PRIVACY NOTICE

1. Why do we collect personal data?

FRA collects personal data in the context of the 24 October 2019 workshop in Rome presenting the FRA Fundamental Rights Report 2019.

The collected data will be used to inform invitees about the programme as well as to share the workshop report and photos/videos of the panellists taken during the event for enhancing the visibility of the event.

2. What kind of personal data does the Agency collect?

FRA collects personal data related to identification and contact details of the workshop invitees like name, surname email addresses, profession, organisation and type of organisation. FRA may take videos and photos of the panellists during the workshop.

3. How do we collect your personal data?

FRA together with the co-organiser of the meeting, Roma Tre University/Department of Political Sciences will jointly collect personal data using emails, excel sheets and paper format.

Fondazione Giacomo Brodolini will process the collected personal data on behalf of FRA.

4. Who is responsible for the processing your personal data?

FRA and Roma Tre University/Department of Political Sciences are the legal entities jointly responsible for the processing of your personal data and determine the objective of this processing activity. The FRA Head of Communication & Events Unit and the Director of the Department of Political Sciences of Roma Tre University are responsible for this processing operation.

5. Which is the legal basis for this processing operation?

Organising various events is necessary for the functioning of the Agency. Therefore, the processing is lawful under Article 5(a) of the Regulation (EU) No 2018/1725. In addition, since the participation to the events is not mandatory, the processing of the personal data is also in accordance with Article 5(d) of Regulation (EU) No 2018/1725.

6. Who can see your data?

Your personal data are stored in an electronic database. Access to the database is restricted to authorised staff members of the FRA as well as authorized staff of Roma Tre University/Department of Political Sciences and Fondazione Giacomo Brodolini.
