Introductory note

Article 29

The Security Council may establish such subsidiary organs as it deems necessary for the performance of its functions.

Rule 28

The Security Council may appoint a commission or committee or a rapporteur for a specified question.

The power of the Security Council to establish subsidiary organs is set out in Article 29 of the Charter of the United Nations and rule 28 of its provisional rules of procedure. Part IX covers the procedures of the Council relating to committees, working groups, investigative bodies and tribunals, ad hoc commissions and special advisers, envoys and representatives as well as the Peacebuilding Commission, established under the Charter. There were no instances during the period under review of subsidiary organs that were proposed but not established. Field-based missions, including peacekeeping and political missions, are covered in part X of the present supplement.

During the period 2010-2011, the Council held a number of meetings under the item “Briefings by Chairmen of subsidiary bodies of the Security Council” during which it heard briefings by the Chairs of various subsidiary bodies. An overview of the meetings can be found in part I, section 35, “Briefings”.

The present part is divided into eight sections: committees; working groups; investigative bodies; tribunals; ad hoc commissions; special advisers, envoys and representatives; Peacebuilding Commission; and subsidiary organs of the Council proposed but not established. Brief background information and a summary of the major developments during the period under review are provided for each subsidiary organ. For each organ, a table illustrates the mandate active at the start of the period under review and any subsequent changes, with the full text of all paragraphs of Council decisions that relate to changes in the mandate of the organ in 2010 and 2011. Other documents of the Council relating to the subsidiary bodies are listed in the annex to this part.

The mandates of the subsidiary organs are grouped on the basis of a system of general categories and labels relating to their mandate and functions. This system of categorization is provided only as a convenience to readers and does not reflect any practice or decision of the Council.

I. Committees

Note

Section I focuses on the decisions of the Security Council concerning the establishment, implementation of and changes to the mandates of committees, and their termination during the period under review. It covers standing committees and committees established under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations. The description for each committee includes a summary of the categories of measures that it is mandated to oversee, for example, arms embargo, asset freeze and travel ban. The descriptions are provided only as a convenience to readers; they do not represent an interpretation of the decisions or serve as legal definitions of measures.<sup>1</sup>

The committees of the Council consist of all 15 members of the Council. Their meetings are held in private, unless a committee itself decides otherwise, and decisions are reached by consensus. The Bureaux of the committees generally consist of a Chair and a Vice-Chair, who are elected by the Council annually.<sup>2</sup> The Council has standing committees that continue to exist but do not meet unless an issue under their mandate is being considered by the Council, and committees that are established on an ad hoc basis to respond to the requirements of the Council, such as the oversight of sanctions measures established under Chapter VII of the Charter, or to provide support to the work of the Council on such issues as counter-terrorism or weapons of mass destruction.

A. Standing committees

During the period under review, the Committee of Experts on Rules of Procedure, the Committee of Experts established by the Council at its 1506th meeting in connection with the question of associate membership, and the Committee on Council Meetings away from Headquarters continued to exist but did not meet.

During the same period, the Committee on Admission of New Members met to consider two applications for membership to the United Nations.

South Sudan. At its 108th meeting, on 11 July 2011, the Committee considered the application of the Republic of South Sudan,<sup>3</sup> and decided to recommend to the Council that it be admitted to membership in the United Nations.<sup>4</sup>

Palestine. At its 109th and 110th meetings, on 30 September 2011 and 3 November 2011, respectively, the Committee considered the application of Palestine.<sup>5</sup> At its 111th meeting, the Committee approved its report to the Council, in which the Committee stated that it was unable to make a unanimous recommendation to the Council, thereby concluding its consideration of the application of Palestine for admission to membership in the United Nations.<sup>6</sup>

B. Committees established under Chapter VII of the Charter

During the period under review, the Security Council established new sanctions committees to oversee the implementation of measures or to perform other tasks adopted pursuant to Chapter VII of the Charter, extended the mandate of existing committees and terminated measures in relation to other committees. Subsection 1 deals with the 13 committees overseeing specific sanctions measures, including those that were terminated during the period. Subsection 2 deals with two other committees with broader mandates, namely, the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1373 (2001) concerning counter-terrorism and the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1540 (2004), also related to terrorism. Within each subsection, the committees are dealt with in the order of their establishment. Other subsidiary bodies, including groups or panels of experts, whose mandates include assisting and/or reporting to the sanctions committees, are grouped together with the relevant committees.

1. Committees overseeing specific sanctions measures

In 2010-2011, the Security Council established two new committees to oversee the implementation of measures adopted under Chapter VII of the Charter, namely, the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1970 (2011) concerning Libya;<sup>7</sup> and the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1988 (2011), which oversees the relevant sanctions measures in connection with individuals, groups, undertakings and entities designated as or associated with the Taliban in constituting a threat to the peace, stability and security of Afghanistan. During the same period, the Council terminated the mandate of the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1132 (1997) concerning Sierra Leone. The total number of committees overseeing specific sanctions measures had therefore increased from 11 to 12 by the end of 2011.

On two occasions, the Council requested the Secretary-General to establish monitoring bodies in the form of panels or committees of experts and monitoring groups or mechanisms, to assist the committees in their work or undertake other tasks, the first concerning the Islamic Republic of Iran and the second concerning the situation in Libya.

Seven other monitoring bodies that the Council had previously established also continued to exist: three panels of experts, concerning Liberia, the Sudan and the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, respectively; two groups of experts, concerning the Democratic Republic of the Congo and Côte d'Ivoire, respectively; one monitoring group concerning Somalia; and the Analytical Support and Sanctions Monitoring Team, concerning Al-Qaida and the Taliban.

