

Section 3 of the bill, however, would establish a new statutory advisory committee for the program. The Department of Community Development possesses existing statutory authority to seek the involvement and advice of representatives of local communities, firms and other citizens in the development and operation of new programs. While, for this reason, I have vetoed section 3 of the bill, I direct the Department of Community Development to exercise its authority and experience to meet the objectives of section 3.

With the exception of section 3, Substitute House Bill No. 2706 is approved.*
