Please use this space to describe any additional details regarding your recruitment of bilingual poll workers or language services provided.

We have attended community events and sent flash emails to county workers looking for those interested in being poll workers.

When speaking with potential poll workers we ask if they know any other languages. We also ask if there are any family members that would like to work with them at the poll site and if they know any other languages.

Looking ahead we will post the need and request in Facebook, Instagram and Twitter.