Developments during 2010 and 2011

Overview of the mandates of sanctions-related committees

The committees that existed during the period under review carried out various mandates decided upon by the Council. They included: (a) seeking information regarding the implementation of measures imposed under Article 41; (b) considering information concerning violations of the measures and recommending appropriate measures in response thereto; (c) reporting to the Council on the information regarding alleged violations; (d) giving consideration to and deciding upon requests for exemptions from the measures; (e) examining reports submitted to them, including those from the respective monitoring bodies; (f) identifying individuals and entities subject to the measures, maintaining a list of such individuals and entities and considering requests for delisting; (g) making recommendations to the Council on how to improve the effectiveness of the measures; (h) developing narrative summaries of the reasons for listing certain individuals and publishing those summaries on committee websites; (i) drafting due diligence guidelines for the optional use of Member States; and (j) receiving and deciding upon requests for exemptions to the measures imposed.

Monitoring bodies

The mandates of the monitoring bodies that the Council established to assist the committees generally include: (a) gathering and analysing information on compliance; (b) monitoring implementation of the sanctions measures imposed; (c) making recommendations on improving implementation; (d) providing information relevant to listing and delisting decisions for targeted sanctions measures; (e) identifying areas where the capacities of States could be strengthened to facilitate implementation of the measures; (f) conducting follow-up assessment missions to the States in question to investigate and compile reports on implementation and violations of the measures; and (g) coordinating their activities with relevant United Nations missions and other international efforts to promote political processes.

Cross-cutting mandated tasks

During the period under review, a number of resolutions referring to Security Council committees included cross-cutting mandated tasks. For example, with regard to the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1533 (2004) concerning the Democratic Republic of the Congo, the Council, inter alia, called on the United Nations Organization Stabilization Mission in the Democratic Republic of the Congo to share with the Group of Experts any information on the recruitment and use of children or on the targeting of women and children in situations of armed conflict.<sup>8</sup> Similarly, with regard to the Committee pursuant to resolutions 751 (1992) and 1907 (2009) concerning Somalia and Eritrea,<sup>9</sup> the Council, inter alia, expanded the sanctions criteria to include leaders recruiting or using children in armed conflicts in Somalia, and those responsible for the targeting of women and children or attacks on schools and hospitals.<sup>10</sup>

<sup>7</sup> On 17 October 2011, the Security Council amended the name of the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1970 (2011) concerning the Libyan Arab Jamahiriya to "Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1970 (2011) concerning Libya".

Due process, fairness and transparency

During the period, the Council continued to encourage greater fairness and transparency in the sanctions regimes, on several occasions requesting the committees or monitoring bodies to ensure due process protections and enhanced reporting and accountability mechanisms. For example, regarding the process of listing individuals and entities on the Al-Qaida and Taliban sanctions lists, the Council, by resolution 1989 (2011) of 17 June 2011, inter alia: (a) directed the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1267 (1999) concerning Al-Qaida and the Taliban and associated individuals and entities<sup>11</sup> to ensure that fair and clear procedures existed for placing individuals and entities on the Al-Qaida Sanctions List and for removing them, as well as for granting exemptions; (b) reaffirmed that Member States should provide, when proposing a name to the Committee for inclusion on the List, a detailed statement of case that would be releasable, upon request, and that could be used by the Committee to develop narrative summaries of the reasons for listing; (c) directed the Committee to continue its efforts to make accessible on its website narrative summaries of reasons for all listings; and (d) directed the Committee to keep its guidelines under active review.<sup>12</sup> Regarding Liberia, the Council directed the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1521 (2003) to update, as necessary, the publicly available reasons for listing for entries on the travel ban and asset freeze lists.<sup>13</sup> With regard to Somalia and Eritrea, the Council directed the Monitoring Group to assist the Committee pursuant to resolutions 751 (1992) and 1907 (2009) in compiling narrative summaries of those individuals and entities that had been designated by the Committee.<sup>14</sup>

Focal point mechanism and Office of the Ombudsperson

During the period, the focal point mechanism, established within the Secretariat pursuant to resolution 1730 (2006) of 19 December 2006 relating to delisting measures, continued to receive requests for delisting and perform related tasks. The Office of the Ombudsperson, established pursuant to resolution 1904 (2009) of 17 December 2009, continued to receive delisting requests specifically from individuals and entities seeking to be removed from the Al-Qaida Sanctions List. The mandate of the Ombudsperson was significantly expanded by resolution 1989 (2011).

Part IX focuses on the mandates of the sanctions committees and monitoring bodies, and does not comprehensively list or examine the mandatory measures that were imposed in relation to the situations overseen by them during the period under review.

For more details, see part VII, section III, which deals with measures not involving the use of armed force in accordance with Article 41 of the Charter.

Committee pursuant to resolutions 751 (1992) and 1907 (2009) concerning Somalia and Eritrea***

By its resolution 733 (1992) of 23 January 1992, the Security Council imposed a general and complete arms embargo on Somalia and, by its resolution 751 (1992) of 24 April 1992, established a Committee to undertake the following tasks and report on its work to the Council with its observations and recommendations: (a) to seek from all States information regarding the action taken by them concerning the effective implementation of the general and complete embargo

<sup>9</sup> On 2 March 2010, the Security Council amended the name of the Committee established pursuant to resolution 751 (1992) concerning Somalia to “Security Council Committee pursuant to resolutions 751 (1992) and 1907 (2009) concerning Somalia and Eritrea”.

<sup>11</sup> On 30 June 2011, the Council decided to change the name of the Committee to “Security Council Committee pursuant to resolutions 1267 (1999) and 1989 (2011) concerning Al-Qaida and associated individuals and entities”.

<sup>12</sup> Resolution 1989 (2011), paras. 13, 16 and 42; see also resolution 1988 (2011), paras. 12, 26 and 30 (d).

on all deliveries of weapons and military equipment to Somalia imposed by resolution 733 (1992); (b) to consider any information brought to its attention by States concerning violations of the embargo, and in that context to make recommendations to the Council on ways of increasing the effectiveness of the embargo; and (c) to recommend appropriate measures in response to violations and to provide information to the Secretary-General for general distribution to Member States.

