Howth

WELCOME TO HOWTH

Escape to the beautiful Howth Peninsula and experience the best Ireland has to offer just 20 minutes from Dublin City Centre. Renowned as Ireland's culinary capital for seafood and fine dining, make sure you make the trip, if only to eat some of the best fish and chips you will ever eat. Howth has many award-winning restaurants and offers great craic and music in some fantastic pubs.

Explore Howth Village's pretty harbour with its fishing boats, marina and pleasure to historic events. Visit the Museum of Vintage Radio, Ireland's oldest inhabited Castle and the monolithic tomb known as Aiden's Grave.

For the more adventurous, there are stunning cliff and mountain walks with views from Dublin Bay to the Mourne Mountains. Boat trips, scuba diving and sailing are readily available and are a great way to view the stunning coastline. It is easy to reach by car or DART from the city-centre to Howth DART Station, or take the 31/a bus from Talbot Street.

Gastro Pubs

I6 KENNEDY'S
30-32 Westland Row, D2, t. +353 (0) 1 679 9077, www.kennedyspub.ie
Founded in 1850 as a small grocer's shop, Mrs Kennedy quickly realised that installing a tap selling pints of porter could earn an extra couple of well-needed shillings come rent-day. While the choice has somewhat improved to include some world renowned IPAs, stouts and ales; the old-worldly charm still remains. Their famous ex-employee, Oscar Wilde, graces the walls where one once stacked shelves. Located beside the three O'Callaghan hotels, there is always a serious buzz at lunchtimes and after-work but you can always find someone to sit yourself down and sip on a nice cold pint or one of their renowned Irish Coffees.
Be warned, with food served until 10pm each night, it is hard to resist a bowl of their fabulous chicken wings or enormous fish & chips once you see them served at the table beside you.
Open: Mon-Thurs 10am-11.30pm, Fri-Sat 10am-late, Sun 12pm-11pm.
