

Emergency Services of Putnam County

Fire – EMS – Emergency Management

In light of the serious threat to lives and property in Putnam County posed by Hurricane Ian, it is recommended that residents in evacuation zones A and F, low-lying areas, areas that have a history of flooding, and mobile homes evacuate beginning Tuesday evening, September 27, 2022. Shelters will be open starting Tuesday, September 27, 2022, at 6 p.m.

General Population Shelters

- Robert H. Jenkins, Jr. Elementary School (formerly Interlachen Elementary School)
 - 251 County Rd 315, Interlachen, FL
- QI Roberts JR-SR High School
 - 901 State Rd 100, Florahome
- Browning-Pearce Elementary School
 - 100 Bear Blvd, San Mateo
- Middleton-Burney Elementary School
 - 1020 Huntington Rd, Crescent City

Pet-Friendly Shelter

- Ockwilla Elementary School
 - 299 N. State Rd 21, Hawthorne

Special Needs (Run Through the Department of Health)

- Kelley Smith Elementary School
 - 141 Kelley Smith School Rd, Palatka

For more information and to find out your evacuation zone, please visit eoc.putnam-fl.com or call the EOC call center at 386-329-1904.