In resolution 1844 (2008) of 20 November 2008, the Council decided to impose targeted sanctions on individuals and entities, consisting of an embargo on the direct or indirect supply of weapons and of training and financial and other assistance, a travel ban on individuals and an asset freeze on designated individuals and entities, and to expand the scope of the Committee's mandate to include the designation of such individuals and entities.

By resolution 1907 (2009) of 23 December 2009, the Council decided to extend the sanctions regime to Eritrea, imposing on States a ban on the sale or supply to Eritrea, by their nationals or from their territories, of arms and related materiel, technical assistance and training. The Council also imposed an asset freeze, travel ban and targeted arms embargo on individuals and entities, including but not limited to the Eritrean political and military leadership, and expanded the mandate of the Committee to include the designation of such individuals and entities.<sup>15</sup> The mandate of the Committee was further expanded by resolution 2023 (2011) of 5 December 2011.<sup>16</sup> Exemptions to the sanctions measures were outlined in resolutions 1907 (2009), 1916 (2010) of 19 March 2010 and 1972 (2011) of 17 March 2011.<sup>17</sup>

By resolution 1425 (2002) of 22 July 2002, the Council established a Panel of Experts to generate independent information on violations of the arms embargo on Somalia. The Panel of Experts was succeeded by the Monitoring Group on Somalia, established pursuant to resolution 1519 (2003) of 16 December 2003. With the adoption of resolution 1907 (2009), by which the Council imposed a sanctions regime against Eritrea, the mandate of the Monitoring Group was expanded to include the following tasks: (a) to assist the Committee in monitoring the implementation of the measures imposed; (b) to consider any information relevant to the implementation of the measures; (c) to include in its reports to the Council any information relevant to the Committee's designation of the individuals and entities; and (d) to coordinate with panels of experts of other sanctions committees in pursuit of those tasks.

Developments during 2010 and 2011

As the Council, by resolution 1907 (2009), expanded the mandate of the Committee, it decided on 26 February 2010 to change the Committee's name to "Security Council Committee pursuant to resolutions 751 (1992) and 1907 (2009) concerning Somalia and Eritrea". By resolution 1916 (2010) of 19 March 2010, the Council requested the Committee to recommend ways to improve implementation of and compliance with the arms embargoes and other measures concerning Somalia and Eritrea, in response to continuing violations. By resolution 2002 (2011) of 29 July 2011, the criteria for designation by the Committee were expanded to include individuals and entities designated by the Committee, inter alia, as individuals engaging in or providing support for acts that threatened the peace, security or stability or Somalia; as acting in violation of the arms embargo; as obstructing the delivery of humanitarian assistance to Somalia; as being political or military leaders recruiting or using child soldiers in armed conflicts; and as being responsible for violations of international law involving the targeting of civilians. The Committee was entrusted with, inter alia, the tasks of monitoring the implementation of the travel ban and asset freeze with the support of the Monitoring Group, seeking from all Member States, in particular those in the region, information regarding the actions taken by them to implement effectively the travel ban and asset freeze, and reporting to the Council on its work and on the implementation of resolution 1844 (2008). By resolution 2023 (2011), the Council expressed concern at the potential use of the Eritrean mining sector as a financial source to destabilize the Horn of Africa region, and requested the Committee to draft, with the assistance of the Monitoring Group, due diligence guidelines for the optional use by Member States. The Council also requested the Committee to review, as a matter of urgency, listing proposals from Member States.

Eritrea arms embargoes; and (g) to assist in identifying areas where the capacities of States in the region could be strengthened to facilitate implementation of the arms embargoes.

By resolution 2002 \(2011\) of 29 July 2011, the Council extended and expanded the mandate of the Monitoring Group and requested the Secretary-General to take the necessary administrative measures as expeditiously as possible to re-establish the Monitoring Group for a further period of 12 months. By resolution 2023 \(2011\) of 5 December 2011, the Council condemned the use of the “diaspora tax” by the Government of Eritrea, expanded restrictive measures relating to the Eritrean mining sector and the provision of financial services, expanded the mandate of the Monitoring Group to monitor the implementation of those measures and demanded that Eritrea make available information pertaining to Djiboutian combatants missing in action.

Resolution 1940 (2010)

General

Termination	Decides to terminate, with immediate effect, the measures set forth in paragraphs 2, 4 and 5 of resolution 1171 (1998) (para. 1)
	Decides also to dissolve the Security Council Committee established pursuant to paragraph 10 of resolution 1132 (1997) with immediate effect (para. 2)

Committee pursuant to resolutions 1267 (1999) and 1989 (2011) concerning Al-Qaida and associated individuals and entities***

By resolution 1267 (1999) of 15 October 1999, the Security Council established a Committee to oversee the implementation of targeted sanctions measures against designated individuals, entities and aircraft that were owned, controlled, leased or operated by the Taliban. The measures were subsequently modified, in particular by resolutions 1333 (2000) of 19 December 2000 and 1390 (2002) of 16 January 2002, to include an asset freeze, travel ban and arms embargo affecting designated individuals and entities associated with Osama bin Laden, Al-Qaida and the Taliban wherever they were located. By resolution 1526 (2004) of 30 January 2004, the Council established the Analytical Support and Sanctions Monitoring Team with the mandate, inter alia, to assess and make recommendations on the implementation of the measures, pursue case studies and explore other matters as directed by the Committee. By resolution 1904 (2009) of 17 December 2009, the Council also established an Office of the Ombudsperson to assist the Committee with requests for delisting.

* Formerly “Committee established pursuant to resolution 1267 (1999) concerning Al-Qaida and the Taliban and associated individuals and entities”. See also Committee established pursuant to resolution 1988 (2011), below.

