in action

Businesses today need to be agile, efficient and their people need to be highly engaged. Your HR and Payroll software can be a standalone tool or it can be a connected framework that supports strategic alignment and operational excellence, enabling you to deliver a superior People Experience with limitless scale and flexibility.

Engage employees and drive performance

Organisations that are serious about developing their people for long term success require a learning strategy. This can be an onerous task for a business of any size. Whether you haven't got the resources to get started, or are lacking the ability to scale in times of rapid growth, there are solutions that can support you.

Access PeopleXD Learn helps you engage your employees with learning to ensure they have the skills, competencies and development paths required to drive business performance and compliance.

Our customers can assign, track, manage and report on learning across the organisation, with unique gamification tools layered on top of a learning management system and content libraries that cover specialist skills and competencies, health & safety and compliance, and business skills.

Engage people, evidence compliance

Effective Continuous Professional Development

Put employees on the right track from the outset with a streamlined onboarding experience, diagnostic pre-assessments, personalised learning plans, and the ability to prescribe and track learning activities. Track progress against learning plans and identify outstanding learning activities with in depth dashboards and reporting.

Ensure a Skilled, Compliant Workforce

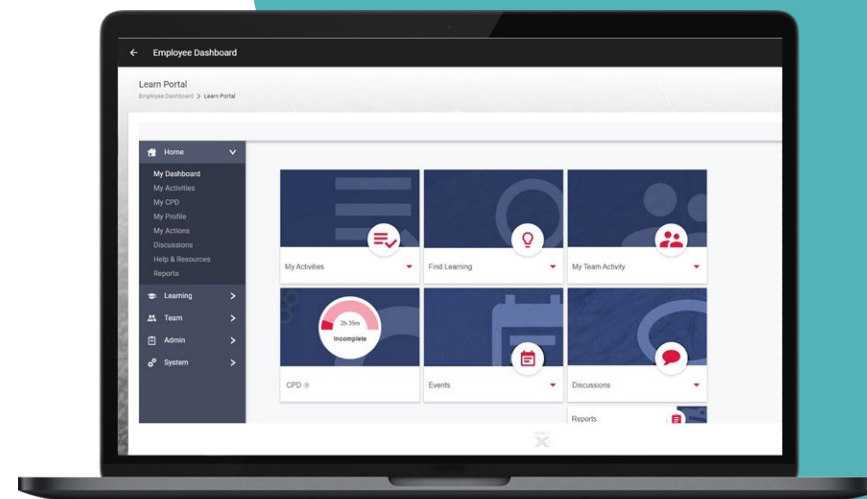

Provide access to all critical compliance content, and demonstrate compliance with completion tracking tools and certification records across all learning activities. Export qualifications for distribution to the appropriate awarding bodies and scale up compliance by integrating with other compliance focused solutions from The Access Group.

Access Off-the-shelf Content

Enable learners to develop skills across a wide range of topics with access to a rich library of off-the-shelf content that is built, updated and maintained in the UK based on UK laws and regulations by subject matter experts. Drive learning by delivering bitesize, engaging content through a blend of formats including gamification, quizzes, audio, video, case studies, animations, infographics, Q&As, assessments and summary PDFs - so employees can learn in a way that's effective for them.

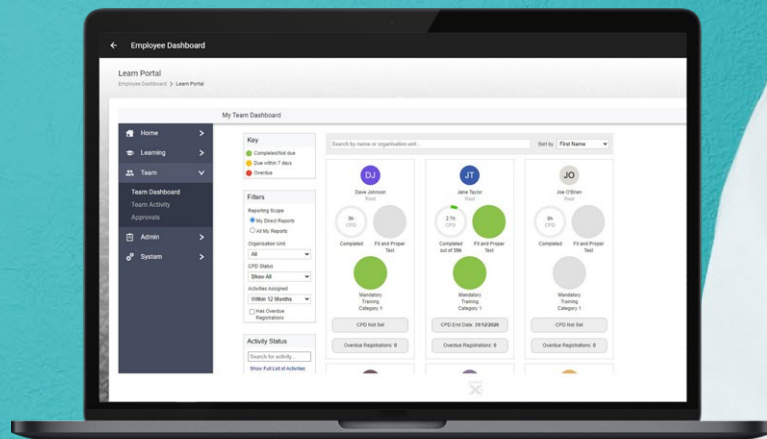

Visibility with an Accessible SaaS Solution

Track and report on all training that has taken place throughout the organisation and easily identify and address any skills & competencies, health & safety or compliance gaps.
