FACE UP PAI GOW POKER

RULES AND REGULATIONS

Face Up Pai Gow Poker is a 7-card poker game played with a 53-card deck consisting of a standard 52-card deck and one joker. The joker is played as an ace unless it can be used to complete a straight, flush, or straight flush. As in standard Pai Gow, each Player and Dealer receive seven cards, but in Face Up Pai Gow Poker, the Dealer's cards are dealt face-up. Face Up Pai Gow Poker is a commission-free game. When the Dealer plays an ace-high "pai gow," the Player's hand automatically pushes, and the round is over.

Each Player will make a Pai Gow Poker wager before the cards are dealt. Once all bets are made, the Dealer will deliver seven cards to each spot of the game, including unplayed spots. The Dealer will expose their seven cards first and set them in accordance with house ways. After the Dealer's hand is set, and it's determined their hand doesn't contain an Ace-High Pai Gow, each Player will set their seven cards, making a five-card High Hand and a two-card Low Hand. The High Hand must be the strongest in relation to poker rankings. If the Low Hand ranks higher than the High Hand, the hand is declared a foul hand, and the wager is forfeited.

RANKING THE HANDS

5 ACES:

A high hand consisting of 4 Aces and the Joker.

ROYAL FLUSH:

A high hand consisting of an Ace, King, Queen, Jack and 10 of the same suit.

STRAIGHT FLUSH:

A high hand consisting of five cards of the same suit in consecutive ranking, with Ace, 2, 3, 4, 5 being the highest Straight Flush; King, Queen, Jack, 10 and 9 being the second highest-ranking Straight Flush; and 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 being the lowest-ranking Straight Flush.

4-OF-A-KIND:

A high hand consisting of four cards of the same rank regardless of suit, with 4 Aces being the highest ranking and 4 twos being the lowest-ranking.

FULL HOUSE:

A high hand consisting of a 3-of-a-Kind and Pair, with three Aces and Two Kings being the highest ranking Full House and 3 twos and 2 threes being the lowest-ranking Full House.

FLUSH:

A high hand consisting of five cards of the same suit, regardless of rank.

STRAIGHT:

A high hand consisting of five cards of consecutive rank, regardless of suit, with an Ace, King, Queen, Jack and 10 being the highest-ranking Straight; an Ace, 2, 3, 4, 5 being the second-highest ranking Straight; and a 6, 5, 4, 3, 2 being the lowest-ranking Straight.

3-OF-A-KIND:

A high hand consisting of three cards of the same rank regardless of suit, with three Aces being the highest ranking and 3 twos being the lowest ranking.

2 PAIR:

A high hand consisting of two pairs of the same ranking, regardless of suit, with two Aces and two Kings being the highest and 2 threes and 2 twos being the lowest.

PAIR:

Either a High Hand or a Low Hand consisting of two cards of the same rank, regardless of suit, with two Aces being the highest and 2 twos being the lowest.

OUTCOMES:

1. If both the High Hand and Low Hand rank higher than the Dealer's, you will win even money.
2. If either your High or Low Hand rank higher than the Dealer's corresponding High or Low Hand, but you do NOT rank higher on BOTH, the hand is a PUSH, meaning your bet neither wins nor loses.
3. If the Dealer's High and Low Hand outrank your High and Low Hand, your bet loses. The Dealer wins identical or "copy" hands.

Fortune Bonus Side Wager

To play, Players make a standard Pai Gow wager and the Fortune Bonus wager. If a Player has wagered at least $5 on the Fortune Bonus, the Dealer will place an "Envy" button next to his wager. The Dealer then follows house procedures for Pai Gow poker. If a Player's hand qualifies for payouts, the Dealer pays him according to the posted payable. The Dealer pays any Envy Bonuses at the end of each round. If at least one Player has a 4-of-a-Kind, all Players with Envy buttons win. In the event that more than one Player has at least a 4-of-a-Kind, all Players with Envy buttons win multiple payouts.

Note: A Player cannot win Envy Bonuses for his own hand or the Dealer's hand.