Developments during 2010 and 2011

The Committee pursuant to resolutions 1267 (1999) and 1989 (2011) emerged from the Committee previously known as the “Committee established pursuant to resolution 1267 (1999) concerning Al-Qaida and the Taliban and associated individuals and entities”, which was established on 15 October 1999 with the adoption of resolution 1267 (1999). With the adoption of resolutions 1988 (2011) and 1989 (2011) on 17 June 2011, the Council decided that the previous Consolidated List maintained by the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1267 (1999) would henceforth be known as the “Al-Qaida Sanctions List”, and would include only names of those individuals, groups, undertakings and entities associated with Al-Qaida. In the light of the change in mandate, the Council decided on 30 June 2011 to change the name of the Committee to “Committee pursuant to resolutions 1267 (1999) and 1989 (2011) concerning Al-Qaida and associated individuals and entities”.<sup>19</sup> The Council established a new Committee, pursuant to resolution 1988 (2011), which was consequently mandated to maintain a list of names of individuals, groups, undertakings and entities associated with the Taliban in constituting a threat to the peace, stability and security of Afghanistan. The separate regimes relating to Al-Qaida and the Taliban extended the travel ban, arms embargo and asset freeze of the previously unified regime. By resolution 1989

(2011), the Council also modified the procedures for listing and delisting individuals subject to targeted sanctions by, inter alia, reminding the Committee to remove expeditiously and on a case-by-case basis individuals and entities that no longer met the criteria for listing, and requesting that the Committee give due regard to requests for removal of individuals who met the reconciliation conditions agreed to by the Government of Afghanistan and the international community.

Analytical Support and Sanctions Monitoring Team

By resolutions 1988 (2011) and 1989 (2011), the Council expanded the mandate of the Analytical Support and Sanctions Monitoring Team to include, inter alia, providing the following assistance to the two Committees: (a) to regularly review names on the Lists; (b) to follow up on requests of Member States for information; (c) to gather and analyse information regarding non-compliance with the sanctions measures; and (d) to compile and circulate information regarding proposals for listings, and to prepare draft narrative summaries of the reasons for listings. The Monitoring Team was also mandated to bring to the attention of the Committees any new or noteworthy circumstances that could warrant a delisting. Regarding the review and maintenance of the Al-Qaida List, resolution 1989 (2011) also outlined the listing and delisting procedures required. The Monitoring Team was also requested to report to the Committees on its work and to provide recommendations on linkages between any groups, undertakings or entities eligible for designation that appeared on both the Al-Qaida Sanctions List and the List concerning the Taliban.

Office of the Ombudsperson

By resolution 1989 (2011), the Council extended the mandate of the Office of the Ombudsperson pursuant to resolution 1904 (2009), for a period of 18 months. The Council decided that the Ombudsperson should continue to receive requests from individuals, groups, undertakings or entities seeking to be removed from the Al-Qaida Sanctions List. The Council also expanded the scope of the Ombudsperson's mandate, by establishing procedures for the presentation by the Ombudsperson of recommendations to the Committee pursuant to resolutions 1267 (1999) and 1989 (2011). In instances when a State submitted a delisting request to the Ombudsperson, the Council decided that the measures described in paragraph 1 of the resolution would terminate with respect to that individual, group, undertaking or entity after 60 days, unless the Committee decided by consensus prior to the end of that period that the measures should remain in place.

Tables 4 and 5 provide the full text of all paragraphs in Council decisions that relate to the mandate of the Committee pursuant to resolutions 1267 (1999) and 1989 (2011) and the Analytical Support and Sanctions Monitoring Team. Table 6 provides the full text of all paragraphs in Council decisions that relate to the establishment of the Office of the Ombudsperson.

If the Committee decides to reject the delisting request, then the Committee shall convey to the Ombudsperson its decision, setting out its reasons, and including any further relevant information about the decision of the Committee, and an updated narrative summary of reasons for listing (annex II, para. 13)

After the Committee has informed the Ombudsperson that the Committee has rejected a delisting request, then the Ombudsperson shall send to the petitioner, with an advance copy sent to the Committee, within 15 days a letter that:

- (a) Communicates the decision of the Committee for continued listing;
- (b) Describes, to the extent possible and drawing upon the comprehensive report of the Ombudsperson, the process and publicly releasable factual information gathered by the Ombudsperson; and

Reporting	Submit biannual reports summarizing the activities of the Ombudsperson to the Security Council (annex II, para. 16 (c))

Committee established pursuant to resolution 1518 (2003)

By resolution 1518 (2003) of 24 November 2003, the Security Council established a Committee to succeed the Committee established pursuant to resolution 661 (1990) concerning Iraq and Kuwait. The Committee's tasks were to continue to identify, in accordance with resolution 1483 (2003) of 22 May 2003, individuals and entities whose funds, other financial assets and economic resources should be frozen and transferred to the Development Fund for Iraq. The Council also decided that the mandate of the Committee would be kept under review and that the Council would consider authorizing the Committee to undertake the additional task of observing Member States' fulfilment of their obligations in connection with the arms embargo on Iraq.

Developments during 2010 and 2011

There were no modifications to the mandate of the Committee during the period under review. The Committee has not been authorized to undertake an expansion of tasks beyond those outlined in resolution 1518 (2003). During the period, however, the Committee continued to receive communications from the Focal Point for Delisting regarding the delisting of two persons included in the Committee's list of individuals.

Committee established pursuant to resolution 1521 (2003) concerning Liberia

Sanctions measures concerning Liberia were imposed by the Security Council in resolutions 788

(1992) of 19 November 1992 and 1343 (2001) of 7 March 2001. On 22 December 2003, in response to the changed circumstances in Liberia, the Council, by resolution 1521 (2003), decided to dissolve the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1343 (2001) and establish a new committee to undertake the following tasks: (a) to monitor the implementation of the measures set out in resolution 1521 (2003), including an arms embargo, a travel ban and embargoes on rough diamonds and timber originating in Liberia; (b) to seek from all States, particularly those in the subregion, information regarding implementation; (c) to consider and decide upon requests for the exemptions; (d) to designate the individuals subject to the measures imposed; (e) to make relevant information publicly available; (f) to consider and take appropriate action on pending issues or concerns brought to its attention concerning the measures imposed by previous resolutions; and (g) to report to the Council with its observations and recommendations. The Council also established a Panel of Experts to provide the Committee with information regarding the implementation of the measures.

