SUPPLEMENTAL RECRUITMENT INITIATIVES

The employment unit engaged in the following broad outreach initiatives in accordance with various elements of FCC Rule 73.2080(c)(2):

Participation in at least four (4) job fairs by station personnel who have substantial responsibility in the making of hiring decisions.

The stations participated in the following job fairs during the reporting period: 1) Newmark Graduate School of Journalism at CUNY Career Fair (October, 2023); 2) CUNY’s Kickstart Your Career Virtual Fair (February, 2023); 3) NABJ (National Association of Black Journalists) Convention and Career Fair (August, 2023); 4) Columbia University Journalism Virtual Career Expo (March, 2023); and 5) Public Media “Jobs” Virtual Career Fair (March, 2023).

Establishment of an internship program designed to assist members of the community to acquire skills needed for broadcast employment.

The stations have a robust internship program designed to train students and members of the community to acquire skills needed for broadcast employment. Eight (8) students participated in internships in radio talk show production and human resources. In addition, the stations were the recipient of grants from individual and university funders, which funded twelve (12) internships in the newsroom, social media, and digital areas. The total number of internships during the reporting period was twenty (20).

Participation in job banks, Internet programs, and other programs designed to promote outreach generally.

The stations routinely participate in job banks, including the Corporation for Public Broadcasting (CPB) Jobline and Current's publicmediajobs.org and promote general recruiting through journalism conferences including the National Association of Black Journalists (NABJ), the National Association of Hispanic Journalists (NAHJ) and university and college career fairs.

Establishment of training programs designed to enable station personnel to acquire skills that could qualify them for higher-level positions.

During the reporting period, the stations continued their management training program with the Harvard Business School where one (1) mid-level manager participated in the topic of Management Essentials. In addition, the station established a training program with LinkedIn, called "LinkedIn Learning", where fifty-seven (57) employees have registered to participate in a variety of training topics. Lastly, two (2) of the members of the senior leadership team participated in a mentoring program offered by "Chief", a private membership network focused on supporting women executive leaders.

Participation in at least four events or programs sponsored by educational institutions relating to career opportunities in broadcasting.

During the reporting period, the stations participated in the following programs: 1) Hartford Public Schools/Weaver High School Career Fair (March, 2023); 2) Central Connecticut State University High School Journalism Day (March, 2023); 3) Columbia Journalism School Virtual Career Fair (March, 2023); and 4) Horace Porter School Career Fair (May, 2023).

Provision of training to management level personnel as to methods of ensuring equal employment opportunity and preventing discrimination.

During the reporting period, the stations continued their company-wide training focus on diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI). The stations offered, through an alliance with a local foundation, a monthly workshop on race and equity; a series of live webinars on DEI learning through ADP; free on-line resources with curated DEI courses made available through “Coursera”; and lastly, every employee completed an Harassment and Bias Prevention training webinar sponsored by the Corporation for Public Broadcasting, Inc.
