

MNI CREDIT

MNI's Credit service offers real time, actionable intelligence and analysis across the European credit market for both investment grade & high yield credit instruments. Our real time coverage is delivered in a concise, bullet-point format, via 3rd party chat platforms and the MNI website, with full analyst interaction during European trading hours. Our credit team includes experienced credit analysts and former traders from the sell-side and buy-side who work alongside the commodities, FX, developed/emerging markets and global macro teams.

WHAT'S INCLUDED:

- Analysis of primary issuance and secondary market trading.
- Concise coverage of individual credits.
- Identifying market drivers at both the single-name and macro level.
- Coverage of financial statement releases and performance updates.
- Analysis of industry news, corporate actions, regulatory changes, rating revisions and key industry and macro data.
- Regular roundups of market activity and significant credit developments.

WHY YOU NEED THIS:

- This real time service keeps you ahead of your peers, ensuring that information is delivered rapidly, with context and strong analytical content.
- MNI can provide a holistic overview of the rates, foreign exchange, and credit markets, acting as a single point of reference to inform you and help you and incorporate key risks and opportunities into your strategies.