By resolution 1532 (2004) of 12 March 2004, the Council further imposed an asset freeze on certain individuals, as designated by the Committee. No expiration date for those particular measures was provided. By subsequent resolutions the Council made modifications to the measures imposed, including exemptions to the arms embargo and travel ban, and terminated the provisions on the import of timber products from Liberia and the measures on diamonds.

By resolution 1903 (2009) of 17 December 2009, the Council decided that the measures imposed would no longer apply to the Government of Liberia, but only to non-governmental entities and individuals operating in the area. The Council also decided that States should notify the Committee in advance of any shipment of arms and related materiel to the Government of Liberia or of any provision of assistance, advice or training related to military activities of the Government.

Developments during 2010 and 2011

By resolutions 1961 (2010) of 17 December 2010 and 2025 (2011) of 14 December 2011, the Council renewed for a period of 12 months the travel ban and the arms embargo, respectively, imposed by resolution 1521 (2003). By resolution 1961 (2010), the Council also directed the Committee to update, as necessary, the publicly available reasons for the listing of individuals and entities on the travel ban and asset freeze lists, as well as the Committee's guidelines.

Panel of Experts

By resolutions 1961 (2010) of 17 December 2010 and 2025 (2011) of 14 December 2011, the Council extended the mandate of the Panel of Experts for a period of 12 months each time. By those resolutions, the Council directed the Panel of Experts to undertake the following tasks: (a) to conduct follow-up assessment missions to Liberia and neighbouring States, in order to investigate and compile reports on the implementation and violations of the arms embargo; (b) to assess the impact and effectiveness of the asset freeze imposed on former President Charles Taylor; (c) to identify and make recommendations regarding areas where the capacity of Liberia and States in the region could be strengthened to facilitate the implementation of the travel ban and asset freeze against individuals designated by the Committee; (d) to assess the extent to which forests and other natural resources were contributing to peace, security and development; (e) to coordinate and cooperate actively with, and assess the Government's compliance with, the Kimberley Process Certification Scheme; (f) to provide reports to the Committee regarding its mandate; (g) to cooperate actively with other relevant panels of experts with respect to natural resources, in particular the Group of Experts on Côte d'Ivoire and the Group of Experts on the Democratic Republic of the Congo; and (h) to assist the Committee in updating the publicly available reasons for listing for entries on the travel ban and asset freeze lists.

Tables 7 and 8 provide the full text of all paragraphs in Council decisions that relate to the mandate of the Committee and the Panel of Experts.

Committee established pursuant to resolution 1533 (2004) concerning the Democratic Republic of the Congo

By resolution 1493 (2003) of 28 July 2003, the Security Council imposed an arms embargo on all foreign and Congolese armed groups operating in the territory of North and South Kivu and Ituri. By resolution 1533 (2004) of 12 March 2004, the Council established a Committee to undertake, inter alia, the following tasks: (a) to seek information from States regarding action taken by them to implement the arms embargo; (b) to examine, and take appropriate action on, information concerning alleged violations; (c) to report to the Council on ways to strengthen the effectiveness of the arms embargo; (d) to consider a list of those found to have violated the measures with a view to submitting recommendations to the Council for possible future measures; and (e) to receive notifications in advance from States regarding exemptions to the arms embargo and to decide on any action to be taken in relation thereto. By resolution 1596 (2005) of 18 April 2005, the Council decided to further impose travel restrictions and an asset freeze on persons and entities acting in violation of the arms embargo, and mandated the Committee to oversee those measures. By resolution 1857 (2008) of 22 December 2008, the Council decided to expand the mandate of the Committee to include the following tasks: (a) to review regularly the list of individuals and entities subject to the travel ban and asset freeze with a view to keeping the list as updated and accurate as possible, to confirm that listing remained appropriate and to encourage Member States to provide any additional information whenever such information became available; and (b) to promulgate guidelines in order to facilitate the implementation of the measures imposed by the resolution and keep them under active review. The Committee's mandate was again expanded by resolution 1896 (2009) of 30 November 2009, in which the Council specified the necessary information that Member States should provide in order to fulfil the notification requirement laid out in resolution 1807 (2008) of 31 March 2008, regarding exemptions to the arms embargo.

By resolution 1533 (2004), the Council also established a Group of Experts to undertake the following tasks: (a) to examine and analyse information gathered by the United Nations Organization Mission in the Democratic Republic of the Congo (MONUC) in the context of its monitoring mandate; (b) to gather and analyse all relevant information in the Democratic Republic of the Congo, countries of the region and, as necessary, in other countries, on flows of arms and related materiel, as well as networks operating in violation of the measures imposed; (c) to consider and recommend ways of improving the capabilities of interested States, in particular those of the region, to ensure that the measures imposed were effectively implemented; (d) to report to the Council, through the Committee, on the implementation of the measures imposed by paragraph 20 of resolution 1493 (2003), with recommendations in that regard; (e) to keep the Committee frequently updated on its activities; (f) to exchange with MONUC, as appropriate, information that might be of use in the fulfilment of its monitoring mandate; and (g) to provide the Committee with a list, including supporting evidence, of those found to have violated the measures imposed, and those found to have supported them in such activities, for possible future measures by the Council. This mandate was expanded by resolution 1896 (2009), to include the task of producing recommendations to the Committee for guidelines for the exercise of due diligence by the importers, processing industries and consumers of mineral products regarding the purchase, sourcing, acquisition and processing of mineral products from the Democratic Republic of the Congo.

During the period, by resolution 1952 (2010) of 29 November 2010 and resolution 2021 (2011) of 29 November 2011, the Council renewed the arms embargo, financial measures and travel restrictions imposed by resolution 1807 (2008), until 30 November 2011 and 30 November 2012, respectively.

