3 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

4            Sec. 1. RCW 19.86.110 and 1990 c 199 s 1 are each amended to read 5 as follows:

6            (1) Whenever the attorney general believes that any person (a) may 7 be in possession, custody, or control of any original or copy of any 8 book, record, report, memorandum, paper, communication, tabulation, 9 map, chart, photograph, mechanical transcription, or other tangible 10 document or recording, wherever situate, which he believes to be 11 relevant to the subject matter of an investigation of a possible 12 violation of RCW 19.86.020, 19.86.030, 19.86.040, 19.86.050, or 13 19.86.060, or federal statutes dealing with the same or similar matters 14 that the attorney general is authorized to enforce, or (b) may have 15 knowledge of any information which the attorney general believes 16 relevant to the subject matter of such an investigation, he may, prior 17 to the institution of a civil proceeding thereon, execute in writing 18 and cause to be served upon such a person, a civil investigative demand 19 requiring such person to produce such documentary material and permit

1 inspection and copying, to answer in writing written interrogatories, 2 to give oral testimony, or any combination of such demands pertaining 3 to such documentary material or information: PROVIDED, That this 4 section shall not be applicable to criminal prosecutions.

5 (2) Each such demand shall:

6 (a) State the statute and section or sections thereof, the alleged 7 violation of which is under investigation, and the general subject 8 matter of the investigation;

9 (b) If the demand is for the production of documentary material,
10 describe the class or classes of documentary material to be produced 11 thereunder with reasonable specificity so as fairly to indicate the 12 material demanded;

13 (c) Prescribe a return date within which the documentary material 14 is to be produced, the answers to written interrogatories are to be 15 made, or a date, time, and place at which oral testimony is to be 16 taken; and

17 (d) Identify the members of the attorney general's staff to whom 18 such documentary material is to be made available for inspection and 19 copying, to whom answers to written interrogatories are to be made, or 20 who are to conduct the examination for oral testimony.

21 (3) No such demand shall:

22 (a) Contain any requirement which would be unreasonable or improper 23 if contained in a subpoena duces tecum, a request for answers to 24 written interrogatories, or a request for deposition upon oral 25 examination issued by a court of this state; or

26 (b) Require the disclosure of any documentary material which would 27 be privileged, or which for any other reason would not be required by 28 a subpoena duces tecum issued by a court of this state.

29 (4) Service of any such demand may be made by:

30 (a) Delivering a duly executed copy thereof to the person to be 31 served, or, if such person is not a natural person, to any officer or 32 managing agent of the person to be served; or

33 (b) Delivering a duly executed copy thereof to the principal place 34 of business in this state of the person to be served; or

36 thereof addressed to the person to be served at the principal place of 37 business in this state, or, if said person has no place of business in 38 this state, to his principal office or place of business.

1 (5)(a) Documentary material demanded pursuant to the provisions of 2 this section shall be produced for inspection and copying during normal 3 business hours at the principal office or place of business of the 4 person served, or at such other times and places as may be agreed upon 5 by the person served and the attorney general;

6 (b) Written interrogatories in a demand served under this section 7 shall be answered in the same manner as provided in the civil rules for 8 superior court;

9 (c) The oral testimony of any person obtained pursuant to a demand
10 served under this section shall be taken in the same manner as provided 11 in the civil rules for superior court for the taking of depositions.
12 In the course of the deposition, the assistant attorney general 13 conducting the examination may exclude from the place where the 14 examination is held all persons other than the person being examined, 15 the person's counsel, and the officer before whom the testimony is to 16 be taken;

17 (d) Any person compelled to appear pursuant to a demand for oral 18 testimony under this section may be accompanied by counsel;

19 (e) The oral testimony of any person obtained pursuant to a demand 20 served under this section shall be taken in the county within which the 21 person resides, is found, or transacts business, or in such other place 22 as may be agreed upon between the person served and the attorney 23 general.

