

CHIPS ISO 2022 Message Usage Guideline Resources

December 2022

The Clearing House CHIPS ISO 2022 Message Usage Guidelines (MUGs) and related supporting documents as source copies are posted on SWIFT MyStandards website under The Clearing House Payments Company LLC Group (https://www2.swift.com/mystandards/#/group/The_Clearing_House_Payments_Company_LLC).

Usage Guidelines

CHIPS_ISO20022_Portfolio_Nov2023_Published_Dec2021
Technical version: 4

There are two private Communities of CHIPS ISO 2022 MUG's, one for CHIPS Participants and one for Software Vendors. There is also a Community exclusively dedicated to the CHIPS ISO 2022 Transition Project which includes guidelines to map CBPR+ messages to the current CHIPS format to be used during the SWIFT coexistence period between when SWIFT converts to MX and when CHIPS converts to ISO 2022.

Open Communities

CHIPS ISO 2022 Migration – Participants

Member

This community is to provide CHIPS Participants with the updated Message Usage Guidelines (MUGs) for...

CHIPS ISO 2022 Migration – Software Vendors

Member

This community is to provide software vendors with the updated Message Usage Guidelines (MUGs) for t...

CHIPS ISO 2022 Transition Project

Member

This community will be used to post all documentation related to the ISO 2022 Transition Project.

For access the TCH Group on SWIFT MyStandards portal and the Readiness Portal for testing your messages, please set-up your SWIFT profile (www.swift.com), register for one or more of the Open Communities and then contact us:

Roberrt.Pepitone@theclearinghouse.org