

UC Berkeley Pre-College Scholars Residential Program Late Curfew & Overnight Stay Request Form 2024

Pre-College Policy:

students are required to abide by curfew hours and are not allowed to spend nights away from campus. Students may request a late curfew or to spend nights away from campus ONLY for uncontrollable situations, such as a late mandatory class activity, an emergency, a scheduled test, or similar circumstances.

Students requesting late curfew or to spend nights away from campus during evenings and weekends must have written permission from a custodial parent or a legal guardian. A request for permission must be submitted by the student's parent or legal guardian (using their official email address that was provided in the application portal) to precollege@berkeley.edu at least 72 hours in advance, during regular business hours, Monday through Friday, 8am - 5pm (no exceptions). Any requests conflicting with required academic programs and activities will not be approved. The Pre-College Scholars Program retains final authority on late curfew and leave requests. Leaving program accommodations after curfew without the explicit written permission of the program staff is prohibited and will result in serious disciplinary actions and/or dismissal from the program.
