

Weekdays 9-10pm ET

Primetime Cable News' longest-running host, Sean Hannity, has developed a unique connection with his audience – dominating the ratings for more than two decades, and priding himself on being a voice for the everyday American. The program brings viewers the latest News from around the world including high-profile interviews, political and legal analysis, and Hannity's in-depth commentary on relevant topics.

