What does the Big Book say to me about my practice of Step 3?

While in group, ask one or more members of the group to share their experiences with working Step 3 by the Big Book. Share your written reflections in your Week-by-Week Workbook with the group.

Points of Focus and Reflection: The Problem of Self (Consider pgs. 60-63)

Each person is like an actor who wants to run the whole show. (pg. 60)

1. Our actor is self-centered ... Are not most of us concerned with our resentments, our self-pity, or ourselves? (pg. 61) Write Thoughts.
2. How are you like an actor? (pg. 60) What roles, what masks, what characters do you play? Are these old worn out defenses? (pg. 73)

3. Are you almost always in collision with something or somebody? (pg. 60)

The show doesn't come off. (pg. 61)

4. Where do you think that life does not treat you right? (pg. 61)
5. Where do your actions make the other players wish to retaliate and snatch all they can get out of the show? (pg. 61)
6. In your own life, are you familiar with the progression: anger to indignation to self-pity? (pg. 61) Describe in detail.
7. In what ways does the following describe you? Is he not a victim of the delusion that he can wrest satisfaction and happiness out of this world if he only manages well? (pg. 61)

So our troubles, we think, are basically of our own making. (pg. 62)

8. Do you think your troubles are of your own making? What does this mean?
9. How do your reactions to life events make you suffer? Be specific.
10. Driven by a hundred forms of fear, self-delusion, self-seeking, and self-pity, we step on the toes of our fellows and they retaliate. (pg. 62) Write thoughts.

11. Where in the past have you made decisions based on self that later placed you in a position to be hurt? (pg. 62) Be specific and give details.

The Solution: The God Idea (pgs. 45&52)

12. We alcoholics must be rid of this selfishness. (62: 2) Write Thoughts.
13. How has your playing God worked, or not worked, to give you serenity?
14. We had to quit playing God. It didn't work. (62: 3) Write Thoughts.
15. When did you stop playing God?

The Program of Action

16. Can you make a decision to turn your life and will over to a higher power, just for today?
17. In what ways are you taking action on Step 3 when you abstain from alcohol and work the remaining Steps?
18. After reading the Step 3 Promises, do you think it possible that you could enjoy peace of mind, face life successfully, and lose your fear? (pg. 63) How?

Daily Practice of Step 3 Principles

1. How does Step 3 allow you to build on the surrender you have developed in Step 1 and Step 2?

2. Are you fighting anything in recovery? What do you think would happen if you became willing to let recovery prevail in that area of your life?

3. How may you reaffirm your decision on a daily basis and continue to take the action of working the rest of the Steps?

4. How may you decide to let go today, and surrender to being in unison with life?

Sponsorship – We can't do it alone

1. Who will be your permanent sponsor?
2. How did you meet your permanent sponsor?
3. What makes this person a good fit for you?

STEP THREE
Facing the East
"FINDING THE CREATOR"
(Preparing to take Step Three)

We made a decision to ask for help from a higher power and others who understand.

Principle: Faith

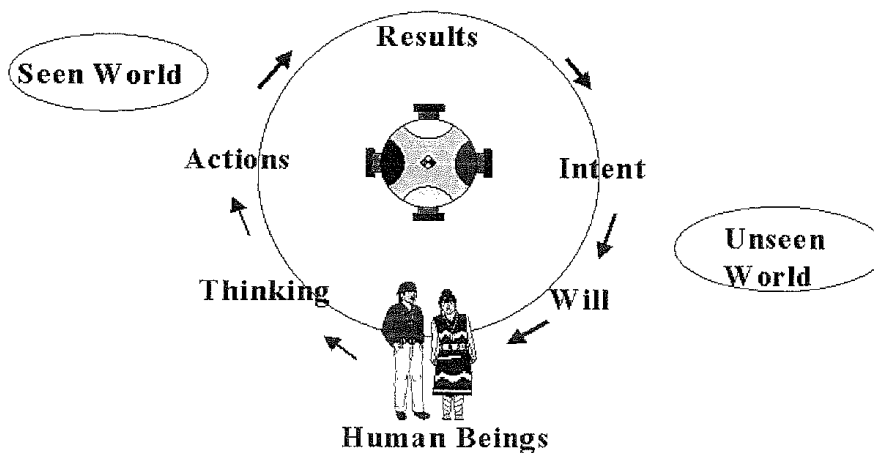

Reading

Big Book: 60 - 63

RRWB: Chapter 9, pps. 97-113; Stories, pps. 158-180

When you are ready to take the third step, find a friend, Medicine man (Woman), spiritual leader or pipe carrier to help you take this step. Turning your life over to the Creator is the most important thing you can do.

