

Notice of Intent Regarding License for Sports Wagering

The Massachusetts Gaming Commission (“MGC”) requests that entities intending to seek a license for sports wagering pursuant to G.L. c. 23N complete this notice of intent and return it by August 31, 2022. Notices may be e-mailed to mgcclerk@massgaming.gov.

Please note that returned notices, and the information contained therein, will be subject to the Massachusetts Public Records Law and may be published or released by the MGC.

This form is being requested for informational purposes only and to aid the MGC in understanding potential interest in licenses for sports wagering. This notice of intent is not to be construed as an application or request for a temporary license and does not bind the MGC in any way.

Any questions regarding the notice of intent may be e-mailed to mgcclerk@massgaming.gov.

9. Please offer a brief description of the entity's business, including the type of business it will likely seek to conduct in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Mojo has developed a licensed sports gambling platform in which individuals will be able to place over/under bets on athletes based on career performance. Mojo uses a formula called "Mojo Value" to capture the value of a Player's accumulated career performance, which is derived from a weighted compilation of specific statistical categories calculated at the end of an athlete's career. Mojo utilizes a user interface that borrows elements from the stock market to create a compelling user experience.
