PATRICK CURRY NAMED TO ALL-ECHL FIRST TEAM

INDEPENDENCE, MO. – The ECHL announced today that Mavericks forward Patrick Curry has been named to the 2023-24 All-ECHL First Team.

Curry is the first Mavericks player to be named to an All-ECHL First Team since Josh Robinson in 2015-16.

"Patrick Curry has been a tremendous mainstay all season. He is a pro's pro night in and night out," said Mavericks General Manager and Head Coach, Tad O'Had. "He shows up and competes, he does not cheat the game and he plays with a great deal of pace and tenacity. He has contributed in all three zones for the Mavericks and we are truly proud of his success and accomplishments this season. He is incredibly deserving to be selected to the All-ECHL First Team."

The former Boston University captain has set the Mavericks franchise record in goals and the Mavericks ECHL record in points and is fourth all-time in assists in the ECHL franchise history.

2023-24 All-ECHL First Team

G – Taylor Gauthier, Wheeling Nailers
 D – Patrick Kudla, Idaho Steelheads
 D – Jalen Smereck, Cincinnati Cyclones
 F – Patrick Curry, Kansas City Mavericks
 F – Brandon Hawkins, Toledo Walleye
 F – Alex Kile, Maine Mariners

MAX ANDREEV NAMED ECHL PLUS PERFORMER OF THE YEAR

INDEPENDENCE, MO. – Mavericks rookie forward Max Andreev has been named the ECHL's Plus Performer of the Year, the league announced today.

Andreev's +34 rating was tied with Toledo's Grant Gabriele for best in the 2023-24 regular season. In 63 games played this season, Andreev had an even or better rating in 53 contests.

The Cornell alum finished his rookie campaign with 19 goals and 54 assists for 73 points, good for third among all ECHL rookies. His 54 assists led all ECHL first-year players and put him in the top-five league-wide.

Kansas City had four of the top-six leaders in plus-minus this season.

Andreev is the first player in franchise history to receive this honor.

MAX ANDREEV AND CADE BORCHARDT NAMED TO ECHL ALL-ROOKIE TEAM

INDEPENDENCE, Mo. – The ECHL announced today that Mavericks forwards Max Andreev and Cade Borchardt have been named to the 2023-24 ECHL All-Rookie Team.

The two Kansas City honorees are the first two Mavericks players in franchise history to be named to the ECHL's All-Rookie Team.

"We are so incredibly proud of Cade and Max, they both have had remarkable seasons," said Mavericks General Manager and Head Coach, Tad O'Had. "What is really special about these men is their true professionalism."

Andreev's compete level and care factor is through the roof – he takes his game to the tip of the sword night in and night out. He is the ultimate competitor.

Borchardt is an incredible playmaker. His tenacity on loose pucks and his ability to make the players around him better is the best I've seen in this league.

Both of these men are exceptionally deserving and the Mavericks family looks forward to watching their professional careers blossom for years to come."

Both Andreev and Borchardt are two of three players in ECHL franchise history with 50 or more assists in a season.

Kansas City is also the only team this season to have two players on the All-Rookie team.

2023-24 ECHL All-Rookie Team

G – Matt Vernon, Jacksonville Icemen
 D – Kyle Mayhew, Utah Grizzlies
 D – Jonny Tychochick, Newfoundland Growlers
 F – Max Andreev, Kansas City Mavericks
 F – Cade Borchardt, Kansas City Mavericks
 F – Austin Magera, South Carolina Stingrays

JUSTIN STURTZ NAMED ECHL EQUIPMENT MANAGER OF THE YEAR

INDEPENDENCE, MO. – Mavericks Equipment Manager Justin Sturtz has been named the ECHL's Equipment Manager of the Year, the league announced today.

"Justin is very deserving to be named Equipment Manager of the Year. In his two years with the Mavericks, he has done an exceptional job in making things run smoothly on and off the ice," noted Mavericks General Manager and Head Coach Tad O'Had. "His job can be grueling and thankless at times, but he always puts the players first and operates like a true professional. We are so very proud of his achievement and to have Justin part of the family. He truly is great at what he does."

Sturtz is in his second year with the Mavericks and has previously spent time in the WHL, USHL and three seasons in the AHL with the Iowa Wild.

Kansas City Mavericks Game Notes | 2024 Kelly Cup Playoffs

PATRICK CURRY NAMED ECHL PLAYER OF THE WEEK

INDEPENDENCE, MO. – Mavericks forward Patrick Curry has been named the Inglasco ECHL Player of the Week for the week of March 11-17, the league announced today. Curry is the sixth different Mavericks player to win a weekly or monthly ECHL award this season.