Commitment to change
Align Your Spirit and Intent

Step 3 Assignment, pt. 2

STEP 3 Written Inventory

Consider these questions, which are borrowed from meetings and recovery literature, and ones of your own. Consider responding in detail with specific examples.

1. Who or what made your decisions for you while you were drinking?
2. Can you make a decision to turn your will and your life over to the care of a higher power of your understanding – just for today? What fears or reservations do you have about turning your life over?
3. What actions will you take to follow through on your decision to turn your life over to a higher power?

To work Step 3 we need to identify the ways we have acted on self-will.

[Willful: (from ON wella- well of boiling heat) Headstrong, obstinate, rigid. Gaining power over people and situations.] [Willing: Being receptive to new possibilities. Using our will in harmony with life, not against it.]

4. How have you been self-centered? How have you been defiant?
5. Which problems have you tried to resolve through willpower? What were the results?
6. In what ways are your troubles of my own making? (pg. 62)

7. How do your reactions to life events make you suffer? Be specific.
8. In what ways are you an extreme example of self-will run riot? (pg. 62) How have you acted on self-will?
9. How has your self-will affected others?
10. Have there been times in your recovery when you have found yourself subtly taking back your will and your life? What alerted you? What have you done to recommit yourself to the Third Step?

The God of My Understanding

11. Who or what makes your decisions for you in recovery?
12. How is your higher power working in your life today? How do you communicate with your Higher Power? What do you do in order to be open to your Higher Power?
13. Is your current concept of a higher power still working? How might you need to change your concept of a higher power?

Turning It Over

1. What are some personal examples of you turning your life and will over to your addictions?

2. How would your day look if you were to turn your will and your life over to the care of a higher power of your understanding?
3. What are your fears about making this decision?
4. Which thoughts and behaviors are you willing to turn over right now? Which are you holding on to?
5. How will you take action to turn your will and your life over to your higher power on a daily basis? Are there any practices you do regularly? What are they?
6. What have you done recently that demonstrates your surrender to recovery and to working a program?

Take Step 3

We take Step 3 in the second paragraph on page 63.

Have we decided that we are the agents of the higher power of our understanding? (62: 3) [See also 49: 1; 68: 3] Are we willing to decide to let go of our need to control, just for today?

According to the Big Book, and under the conditions of this day, we take Step 3.

Some groups acknowledge taking this Step by reciting the great Third Step Prayer. Some recite the “Prayer to the Great Spirit”. Others will join hands and recite the Step. Feel free to do what is appropriate for you.

PRAYER TO THE GREAT SPIRIT

*O Great Spirit,
Whose voice I hear in the winds,
and whose breath gives life to all the world, hear me!*

*I am small and weak.
I need your strength and wisdom.
Let me walk in beauty and make my eyes ever behold
the red and purple sunset.*

Make my hands respect the things you have made and my ears sharp to hear your voice.

Make me wise so that I may understand the things you have taught my people.

Let me hear the lessons you have hidden in every leaf and rock.

*I need strength,
not to be greater than my brother,
but to fight my greatest enemy - myself.*

*Make me always ready to come to you with clean hands and straight eyes.
So when life fades, as the fading sunset,
my spirit may come to you without shame.*

A-hO

The Third Step Prayer

from page 63 of the Big Book of Alcoholics Anonymous

God, I offer myself to Thee-
To build with me
and to do with me as Thou wilt.
Relieve me of the bondage of self,
that I may better do Thy will.
Take away my difficulties,
that victory over them may bear witness to those I would help of Thy Power,
Thy Love, and Thy Way of life.
May I do Thy will always!
