Fidelity Charitable requires the charitable grant recipient to certify that (i) the organization is formed under the laws of the U.S. and its territories and is a public charity described in Internal Revenue Code section 509(a)(1), (2) or (3), or is a private operating foundation described in the IRC section 4942(j)(3), and applicable regulations and IRS authority; (ii) the grant will be used exclusively in furtherance of the organization's exempt purposes; (iii) neither the recommending donor nor other third party will receive goods, services or any more incidental benefits (such as tuition, memberships that confer more than incidental benefits, admission to events, or goods bought at auction) as a result of the grant; (iv) the grant does not satisfy all or any portion of a financial obligation (including an enforceable pledge) of any individual or entity; and (v) the grant will not be used for lobbying or political contributions or to support political campaign activities. In addition, Fidelity Charitable monitors charitable activities of recipient organizations through various media searches designed to identify charities where any funds are not being used for proper exempt purposes. Moreover, wherever necessary, Fidelity Charitable requires documentation and certification regarding the charitable activities and use of Fidelity Charitable grants from charitable grant recipients. Fidelity Charitable may also work with the recommending donors to verify that funds will be used exclusively for proper charitable purposes.
