Renewals:

United States Citizens or immigrants with permanent legal status: Documents are NOT required for renewal if the information on those documents provided for ALL five (5) of the category requirements described below are the same that were provided in-person during a previous issuance of a Hawaii driver's license, instruction permit, provisional driver's license or Hawaii state identification card. New documents must be provided in-person if there are any changes to your U.S. citizenship status or legal name.

Non-U.S. Citizens: Documentation of continued legal presence is required with each subsequent renewal application submitted for a Hawaii driver's license, instruction permit, provisional driver's license or Hawaii state identification card.

Additional documents may be required if there is a difference in names on the documents submitted. You must provide "connecting documents" to establish the link between the names of any documents that have different names printed. Refer to the last section below titled "LIST OF ACCEPTABLE CONNECTING DOCUMENTS TO PROVE LEGAL NAME CHANGES".

Acceptable Documents For: (5) Hawaii Principal Residence Address
(Two documents from different entities or accounts are required)

Documents must show the Hawaii address and the applicant's full first and last name as the addressee. Documents from the same entity must have different account numbers or identifiers. An affidavit available from your county DMV office to prove your residence may be applicable to those that do not have any documents with their full first and last name as the addressee. The affidavit provides for the applicant to affirm that the applicant's principal residence is the same as the Hawaii address of the person they reside with and documentation will be provided by the affiant. This commonly occurs with children living with their parents but other circumstances may apply as well. The affidavit form must be notarized or signed by the affiant in person and witnessed by the staff processing your application. The affidavit form may be obtained from your county DMV office.
