1. Why do we collect personal data?

We collect personal data of relevant Frontex staff with whom we need to coordinate our activities in the framework of the fundamental rights monitors project. Based on Frontex staff's proposals FRA staff might contact CF members, representatives of international organisations, national human rights institutions, NPMs or NGOs.

2. What kind of personal data does the Agency collect?

We will collect only the following personal data necessary for the processing operation described above.

- Personal details (e.g. name, surname)
- Contact details (email address, mobile number)
- Education & Training details (training background of Frontex staff)
- Employment details (e.g. work experience, languages)

3. How do we collect your personal data?

Through mail correspondence with Frontex Headquarter or directly in the field from Frontex staff.

4. Who is responsible for processing your personal data?

The Agency is the legal entity responsible for the processing of your personal data and determines the objective of this processing activity. The Head of Technical Assistance and Capacity Building Unit is responsible for this processing operation.

5. Which is the legal basis for this processing operation?

Processing of the above personal data are necessary for the performance of the Service Level Agreement signed between FRA and Frontex on 10 June 2020. Therefore, the processing is lawful under Article 5(c) of the Regulation (EU) No 2018/1725.

Also collecting, recording, analysing and disseminating relevant, objective, reliable and comparable information and data, including results from monitoring is necessary for the functioning of the Agency as per art. 4(1)(a) Regulation (EC) No 168/2007. Therefore, the processing is lawful under Article 5(a) of the Regulation (EU) No 2018/1725.

6. Who can see your data?

Asylum and migration team members, who are appointed to this pilot project.

7. Do we share your data with other organisations?

Personal data is processed only by the Agency and Frontex.

8. Do we intend to transfer your personal data to Third Countries/International Organizations

No

9. When we will start the processing operation?

With the entry into force following signature on 10 June 2020.

10. How long do we keep your data?

For the duration of the project and the Service Level Agreement framing it, which is end 2020.

11. How can you control your data?

Under Regulation 2018/1725, you have rights we need to make you aware of. The rights available to you depend on our reason for processing your information. You are not required to pay any charges for exercising your rights except in cases where the requests are manifestly unfounded or excessive, in particular because of their repetitive character.

We will reply to your request without undue delay and in any event within one month of receipt of the request. That period may be extended by two further months where necessary, taking into account the complexity and number of the requests.

You can exercise your rights described below by sending an email request to [REDACTED] or [REDACTED].

11.1. How valuable is your consent for us?

Since the participation in the activities above is mandatory in accordance with the Service Level Agreement signed between FRA and Frontex on 10 June 2020, you are not required to provide your consent.

11.2. Your data protection rights

a. Can you access your data?

You have the right to receive information on whether we process your personal data or not, the purposes of the processing, the categories of personal data concerned, any recipients to whom the personal data have been disclosed and their storage period. Furthermore, you can have access to such data, as well as obtain copies of your data undergoing processing.

b. Can you modify your data?

You have the right to ask us to rectify your data you think is inaccurate or incomplete at any time.

c. Can you restrict us from processing your data?

You have the right to block the processing of your personal data when you contest the accuracy of your personal data or when the Agency no longer needs the data for completing its tasks. You can also block the processing activity when the operation is unlawful, and you oppose to the erasure of the data.

d. Can you delete your data?

You have the right to ask us to delete your data when the personal data are no longer necessary for the purposes for which they were collected, when you have withdrawn your consent or when the processing activity is unlawful. In certain occasions we will have to erase your data in order to comply with a legal obligation to which we are subject.

We will notify to each recipient to whom your personal data have been disclosed of any rectification or erasure of personal data or restriction of processing carried out in accordance with the above rights unless this proves impossible or involves disproportionate effort from our side.

e. Can you request the transfer of your data to a third party?

This only applies to information you have given us. You have the right to ask that we transfer the information you gave us from one organisation to another, or give it to you. The right only applies if we are processing information based on your consent or for the performance of a contract or for entering into a contract and the processing is automated.

f. Do you have the right to object?

Yes, you have the right to object when you have legitimate reasons relating to your particular situation. Moreover, you will be informed before your information is disclosed for the first time to third parties, or before it is used on their behalf, for direct marketing purposes.

g. Do we do automated decision making, including profiling?

No.

12. What security measures are taken to safeguard your personal data?

PRIVACY NOTICE

The Agency has several security controls in place to protect your personal data from unauthorised access, use or disclosure. We keep your data stored on our internal servers with limited access to a specified audience only.

13. What can you do in the event of a problem?

a) The first step is to notify the Agency by sending an email to [REDACTED] or [REDACTED] and ask us to take action.

b) The second step, if you obtain no reply from us or if you are not satisfied with it, contact our Data Protection Officer (DPO) at dpo@fra.europa.eu.

c) At any time you can lodge a complaint with the EDPS at <http://www.edps.europa.eu>, who will examine your request and adopt the necessary measures.

14. How do we update our privacy notice?

We keep our privacy notice under regular review to make sure it is up to date and accurate.