24 (6) If, after prior court approval, a civil investigative demand 25 specifically prohibits disclosure of the existence or content of the 26 demand, unless otherwise ordered by a superior court for good cause 27 shown, it shall be a misdemeanor for any person if not a bank, trust 28 company, mutual savings bank, credit union, or savings and loan 29 association organized under the laws of the United States or of any one 30 of the United States to disclose to any other person the existence or 31 content of the demand, except for disclosure to counsel for the 32 recipient of the demand or unless otherwise required by law.

33 (7) No documentary material, answers to written interrogatories, or 34 transcripts of oral testimony produced pursuant to a demand, or copies 35 thereof, shall, unless otherwise ordered by a superior court for good 36 cause shown, be produced for inspection or copying by, nor shall the 37 contents thereof be disclosed to, other than an authorized employee of 38 the attorney general, without the consent of the person who produced 39 such material, answered written interrogatories, or gave oral

1 testimony, except as otherwise provided in this section: PROVIDED,
2 That((7)):

3 (a) Under such reasonable terms and conditions as the attorney
4 general shall prescribe, the copies of such documentary material, 5 answers to written interrogatories, or transcripts of oral testimony 6 shall be available for inspection and copying by the person who 7 produced such material, answered written interrogatories, or gave oral 8 testimony, or any duly authorized representative of such person((-))

9 (b) The attorney general may provide copies of such documentary 10 material, answers to written interrogatories, or transcripts of oral 11 testimony to an official of this state, the federal government, or 12 other state, who is charged with the enforcement of federal or state 13 antitrust or consumer protection laws, if before the disclosure the 14 receiving official agrees in writing that the information may not be 15 disclosed to anyone other than that official or the official's
16 authorized employees. The material provided under this subsection 17 (7)(b) is subject to the confidentiality restrictions set forth in this 18 section and may not be introduced as evidence in a criminal 19 prosecution; and

20 (c) The attorney general or any assistant attorney general may use 21 such copies of documentary material, answers to written 22 interrogatories, or transcripts of oral testimony as he determines 23 necessary in the enforcement of this chapter, including presentation
24 before any court: PROVIDED, That any such material, answers to written 25 interrogatories, or transcripts of oral testimony which contain trade 26 secrets shall not be presented except with the approval of the court in 27 which action is pending after adequate notice to the person furnishing 28 such material, answers to written interrogatories, or oral testimony.

29 (8) At any time before the return date specified in the demand, or 30 within twenty days after the demand has been served, whichever period 31 is shorter, a petition to extend the return date for, or to modify or 32 set aside a demand issued pursuant to subsection (1), stating good 33 cause, may be filed in the superior court for Thurston county, or in 34 such other county where the parties reside. A petition, by the person 35 on whom the demand is served, stating good cause, to require the 36 attorney general or any person to perform any duty imposed by the 37 provisions of this section, and all other petitions in connection with 38 a demand, may be filed in the superior court for Thurston county, or in 39 the county where the parties reside. The court shall have jurisdiction

1 to impose such sanctions as are provided for in the civil rules for 2 superior court with respect to discovery motions.

3 (9) Whenever any person fails to comply with any civil 4 investigative demand for documentary material, answers to written 5 interrogatories, or oral testimony duly served upon him under this 6 section, or whenever satisfactory copying or reproduction of any such 7 material cannot be done and such person refuses to surrender such 8 material, the attorney general may file, in the trial court of general 9 jurisdiction of the county in which such person resides, is found, or 10 transacts business, and serve upon such person a petition for an order 11 of such court for the enforcement of this section, except that if such 12 person transacts business in more than one county such petition shall 13 be filed in the county in which such person maintains his principal 14 place of business, or in such other county as may be agreed upon by the 15 parties to such petition. Whenever any petition is filed in the trial 16 court of general jurisdiction of any county under this section, such 17 court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine the matter so 18 presented and to enter such order or orders as may be required to carry 19 into effect the provisions of this section, and may impose such 20 sanctions as are provided for in the civil rules for superior court 21 with respect to discovery motions.
