30-32 Westland Row, D2
t. +353 (0) 1 679 9077, www.kennedyspub.ie

Founded in 1850 as a small grocer's shop, Mrs Kennedy quickly realised that installing a tap selling pints of porter could earn an extra couple of well-needed shillings come rent-day. While the choice has somewhat improved to include some world renowned IPAs, stouts and ales; the old-worldly charm still remains. Friendly and easy-going, Oscar Wilde, graces the walls where he once stacked shelves. Located beside the three O'Callaghan hotels, there is always a serious buzz at lunchtimes and after-work but you can always find somewhere to plunk yourself down and sip on a nice cold pint or one of their renowned Irish Coffees. Be warned, with food served until 11pm each night, it is hard to resist a bowl of their fabulous chicken wings or enormous fish & chips once you see them served at the table beside you.

Open: Mon-Thurs 10am-11.30pm, Fri-Sat 10am-late, Sun 12pm-11pm.

In 1908 Grandma Murray opened Murray's Pub at 33 Upper O'Connell Street (then known as Sackville Street) in the heart of the city. Murray's has been serving the people of Dublin ever since & Grandma Murray's descendants still run the pub to this day! With award winning food, a wide range of craft beers & our traditional Irish music & dancing show 7 nights a week, it's no wonder Murray's Bar & Grill has become a firm favourite of locals & visitors alike. Murray's sports bar upstairs shows all major sporting events on several large screens...or check out our comfortable terrace area, complete with real fire, complete with real fire and Ireland's largest outdoor screen. The latest addition to the Murray's experience is our New York-style Basement Bar, Dublin's most luxurious whiskey bar. Murray's is the ideal venue for great food and great craic...& a warm welcome every time!

Open: 8:30am

F4 SLATTERY'S BAR
129-131 Capel Street, D1
t. +353 (0) 1 874 6844 www.slatterysbar.com

The World Famous Slattery's Bar was established in 1870 and has many original Victorian features. It has hosted some of the greats of Irish music, U2 and Thin Lizzy had gigs here while Van Morrison, Christy Moore and The Chieftans were regulars. This tradition continues today with live music every weekend. Slattery's is open from 7am daily and serves the best Irish breakfast in Dublin, as recommended by Anthony Bourdain. Food is served until late. Live sports are shown on big screens and it's Guinness you are after, you won't find a better pint! You can smell St James gate from the front door! During the Easter Rising, Slattery's provided shelter and sustenance to rebels during the worst of the fighting at the nearby GPO. Their excellent 1916 commemorative wall is not to be missed. As well as photographs they have interesting authentic uniforms, medals, documents and weaponry on view.

Open: 7am daily.

G6 PETER'S PUB
1 Johnson Place, D2
t. +353 (0) 1 679 3347, www.peterspub.ie

"The best drinks in good company" is the motto of this traditional family-run Dublin pub, and they're not wrong! A visit here is like stepping into Peter's friendly front room, rather than an impersonal pub. Expect a warm, welcoming atmosphere in an unstuffy setting with cosy banquette and bar seating. Sample the large selection of Irish Premium Whiskeys and Irish Craft Beers and treat yourself to the celebrated toasts or traditional cheese boards or open prawn sandwiches on brown Irish soda bread. The House Speciality Irish Coffee is a perfect pre and post tea or shopping treat - the Gaiety Theatre and bustling Grafton Street are both close by.

Open Mon-Thurs 11am - 11.30pm, Fri & Sat 11am - 12.30am, Sun 1pm - 11pm.

F5, A7 LUNDY FOOT & CO.
Essex Gate, Lundy Foot, D8
t. +353 (0) 1 671 1535, www.lundyfoot.com

Situated in the heart of Temple Bar, Lundy Foot & Co. is one of Dublin's finest traditional Irish pubs. With great food, a warm welcome and live music every night, Lundy's is the venue for every occasion. Come and experience the atmosphere for yourself. We serve breakfast, lunch and dinner every day and our late bar opens until 3am Monday to Saturday. We host traditional Irish music and dance shows every night and you won't find a wider selection of Irish whiskeys, gins and craft beers anywhere else. Established in 1892, the bar has undergone a recent refurbishment and is now even cosier and more welcoming than ever. Renamed in honour of Lundy Foot, a celebrated tobacconist & snuff manufacturer from the 18th century and a true Dublin character. Our pub, which proudly bears his name, is steeped in the history, culture and traditions barely changed since Lundy Foot himself strode along the cobble streets of Dublin City.

Open: Mon-Thurs 12pm-3am, Fri-Sat 9am-3am, Sun 9am-2am

Traditional Irish Pubs

G6 GROGAN'S CASTLE LOUNGE
15 South William St, D2
t. +353 (0) 1 677 9320, www.groganspub.ie

Established in 1899, Grogan's is a traditional Dublin pub that has been and still is a haunt of Ireland's artistic avant-garde including literary greats such as Patrick Kavanagh, Flann O'Brien, J.P. Donleavy and Liam O'Flaherty. Traditional to the core, there are no TV screens or background music, just amiable, welcoming bar staff with plenty of stories to tell. None more so than the joint proprietor Tommy Smith who has been watching the scene for over 40 years. The interior has a 1950s feel and continuing its association with the arts, the walls are festooned with paintings by local artists which are for sale on a non-committal basis. Outdoor seating spills onto Castle Market making it a busy hub on the street. The ambience attracts an eclectic mix of students, business suits, old fashioned drinkers and Dublin's glamorous youth, who meet to talk and mingle or just have a few quiet drinks in peace.

Open: Mon-Thurs 10.30am-11.30pm, Fri-Sat 10.30-12.30am, Sun 12.30-11pm

Drink: Whether you're out for a cocktail, getting crafty with beers or want to bomb with friends. We've got it all!
Food: Gastro pub food highly recommended on trip advisor. Try the specials and homemade desserts. As all are freshly prepared, service takes a little longer than fast food but it's worth it!
Price: We're regular city centre prices, unusual for Temple Bar.
Staff: Friendly, fun, approachable and reasonably good looking!
Music: Live. Contemporary music played by some of Dublin's most talented musicians, acoustically amplified covers & originals that won't disappoint. DJ's & Saxophonist in the club on weekends playing an eclectic mix on id open. Guaranteed to have you dancing all night long. Live bar 7 nights a week. 2 for €12 cocktails. Live Music, DJ and Sax.

33-34 Upper O'Connell Street, D1
t. +353 (0) 1 878 7505, murraysbarandgrill.ie

One of Dublin's best live music venue bars, Wild Duck is open fronted facing onto the street. The look throughout is retro, with an eclectic mix of vintage and modern art, prints, photos, furniture and curios. The theatrical style of the venue is no designer-led vision. The wildly diverse décor was created from the personal collection of antiques, curiosities and mementoes, gathered over many years by the proprietor Gary Whelan. Gary, who created the iconic Whelan's on Camden Street, is also the owner of The Dalkey Duck, and a familiar face from his long acting career on shows such as Ballykissangel and The Bill. By contrast, the drinks and food menus are modern and on trend. Open from early, the current all-day menu offers a range of bar food served 12pm-9pm daily. The Wild Duck Live Music Venue can be accessed via the bar or a separate front entrance. Check out their website to see what eclectic mix of entertainment is playing next.
