COME NOW the above-named Plaintiffs, by and through undersigned counsel and state as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. April 28, 2023 was supposed to be the happiest day of Samantha’s (“Sam”) and Aric’s lives. Earlier that week, their families and friends had arrived in Charleston for a week of wedding festivities to celebrate Sam and Aric, their love, and the beginning of their next stage of life together as husband and wife.

2. The week culminated with Sam and Aric's marriage on April 28, 2023 on Folly Beach. The day was perfect, and the wedding went off better than either of them could have imagined. Photos from the wedding depict the newlyweds exactly as they were: madly in love, smiling from ear to ear, and filled with all the hope and promise of what would have been a truly beautiful life together. Pictured below is the happy couple:

3. Unbeknownst to Sam, Aric, and their wedding party, Jamie Komoroski and the other Defendants were creating a different kind of day – one that would set in motion a course of events ultimately transforming a fairytale love story into a fateful night of unspeakable tragedy.

4. On Friday, April 28, 2023, Jamie Komoroski set off on a booze-filled day of bar hopping. This was not just any ordinary day of drinking, though. By the time her blood was drawn while in police custody at the end of the night, Jamie Komoroski was so intoxicated that her Blood Alcohol Content was at least 0.261, more than three times the legal limit.

5. On April 28, 2023, Jamie Komoroski visited several bars where she was served and consumed copious amounts of alcohol.

6. Jamie Komoroski began at El Gallo Bar & Grill, located at 2601 Clements Ferry Rd. near Daniel Island.

7. From there, she made her way to Folly Beach where she began bar hopping down Center Street, making stops at The Drop In, The Crab Shack, and Snapper Jacks.

8. Despite being noticeably and visibly intoxicated at each of these establishments, Jamie Komoroski continued to be served, provided, and/or allowed to consume additional and excessive amounts of alcohol at each of them.

9. Over the course of several hours, Jamie Komoroski slurred and staggered her way through each of these bars, consuming an assortment of alcoholic beverages, including beer, tequila shots, shift shots of liquor on the house, etc.

10. By the end of the night, Jamie Komoroski was grossly and dangerously intoxicated.

11. Around that same time, Jamie Komoroski was wrapping up her drunken escapade, Sam and Aric were preparing to leave their wedding reception. Surrounded by family and friends, the newlyweds were sent off on the back of a wedding-themed golf cart driven by Aric's brother-in-law, Plaintiff Benjamin Garrett, and Aric's nephew, Plaintiff B.G., who was seated in the passenger seat next to Benjamin. They proceeded east on East Ashley Avenue towards the rental the newlyweds had reserved for the night.

12. Meanwhile, Jamie Komoroski was allowed to leave the bars, make her way to her vehicle, and drive on public roadways in her nearly unconscious state.

13. Despite living on James Island, Jamie Komoroski, in the stupor of a drunken haze, mistakenly drove east on East Ashley Avenue in the opposite direction of her home.

14. As she headed east on East Ashley Avenue, Jamie Komoroski accelerated rapidly. Even as she blew through the 25-mph speed limit, Jamie Komoroski continued to accelerate.

15. Reaching speeds of approximately 65-mph, Jamie Komoroski hurtled down Ashley Avenue and slammed into the back of the golf cart in which Plaintiffs were riding.

16. As a result of the violent and catastrophic collision, each of Plaintiffs suffered terrible and permanent injuries and Aric's new bride, Samantha Miller, lost her life.

17. At the time of the wreck, Jamie Komoroski was grossly intoxicated. Her intoxicated state was a direct and proximate cause of the collision that caused the severe injuries suffered by the Plaintiffs, as well as the ultimate death of Samantha Miller.

18. What began as, and should have remained, the happiest day of Sam's and Aric's lives ended in a horrifying and unbelievably devastating, yet altogether preventable, tragedy.
