SECTION IV. CRIMINAL JURISDICTION

A. Criminal jurisdiction of the Tribe extends to adult LTBB citizens and adult citizens of Federally Recognized Tribes, however, upon motion of the Tribal Prosecutor the Judge has the discretion to try a minor as an adult.

B. The Indian Civil Rights Act (ICRA), 25 U.S.C. Section 1302, was enacted by Congress in 1968. The Tribe’s jurisdiction is limited to punishments that may impose up to a one (1) year jail term and a fine up to $5,000.00.

C. TLOA, PL 111-211, was enacted by Congress in 2013. The Tribe’s jurisdiction is extended to punishments that may impose up three (3) years imprisonment and a fine up to $15,000.00, up the enactment of a Tribal Council Resolution.

D. Minor Immunity. An individual who was a minor at the time of the offense is not criminally liable or subject to a juvenile delinquency proceeding for committing acts of sexual servitude or commercial sexual activity and other non-violent offenses committed as a direct result of being a victim of human trafficking such as forgery, possession of stolen property, shoplifting, or uttering worthless checks and shall be presumed to be a child in need of services under Child Welfare Statutes. The immunities granted does not apply in a prosecution for patronizing a victim of sexual servitude.

SECTION V. TRAFFICKING AN INDIVIDUAL

A. A person commits trafficking an individual if the person knowingly facilitates, directs, arranges, recruits, transports, transfers, harbors, receives, provides, obtains, isolates, maintains, or entices an individual in furtherance of:

1. forced labor in violation of Section VI; or
2. sexual servitude in violation of Section VII.

B. Trafficking of an individual is a crime that is punishable up to the Tribe's maximum jurisdiction and is a felony.

SECTION VI. FORCED LABOR

A person commits forced labor if the person knowingly uses coercion to compel an individual to provide labor or services, except where such conduct is permissible under federal law or Tribal law.

SECTION VII. SEXUAL SERVITUDE.

A. A person commits sexual servitude if the person knowingly:

1. maintains or makes available a minor for the purpose of engaging the minor in commercial sexual activity; or
2. uses coercion or deception to compel an adult to engage in commercial sexual activity.

B. It is not a defense in a prosecution under subsection A.1 that the minor consented to engage in commercial sexual activity or that the defendant believed the minor was an adult.

SECTION VIII. PATRONIZING A VICTIM OF SEXUAL SERVITUDE

A. A person commits patronizing a victim of sexual servitude if the person knowingly gives, agrees to give, or offers to give anything of value so that an individual may engage in commercial sexual activity with another individual and the person knows that the other individual is a victim of sexual servitude.

B. A person commits patronizing a minor if:

1. with the intent that an individual engages in commercial sexual activity with a minor, the person gives, agrees to give, or offers to give anything of value to a minor or another person so that the individual may engage in commercial sexual activity with a minor; or
2. the person gives, agrees to give, or offers to give anything of value to a minor or another person so that an individual may engage in commercial sexual activity with a minor.

C. Patronizing a victim of sexual servitude is a crime that is punishable up to the Tribe's maximum jurisdiction and is a felony.

SECTION IX. BUSINESS ENTITY LIABILITY

A. A business entity may be prosecuted for an offense under this Statute if:

1. the entity knowingly engages in conduct that constitutes human trafficking; or
2. an employee or nonemployee agent of the entity engages in conduct that constitutes human trafficking and the commission of the offense was part of a pattern of illegal activity under this Statute for the benefit of the entity, which the entity knew was occurring and failed to take effective action to stop.

B. The court may consider the severity of a business entity's offense under this Statute and order penalties in addition to those otherwise provided for the offense, including:

1. a fine of the maximum amount allowed under the Tribe's jurisdiction;
2. disgorgement of profit from illegal activity in violation of this Statute; and

3. debarment from Tribal government or enterprise contracts.

SECTION X. AGGRAVATING CIRCUMSTANCE.