Group of Experts

By resolution 1952 (2010), the Council extended the mandate of the Group of Experts until 30 November 2011, with the addition of a sixth expert, on natural resources issues. The Council also requested the Group of Experts to focus its activities on areas affected by illegal armed groups, as well as on regional and international networks providing support for such groups, criminal networks, and perpetrators of serious violations of human rights and international humanitarian law and human rights abuses. It further requested the Group to evaluate the impact of the due diligence guidelines referred to in that resolution. By resolution 2021 (2011), the Council extended the mandate of the Group of Experts until 30 November 2012, and requested that the Group include in its evaluation of the impact of due diligence an assessment on the economic and social development of the relevant mining areas in the Democratic Republic of the Congo.

By resolution 1572 \(2004\) of 15 November 2004, the Security Council imposed an arms embargo against Côte d’Ivoire, as well as an asset freeze and a travel ban against designated individuals and entities who threatened the national reconciliation process in Côte d’Ivoire. The Council also established a Committee to oversee the measures imposed and to undertake the following tasks: (a) to designate and make public a list of individuals and entities subject to the targeted measures; (b) to seek information from States and entities on their implementation of the measures; (c) to consider and decide upon requests for exemptions; (d) to promulgate guidelines for the conduct of its work; and (e) to report to the Council with its observations and recommendations. #### Committee established pursuant to resolution 1591 \(2005\) concerning the Sudan

By resolution 1556 \(2004\) of 30 July 2004, the Security Council imposed an arms embargo on all no-governmental entities and individuals, including the Janjaweed, operating in the Darfur region in the Sudan. By resolution 1591 \(2005\) of 29 March 2005, the Council established a Committee to monitor the implementation of the arms embargo, as well as the two additional measures imposed by the resolution, namely, a travel ban and an asset freeze on those individuals designated by the Committee on the basis of the criteria contained therein. The Committee was mandated to undertake the following tasks: (a) to establish guidelines necessary to facilitate the implementation of the measures imposed; (b) to report to the Council on its work; (c) to consider requests from, and provide prior approval to, the Government of the Sudan regarding exemptions to the arms embargo; (d) to assess reports from the Panel of Experts and Member States on steps taken to implement the measures; and (e) to encourage a dialogue between the Committee and interested Member States, in particular those in the region, including by inviting representatives of such States to meet with the Committee to discuss implementation of the measures.

Also by resolution 1591 \(2005\), the Council established a Panel of Experts to operate under the direction of the Committee and undertake the following tasks: (a) to assist the Committee in monitoring implementation of the measures and to make recommendations on actions the Council could consider; (b) to provide briefings and reports to the Committee on its work, including its findings and recommendations; and (c) to coordinate its activities as appropriate with ongoing operations of the African Union Mission in the Sudan (AMIS).

Developments during 2010 and 2011

During the period under review, there were no major changes to the mandate of the Committee. However, by resolution 1945 \(2010\) of 14 October 2010, the Council strengthened the enforcement of the arms embargo by clarifying the exceptions to that measure, including by requiring all States, including the Sudan, when relying on the exception contained in resolution 1591 \(2005\), to notify the Committee in advance of providing assistance and supplies to the Darfur region in support of the implementation of the Comprehensive Peace Agreement in the states of Northern Darfur, Southern Darfur and Western Darfur.

Panel of Experts

By resolutions 1945 \(2010\) of 14 October 2010 and 1982 \(2011\) of 17 May 2011, the Council extended the mandate of the Panel of Experts until 19 October 2011 and 19 February 2012, respectively. The Council also reiterated its request that the Panel of Experts coordinate its activities, as appropriate, with the operations of the African Union-United Nations Hybrid Operation in Darfur (UNAMID), which succeeded AMIS, and with international efforts to promote the political process in Darfur. The Council also requested the Panel of Experts to assess in its reports to the Committee any progress towards reducing violations by all parties to the arms embargo, travel ban and asset freeze; progress towards reducing impediments to the political process and threats to stability in Darfur and the region; and progress towards reducing other violations of the relevant resolutions.

The Council also authorized the establishment of a Committee to undertake the following tasks: (a) to monitor implementation of the arms embargo, travel ban and asset freeze; (b) to designate individuals subject to the travel ban and to consider requests for exemptions; (c) to designate individuals subject to the asset freeze and to consider requests for exemptions; (d) to establish such guidelines as might be necessary to facilitate the implementation of the measures set out in the resolution; (e) to report to the Council on its work; (f) to encourage a dialogue between the Committee and interested Member States, in particular those in the region, including by inviting representatives of such States to meet the Committee to discuss implementation of the measures; (g) to seek from all States whatever information the Committee might consider useful regarding the actions taken by them to implement effectively the measures set out in the resolution; and (h) to examine and take appropriate action on information regarding alleged violations or non-compliance with the measures contained therein.

By resolution 1973 \(2011\) of 17 March 2011, the Council imposed additional measures relating to Libya, including the authorization to protect civilians and civilian populated areas under threat of attack in Libya and a complete no-flight zone in the airspace of Libya, with an exemption for flights that were deemed necessary for the benefit of the Libyan people, for humanitarian aid and the evacuation of foreign nationals. The Council also decided to maintain the asset freeze and arms embargo established by resolution 1970 \(2011\), and established conditions for the inspection of transport suspected to be violating the embargo. The Council expanded the scope of the mandate of the Committee to include overseeing the additional measures imposed by the resolution, directing the Committee to designate Libyan authorities, or individuals or entities, subject to the asset freeze. By resolution 2009 \(2011\) of 16 September 2011, the Council eased or lifted some of the measures previously imposed by resolutions 1970 \(2011\) and 1973 \(2011\) to ensure that assets were made available to and for the benefit of the people of Libya. For example, by resolution 1988 \(2011\) of 17 June 2011, the Council called on the Committee established pursuant to that resolution, concerning the Taliban and associated individuals and entities, to maintain contact not only with the Committee pursuant to resolutions 1267 \(1999\) and 1989 \(2011\) concerning Al-Qaida and associated individuals and entities but also with the Counter-Terrorism Committee, the Counter-Terrorism Committee Executive Directorate and the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1540 \(2004\), “particularly given the continuing presence and negative influence on the Afghan conflict of Al-Qaida and any cell, affiliate, splinter group or derivative thereof”.<sup>21</sup> Similarly, by resolution 1989

