How to Respond to an Employer Notice

What is an Employer Notice?

An Employer Notice is issued by MNsure, or another public Marketplace, to inform your agency that your employee has qualified (or asked) for a premium tax credit (or subsidy) to purchase health coverage through a Marketplace.

Why am I receiving it?

The Marketplace is required to notify the employer when an individual who identifies himself as your employee is receiving or may receive a premium tax credit to purchase health coverage through that Marketplace.

What do I need to do with this notice?

Immediately check the employee's status in SEMA4. If the employee is:

- Not employed by your agency, contact a SEGIP Benefit Specialist, the notice may belong to another agency.
- Full-time (averages 30 or more hours per week or is at least 0.75 FTE for more than 90 days, is not a Seasonal Basis employee, or is MF12, AW12, AW9, DSF, or DWF) contact a SEGIP Benefit Specialist. If the employee is:
 - Full-time and has not been offered the full employer contribution for health coverage, SEGIP will ask you to offer it, minimizing the size of a potential penalty.
 - Full-time and/or was offered or has the full employer contribution for health coverage forward the Employer Notice to SEGIP. SEGIP may file an appeal with the exchange because an individual receiving an unwarranted tax credit may be required to repay the subsidy through their tax return.
- Part-time (less than 0.75 FTE), a seasonal basis employee, or no longer employed by your agency then no more action than is necessary.

Does this notice mean the agency will receive a penalty?

Not necessarily. The IRS may assess your agency a penalty under Affordable Care Act's employer shared responsibility (ESR) provisions:

- When an employer does not offer a full-time employee health coverage, or
- When an employer offers coverage that is not minimum value or affordable, and
- The employee uses a tax credit to purchase coverage through a Marketplace.

The longer the employee is full-time without an offer of coverage the bigger the penalty so it is important to act quickly. Penalties are not assessed when a former or current part-time employee receives a tax credit to purchase health coverage through a Marketplace.
