B. Non-proliferation

During the period under review, the Security Council held 11 meetings to consider the item entitled "Non-proliferation", one more than in the two years covered in the previous Supplement to the Repertoire. The Council received eight briefings by the Chair of the Committee established pursuant to resolution 1737 (2006),¹⁰⁵ and adopted three resolutions. The Council twice extended the mandate of the Panel of Experts, first until 9 July 2015 and then until 9 July 2016.

The activities of the Council under this item focused mainly on the negotiations between the group of five permanent members plus one and the Islamic Republic of Iran, which culminated in the conclusion on 14 July 2015 of the Joint Comprehensive Plan of Action and the adoption of resolution 2231 (2015), in which the Council endorsed the agreement and urged its full implementation. According to that resolution, the sanctions against the Islamic Republic of Iran would be terminated upon compliance with specified conditions.¹⁰⁶ The termination of the sanctions would be subject, however, to the so-called "snap back" arrangements in the event of significant non-performance of commitments under the Joint Plan of Action within a period of approximately 10 years after its coming into effect.

In the latter part of 2015, the Council was briefed on and discussed the alleged test launch of an Emad ballistic missile by the Islamic Republic of Iran on 10 October 2015.¹⁰⁷