An aggravating circumstance during the commission of an offense of trafficking an individual, forced labor, or sexual servitude of this Statute occurs when the defendant recruited, enticed, or obtained the victim from a shelter designed to serve victims of human trafficking, victims of domestic violence, victims of sexual assault, runaway youth, youth in transition, a ward of the court, foster children, or the homeless. If the trier of fact finds that an aggravating circumstance occurred, the defendant may be punished up to the Tribe's maximum jurisdiction and is a felony.

SECTION XI. RESTITUTION

A. The court may order a person convicted of an offense of trafficking an individual, forced labor, or sexual servitude of this Statute to pay restitution to the victim even if the victim is unavailable to accept payment of restitution. Such restitution may be directed to tribal victim programs that help human trafficking victims

B. The court may also allow for a separate civil cause of action for the following:

1. Non-monetary loss of pain and suffering;
2. reasonable attorney's fees and costs; and
3. an amount equal to the greatest of the following, with no reduction for expenses the defendant incurred to maintain the victim:
 - a. the gross income to the defendant for, or the value to the defendant of, the victim's labor or services or sexual activity;
 - b. the amount the defendant contracted to pay the victim; or

c. the value of the victim's labor or services or sexual activity, calculated under the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the WOS 2008-011 Fair Employment Statute, as amended, even if the provisions do not apply to the victim's labor or services or sexual activity.

C. Damages awarded to the victim under a civil cause of action must be offset by any restitution paid to the victim pursuant to section A.

SECTION XII. STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS

A. There is no statute of limitations on criminal prosecution for an offense under this Statute.

B. Any civil cause of action must be commenced not later than ten (10) years after the later of the date on which the victim:

1. was freed from the human trafficking situation; or
2. attained 18 years of age.

SECTION XIII. VICTIM'S PROTECTIONS

A. In an investigation of or a prosecution for an offense under this Statute, Law Enforcement officers and Prosecutor shall keep the identity and pictures or images of the victim and the victim's family confidential, except to the extent that disclosure is necessary for the purpose of investigation or prosecution; is required by law or court order; or is necessary to ensure provision of services and benefits for the victim and the victim's family.

B. In order to convict a person of any offense defined in this Statute it shall not be necessary that the testimony of the alleged victim be corroborated.

C. Evidence of the victim’s past sexual behavior including but not limited to: the victim’s marital history, divorce history, or general reputation for promiscuity, non-chastity, or sexual mores contrary to tribal community standards is inadmissible on the issue of credibility and is inadmissible to prove the victim’s consent except as follows:

1. The perpetrator and the victim have engaged in sexual intercourse with each other in the past, and when the past behavior is material to the issue of consent, evidence concerning the past behavior between the perpetrator and the victim may be admissible on the issue of consent to the offense.

2. The Tribal Court shall hold a hearing out of the presence of the jury, if any, and the hearing shall be closed except to the necessary witnesses, the defendant, counsel, and those who have a direct interest in the case or in the work of the court.

3. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit cross-examination of the victim on the issue of past sexual behavior when the Prosecution presents evidence in its case in chief tending to prove the nature of the victim’s past sexual behavior, but the court may require a hearing concerning such evidence.

D. If the victim is a minor, the Tribal shall provide victim services to the minor if such services are available.

E. Any other rights as provided by the Tribe’s Victim’s Rights Statute.

SECTION XIV. SEVERABILITY

If any section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, phrase or portion of this Statute is, for any reason, held invalid or unconstitutional by any court of competent jurisdiction, such portion shall be deemed a separate, distinct and independent provision and such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions thereof.

SECTION XV. EFFECTIVE DATE

Effective upon signature of the Executive or 30 days from Tribal Council approval whichever comes first or if the Executive vetoes the legislation, then upon Tribal Council override of the veto.

SECTION XVI. OTHER RELATED STATUTES

See Crimes Statute; Sex Offense Statute; Sex Offender Registration and Notification Statute; Felony Defined Statute; Domestic Violence Statute; Victim’s Rights Statute; Personal Protection Orders and No Contact Orders and Violations of Protective Order; or as may be amended.
