in OT games in 2023-24.
- Patrick Curry scored the game-winning goal nearly four minutes into the extra frame. It was Curry's team-leading fourth GWG this season.
- Defenseman Theo Calvas played in his 200th professional game on Wednesday night in Idaho.
- In his first game in a Mavericks uniform this season, Jeremy McKenna scored the team's opening goal for his 101st career ECHL point.
- David Cotton and Marc-Olivier Duquette scored Kansas City's other two goals. Cotton now has a four-game point streak.
- Since arriving via trade in late November, Cotton ranks No. 2 on the team with 13 assists and third with 17 total points.
- Since Dec. 15, Duquette leads all Mavericks defensemen with six points
- Kansas City picked up a 9-2 win over Wichita on New Year's Eve.
- The Mavericks have now won eight-consecutive NYE games.
- Kansas City's huge offensive showing was led in large part by the first professional hat trick from defenseman Ryan Jones. The alternate captain also added two assists for a five-point night.
- Cotton was the other high-scorer for KC, with a goal and four assists.
- Kansas City also had big contributions from rookies on NYE: Casey Carreau (one goal, two assists) and Bradley Schoonbaert (two assists).
- Jacob Hayhurst (two goals, two assists) and Cade Borchardt (goal and an assist) were the other multi-point scorers for Kansas City.
- Hayhurst has a team-leading 11 points in the last five games.
- The Mavericks scored five power-play goals on New Year's Eve. The five scores with a man advantage is an ECHL single-game high this season.

Bullet Points

- Kansas City is the only team in the ECHL to rank in the top-five in both goals for and goals allowed.
- The Mavericks are the only team to not allow a shorthanded goal.
- Kansas City has five players on the active roster averaging at least one point per game in a Mavericks sweater this season (Andreev, Borchardt, Cotton, Curry and Walker).
- Andreev (t-5th), Curry (7th) and Borchardt (t-9th) are all in the top-10 in the ECHL in points scored this season.

MAX ANDREEV NAMED NOVEMBER'S ECHL ROOKIE OF THE MONTH

INDEPENDENCE, MO. – Mavericks forward Max Andreev has been named November's Howies Hockey Tape ECHL Rookie of the Month. Andreev is the first player in team history to win an ECHL Rookie of the Month award.

Andreev, 25, scored four goals and 11 assists for 15 points in 12 games in the first full month of the ECHL season. Andreev had four multi-point games in November, including notching one goal and two assists in the November 10th victory at Allen.

"We are very excited for Max and him being named Rookie of the Month," said Mavericks General Manager and Head Coach, Tad O'Had. "He is a tremendously talented player who possesses an incredible work ethic and love for the game. Max has been instrumental in the Mavericks team success, we are very proud of him and look forward to his continued success."

CALE MORRIS NAMED ECHL'S OCTOBER GOALTENDER OF THE MONTH

INDEPENDENCE, MO. – For the first month of the season, Cale Morris has been named Warrior Hockey ECHL Goaltender of the Month for October.

"This is a well-deserved honor for Cale," said Mavericks General Manager and Head Coach, Tad O'Had. "Cale is an extremely talented goaltender who stepped in and has performed at a high level. Cale possess a great demeanor and work ethic, our team has rallied around him and we are happy for this accolade. He has an extremely bright future with the Mavericks."

Morris, 27, went 3-0-0 in three games in October with a 2.00 goals-against-average and a .929 save percentage.

"We are very excited about this honor for Cale," said Mavericks Goalie and Video Coach Rob Couturier. "Cale has worked extremely hard and this accolade is well-deserved. The entire coaching staff is looking forward to watching him help us towards our goals this season."

JACOB HAYHURST NAMED ECHL PLAYER OF THE WEEK

INDEPENDENCE, MO. – Mavericks forward Jacob Hayhurst has been named the Inglasco ECHL Player of the Week for December 27-31.

In three victories against Wichita, Hayhurst recorded six goals and two assists for an ECHL-high eight points, highlighted by his first professional hat trick on Dec. 30 at Wichita.

The Mississauga, Ontario native scored at least one goal in each game of the three-game set with the Thunder to wrap up the 2023 calendar.

On New Year's Eve in front of a sold-out Cable Dahmer Arena, hours after scoring three goals on Friday in Wichita, Hayhurst recorded his first four-point night in a Mavericks uniform, scoring two goals and adding two assists in the 9-2 victory.

MAX ANDREEV SELECTED TO THE 2024 WARRIOR/ECHL ALL-STAR CLASSIC

INDEPENDENCE, MO. – As one of the top players in the ECHL, forward Max Andreev has been selected to represent the Mavericks at the 2024 Warrior/ECHL All-Star Classic on January 15 at Enmarket Arena in Savannah, Ga.

The roster for the ECHL All-Stars was determined in a vote of coaches, team captains, media relations directors, broadcasters and members of the media.

One of the biggest nights from the Moscow native came on December 6 in a 7-5 victory over Idaho at Cable Dahmer Arena. Andreev scored three goals and added an assist for the first Mavericks hat trick in more than a year.
