<h1>Head Coach</h1>		<h1>James Henry</h1>
---------------------	---	----------------------	---

Age: 32 DOB: 3/11/1991 From: Winnipeg, MB Pro Seasons: 7 Head Coach Season: 2nd

James Henry was hired as the Royals' eighth head coach in team history on 6/17/22 after serving as assistant coach in the 2021-22 season under Kirk MacDonald. Prior to Reading, Henry was the assistant coach of the Fayetteville Marksmen of the SPHL in the 2020-21 season but never got the chance to work in-game due to COVID-19. He was originally signed to be the FPHL's Binghamton Black Bears' head coach in 2021-22. His move up to the ECHL came one year after retiring from playing. Henry is the all-time leader in points for the Adirondack Thunder with 69 goals and 161 assists in 303 games played. He scored 86 more points than second place in the all-time list, Pete MacArthur. He also played 110 games more than Conor Riley, who is second on the all-time games played list.

Across his ECHL career, he scored 14 goals and 23 assists (37 points) in 51 games against the Royals. He also captained the Thunder through the 2018-19 and 2019-20 seasons. He was awarded in 2019 with the ECHL Community Service Award, was named to the ECHL All-Star Game in 2017, and captained the Vancouver Giants of the WHL in 2011-12. Internationally, the Winnipeg, Manitoba native represented the Western part of Canada in the 2008 World U-17 Hockey Challenge and won the bronze medal.

Assistant Coach

Jason Binkley

Age: 31 DOB: 6/13/1992 From: Powell, OH Pro Seasons: 6 Seasons Asst. Coaching: 2nd

Jason Binkley was hired as the Royals' twenty-second assistant coach in team history on 7/14/22. Binkley served as assistant coach of the Fayetteville Marksmen of the SPHL in the 2021-22 season. With Binkley on the coaching staff, the Marksmen had their winningest season in team history. His move up to the ECHL comes two years after retiring from playing.

Across his ECHL career, he scored 14 goals and 23 assists (37 points) in 51 games against the Royals. Binkley played six seasons of professional hockey and was a part of two deep playoff runs with the Fort Wayne Komets in the 2017 & 2018 seasons. During those playoff runs, he was among the top-three defenseman on the team in points. At the end of the 2018 season, Binkley received the The Unsung Hero Award, given to the player whose hard work, dedication to his teammates and love of the game is in the true spirit of Komet legends Robbie Irons and Terry Pembroke. In 2019-20, Binkley played 38 games with Fort Wayne before playing four games in the AHL with the Cleveland Monsters. Internationally, the Powell, Ohio native played overseas to play in the Elite Ice Hockey League (EIHL) with the Nottingham Panthers in England in 2020. A product of NCAA division-I Ferris State, Binkley played in the 2012 Frozen Four national championship game with Ferris State.