The Council also expressed its intention to provide guidance to the Committees on areas of common interest in order better to coordinate their efforts and facilitate such cooperation, and requested the Secretary-General to make the necessary arrangements for the groups of experts to be co-located as soon as possible.<sup>22</sup>

By resolution 1963 (2010), the Council also reiterated its request that the Counter-Terrorism Committee report orally, through its Chair, to the Council at least every 180 days on the overall work of the Committee and its Executive Directorate and urged the Chair of the Committee to continue the practice of providing informal briefings for all interested Member States. The Council also urged the Executive Directorate to continue to strengthen its role in facilitating technical assistance for the implementation of resolution 1373 (2001) aimed at increasing the capabilities of Member States and regions in the fight against terrorism by addressing their counter-terrorism needs, in close coordination with the United Nations Counter-Terrorism Implementation Task Force, as well as with bilateral and multilateral assistance providers. The Council encouraged the Executive Directorate, in close cooperation with the Task Force and its relevant working groups, to focus increased attention on resolution 1624 (2005) in its dialogue with Member States to develop strategies which included countering incitement of terrorist acts, and to produce reports on the implementation of resolutions 1373 (2001) and 1624 (2005) by 31 December 2011. ## II. Working groups

Note

During the period under review, a number of working groups of the Security Council continued to meet. As in the case of the committees, the working groups were composed of all 15 members of the Council and meetings were held in private, unless otherwise decided. Decisions were reached by consensus.

The Working Group on Peacekeeping Operations, the Ad Hoc Working Group on Conflict Prevention and Resolution in Africa, the Working Group on Children and Armed Conflict, the Informal Working Group on

Documentation and Other Procedural Questions and the Informal Working Group on Criminal Tribunals continued to meet. Several times during 2010 and 2011, the Council explicitly referred in its decisions to its thematically-oriented working groups. For example, by resolution 1998 (2011) of 12 July 2011, the Council directed the Working Group on Children and Armed Conflict to consider a broad range of options for increasing pressure on persistent perpetrators of violations and abuses committed against children in situations of armed conflict.<sup>26</sup>

While most of the working groups were established on an open-ended basis and therefore did not require renewal, the mandate of the Ad Hoc Working Group on Conflict Prevention and Resolution in Africa, initially established for a period of one year, was extended on 21 December 2010 until 31 December 2011.<sup>27</sup> The Working Group established pursuant to resolution 1566 (2004) of 8 October 2004, although in existence in the period under review, did not meet.

IV. Tribunals

Note

During the period under review, the Security Council continued to work towards the implementation of the completion strategy for both the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia and the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda by establishing a Residual Mechanism for Criminal Tribunals. Both Tribunals remained active, by implementing various procedural reforms to improve efficiency and productivity, while simultaneously ensuring respect for the due process rights of the accused.

Residual mechanism for criminal tribunals

By resolution 1966 (2010) of 22 December 2010, under Chapter VII of the Charter, the Security Council established the International Residual Mechanism for Criminal Tribunals. The Mechanism consisted of two branches: one for the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda, which would commence on 1 July 2012; and another for the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia, which would commence on 1 July 2013. The Mechanism would operate for an initial period of four years from 1 July 2012, and would continue the jurisdiction, rights, obligations and essential functions of the two Tribunals. The Council further requested the two Tribunals to take all possible measures to complete all remaining work no later than 31 December 2014, to prepare for their closure and to ensure a smooth transition to the Mechanism, including through establishing advance teams in each of the Tribunals. The Council recalled the obligation of States to cooperate with the Tribunals and the Mechanism, including by, inter alia, complying with the requests of the Tribunals for assistance in the location, arrest, detention, surrender and transfer of accused persons, and by taking any necessary measures under their respective domestic laws to implement the provisions of the resolution and the statute of the Mechanism. The Council further underlined the need for the Tribunals to concentrate their work on the prosecution and trial of senior leaders suspected of being most responsible for crimes within their jurisdiction and to transfer cases not involving that level of responsibility to national jurisdictions.

VI. Special advisers, envoys and representatives

Note

While the Secretary-General has broad authority to appoint representatives and advisers, as reiterated by the General Assembly,<sup>31</sup> in many cases these appointments are made at the request or with the support of the Security Council. In these cases, the envoy or representative can be considered to be a subsidiary organ of the Council. Section VI provides a list of special advisers, envoys and representatives in whose appointment the Council has been involved and whose mandates relate to the Council's responsibility for the maintenance of international peace and security.

It does not include Special Representatives appointed as heads of peacekeeping or political missions; they are covered in part X. During the period, the Special Advisers to the Secretary-General on Cyprus, the Prevention of Genocide and for the implementation of Security Council resolution 1559 (2004) and the Personal Envoy of the Secretary-General for Western Sahara all continued to exercise their functions. In 2010 the Council established two new positions, namely, the Special Representative of the Secretary-General on Sexual Violence in Conflict and the Special Adviser to the Secretary-General on Legal Issues related to Piracy off the Coast of Somalia.

In connection with the situation in Cyprus, by resolutions 1559 (2004) of 15 June 2010, 1953 (2010) of 14 December 2010, 1986 (2011) of 13 June 2011 and 2026 (2011) of 14 December 2011, the Council welcomed the continued efforts of the Special Adviser to the Secretary-General, whose mandate was to assist the parties in the conduct of fully-fledged negotiations aimed at reaching a comprehensive settlement.