In two home games against Rapid City, Curry scored three goals and added four assists for a seven-point week. On March 16 vs. the Rush, Curry recorded his 100th professional point.

JAKE MCLAUGHLIN NAMED ECHL'S PLUS PERFORMER OF THE MONTH FOR FEBRUARY

INDEPENDENCE, MO. – Finishing the month of February with a +13 rating, Jake McLaughlin has been named the AMI Graphics ECHL's Plus Performer of the Month for February.

The UMass alum had an even or better rating in all 12 games played in February.

This is the second-straight month in which a Mavericks skater has received this honor, following Nate Knoepke in January.

NATE KNOEPKE NAMED ECHL'S PLUS PERFORMER OF THE MONTH FOR JANUARY

INDEPENDENCE, MO. – Mavericks defenseman Nate Knoepke has been named the AMI Graphics ECHL Plus Performer of the Month for January. Knoepke led the ECHL with a +14 rating in the first month of 2024.

The 24-year-old Burnsville, Minn., native's month was highlighted by having an even or better rating in eight of his nine games played.

PATRICK CURRY NAMED TO THE 2024 WARRIOR/ECHL ALL-STAR CLASSIC

INDEPENDENCE, MO. – Mavericks forward Patrick Curry has been named to the 2024 Warrior/ECHL All-Star Classic on January 15 in Savannah, Ga. Curry joins Max Andreev as the two Mavericks representatives in the game.

On Jan. 10 at Idaho, Curry scored the overtime game-winning goal and leads the team with four game-winning scores this season.

MAX ANDREEV SELECTED TO THE 2024 WARRIOR/ECHL ALL-STAR CLASSIC

INDEPENDENCE, MO. – As one of the top players in the ECHL, forward Max Andreev has been selected to represent the Mavericks at the 2024 Warrior/ECHL All-Star Classic on January 15 at Enmarket Arena in Savannah, Ga.

The roster for the ECHL All-Stars was determined in a vote of coaches, team captains, media relations directors, broadcasters and members of the media.

One of the biggest nights from the Moscow native came on December 6 in a 7-5 victory over Idaho at Cable Dahmer Arena. Andreev scored three goals and added an assist for the first Mavericks hat trick in more than a year.

JACOB HAYHURST NAMED ECHL PLAYER OF THE WEEK

INDEPENDENCE, MO. – Mavericks forward Jacob Hayhurst has been named the Inglasco ECHL Player of the Week for December 27-31.

In three victories against Wichita, Hayhurst recorded six goals and two assists for an ECHL-high eight points, highlighted by his first professional hat trick on Dec. 30 at Wichita.

The Mississauga, Ontario native scored at least one goal in each game of the three-game set with the Thunder to wrap up the 2023 calendar.

On New Year's Eve in front of a sold-out Cable Dahmer Arena, hours after scoring three goals the night before in Wichita, Hayhurst recorded his first four-point night in a Mavericks uniform, scoring two goals and adding two assists in the 9-2 victory.

MAX ANDREEV NAMED NOVEMBER'S ECHL ROOKIE OF THE MONTH

INDEPENDENCE, MO. – Mavericks forward Max Andreev has been named November's Howies Hockey Tape ECHL Rookie of the Month. Andreev is the first player in team history to win an ECHL Rookie of the Month award.

Andreev, 25, scored four goals and 11 assists for 15 points in 12 games in the first full month of the ECHL season. Andreev had four multi-point games in November, including notching one goal and two assists in the November 10th victory at Allen.

"We are very excited for Max and him being named Rookie of the Month," said Mavericks General Manager and Head Coach, Tad O'Had. "He is a tremendously talented player who possesses an incredible work ethic and love for the game. Max has been instrumental in the Mavericks team success, we are very proud of him and look forward to his continued success."

CALE MORRIS NAMED ECHL'S OCTOBER GOALTENDER OF THE MONTH

INDEPENDENCE, MO. – For the first month of the season, Cale Morris has been named Warrior Hockey ECHL Goaltender of the Month for October.

"This is a well-deserved honor for Cale," said Mavericks General Manager and Head Coach, Tad O'Had. "Cale is an extremely talented goaltender who stepped in and has performed at a high level. Cale possess a great demeanor and work ethic, our team has rallied around him and we are happy for this accolade. He has an extremely bright future with the Mavericks."

Morris, 27, went 3-0-0 in three games in October with a 2.00 goals-against-average and a .929 save percentage.

"We are very excited about this honor for Cale," said Mavericks Goalie and Video Coach Rob Couturier. "Cale has worked extremely hard and this accolade is well-deserved. The entire coaching staff is looking forward to watching him help us towards our goals this season."
