David Upbin

Vice President
Education Operations and Programming
MBA Strategy

David Upbin is the Vice President of MBA Education Operations and Programming, and MBA Strategy. David joined MBA in 2013 and is responsible for the financial management, operations, delivery, and programming of MBA Education's suite of training products and events.

Over the past couple of years, David has played a significant role in the development and execution of several key initiatives, including Mortgage Banking Bound, Commercial Real Estate Basics, Level I of the Certified Mortgage Compliance Professional (CMCP) designation and Education

Advantage, a training package geared towards Independent Mortgage Bankers and community-based lenders.

For his duties related to MBA strategy, David helps develop, track and manage annual MBA performance goals and objectives, and plays a key role in the oversight of the MBA's cross-department strategic initiatives.

Prior to joining MBA, David was a Client Relationship Manager at Cambridge Associates, LLC, where he led teams of client reporting specialists in charge of performance measurement and monitoring for institutional clients.

David holds a bachelors of business administration from The George Washington University in Washington, DC.

The Mortgage Bankers Association (MBA) is the national association representing the real estate finance industry, an industry that employs more than 280,000 people in virtually every community in the country. Headquartered in Washington, D.C., the association works to ensure the continued strength of the nation's residential and commercial real estate markets, to expand homeownership, and to extend access to affordable housing to all Americans. MBA promotes fair and ethical lending practices and fosters professional excellence among real estate finance employees through a wide range of educational programs and a variety of publications. Its membership of over 2,200 companies includes all elements of real estate finance: mortgage companies, mortgage brokers, commercial banks, thrifts, REITs, Wall Street conduits, life insurance companies, and others in the mortgage lending field.
