

Bosnia and Herzegovina among rest is committed to active participation in collective security building considering documents Security Policy of BiH and Defense policy of BiH which are adopted by Presidency of BiH. The way in which this is being done is by joining international security conventions, European and Euro-Atlantic security structures. Active role in international organizations and participation in peace support operations contributes to strengthening of international position of Bosnia and Herzegovina in collective security building and strengthening of regional cooperation. Regional cooperation is being done through the development of neighborly relation, launching initiatives and consistent implementation of Regional and Sub-regional Cooperation Agreement. Active interregional cooperation is strengthened by joint activities with a goal to prevent and fight against security threats and challenges. Joint capacities building in the area of security and strengthening of existing capacities will be imperative in future activities planning also including possible formation of specialized regional centers. Using bilateral military cooperation as a form of strengthening mutual relations and trust building with countries of the region and this also strengthens level of security.