On 16 July 2010, in connection with the maintenance of international peace and security, with a focus on preventive diplomacy in Africa, the Council adopted a presidential statement in which it recalled the role of the Special Adviser to the Secretary-General on the Prevention of Genocide in matters relating to the prevention and resolution of conflict.<sup>32</sup>

Regarding the situation in Western Sahara, by resolutions 1920 (2010) and 1979 (2011), the Council reaffirmed its support for the Personal Envoy and his work in facilitating negotiations between the parties, welcomed his ongoing consultations with the parties and neighbouring States, and affirmed its support for the commitment of the Personal Envoy of the Secretary-General towards a solution to the question of Western Sahara.

Special Representative of the Secretary-General on Sexual Violence in Conflict

By resolution 1888 (2009) of 30 September 2009, the Council requested that the Secretary-General appoint a Special Representative to provide coherent and strategic leadership, to work effectively to strengthen existing United Nations coordination mechanisms and to engage in advocacy efforts, inter alia, with Governments, including military and judicial representatives, as well as with all parties to armed conflict and civil society, in order to address, both at the headquarters and at the country levels, sexual violence in armed conflict, while promoting cooperation and coordination of efforts among all relevant stakeholders, primarily through the inter-agency initiative “United Nations Action against Sexual Violence in Conflict”.<sup>33</sup> By an exchange of letters in 2010 between the Secretary-General and the President of the Security Council, that position was established and Ms. Margaret Wallström (Sweden) was appointed as the first Special Representative of the Secretary-General on Sexual Violence in Conflict. On 27 April 2010, the Council adopted a presidential statement by which it welcomed the appointment of the Special Representative and reiterated its support of her mandate as outlined in resolution 1888 (2009).<sup>34</sup>

Special Adviser on Legal Issues related to Piracy off the Coast of Somalia

By a presidential statement adopted on 25 August 2010, the Council welcomed the intention of the Secretary-General to appoint a Special Adviser on Legal Issues related to Piracy off the Coast of Somalia and, by an exchange of letters dated 25 and 26 August 2010 between the Secretary-General and the President of the Security Council, Mr. Jack Lang (France) was appointed to that position. By resolution 1950 (2010) of 23 November 2010, the Council reaffirmed its interest in the continued consideration of all seven options for prosecuting suspected pirates described in the report of the Secretary-General,<sup>35</sup> taking into account further new information and observations based on the consultations being conducted by the Special Adviser, with a view to taking further steps to ensure that pirates were held accountable.<sup>36</sup>

VII. Peacebuilding Commission

Note

By resolution 1645 (2005) of 20 December 2005, the Security Council, acting concurrently with the General Assembly, established the Peacebuilding Commission as an intergovernmental advisory body. The Council decided that the main purposes of the Commission were, inter alia, to bring together all relevant actors to marshal resources for, advise on and propose integrated strategies for post-conflict peacebuilding and recovery, and provide recommendations. The Council also decided that the Organizational Committee of the Commission would include seven members of the Council.<sup>37</sup> Prior to 2010, the situations in Burundi, the Central African Republic, Guinea-Bissau, Liberia and Sierra Leone were placed on the Commission's agenda. On 23 February 2011, Guinea was added to the agenda of the Commission, bringing the total number of situations on the Commission's agenda during the period to six.

Developments during 2010 and 2011

During the period under review, the Council continued to invite the Chair of the Peacebuilding Commission and the Chairs of its country-specific configurations to provide briefings on the situations on the agenda of the Commission, usually on the occasion of a mandate renewal, or when the Council considered the question of post-conflict peacebuilding.<sup>38</sup> In connection with that question, the Chair of the Commission participated in the 6299th meeting, on 16 April 2010, where he said that the Council should consider ways of maximizing the use of the Commission's advisory role, and called for a stronger, organic and more dynamic linkage between the Council and the Commission throughout the various phases of the Council's consideration of certain situations on its agenda.<sup>39</sup> In connection with the situation in Sierra Leone, the Chair of the Sierra Leone configuration participated in the 6291st meeting, on 22 March 2010, and called for continuing attention and assistance in the period prior to the 2012 general elections and for greater funding for peacebuilding efforts. The Chair of the Liberia configuration briefed the Council at its 6495th meeting, on 16 March 2011, and discussed issues of national reconciliation and reform of the system of justice.<sup>40</sup>

Organizational Committee of the Peacebuilding Commission

During the period, two members<sup>41</sup> of the Security Council served on the Organizational Committee of the Peacebuilding Commission until the end of 2010. On 30 December 2010, the Council selected Colombia and Gabon to participate in the Organizational Committee for a term of one year, until the end of 2011.<sup>42</sup>

Request for advice on the situation in Liberia

In a letter dated 19 July 2010 addressed to the Chair of the Peacebuilding Commission, the President of the Security Council expressed the Council's support for the request by Liberia to be placed on the agenda of the Commission, and invited the Commission to provide advice and recommendations on Liberia's peacebuilding priorities in the areas of the rule of law, security sector reform and national reconciliation.<sup>43</sup> The Organizational Committee of the Peacebuilding Commission subsequently agreed to place Liberia on its agenda and establish a country configuration.<sup>44</sup>

<sup>37</sup> The 31 members include 7 members selected by the Security Council; 7 members elected by the Economic and Social Council; 5 top providers of assessed contributions to United Nations budgets and of voluntary contributions to the United Nations funds, programmes and agencies, including a standing peacebuilding fund; 5 top providers of military personnel and civilian police to United Nations missions; and 7 members elected by the General Assembly.

<sup>38</sup> The practice of inviting, as appropriate, the Chairs of country-specific configurations of the Peacebuilding Commission to participate in formal Council meetings at which the situation concerning the country in question is considered, or on a case-by-case basis, was established in the note by the President of 26 July 2010 (S/2010/507, para. 61). For more information on invitations to and participation in formal Security Council meetings, see part II.
