

Eviction Diversion Program

Post-Filing Information Sheet

Your landlord has started a court case to evict you. The court has scheduled a hearing for your court case. At this hearing, the judge will decide if you need to move out. The landlord has sent you a Complaint and Summons.

- The Complaint tells you the reason the landlord wants to evict you and if the landlord claims you owe money (such as for back rent or damage to the property).
- The Summons tells you when and where your eviction hearing will be and the time you have to file a written Answer to the landlord's claims.

Act

Do not ignore your eviction case.

If you do not do anything, you will probably lose your case.

But you have options:

- Talk to your landlord and try to work out an agreement,
- Move out and tell your landlord that you moved out, or
- Go to court for all your hearings and tell the judge your side.

Learn

It is always a good idea to get legal information and advice.
