Court Location

In the Matter of:

Case Nos. _____

PETITION TO TRANSFER ICWA CINA CASE TO TRIBAL COURT

Instructions: The tribe or tribal court, a parent, or an Indian custodian may file this petition to ask to move this case to tribal court. You may make an oral request during any court hearing, and the parents, Indian custodian (if there is one), and tribe may agree to the request orally at the hearing. If you make an oral request, you do not also have to file this written petition, unless

- One of the parents, the Indian custodian (if there is one), or the child’s tribe is not present at the hearing to agree to the transfer, or
- The tribe that you want to transfer the case to has not yet intervened (joined) in the case.

REQUEST. I ask to transfer jurisdiction of this Child in Need of Aid (CINA) case to tribal court. This transfer is authorized by the Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA), 25 U.S.C. § 1911(b) and CINA Rule 23, because the child is an Indian child as defined by ICWA, § 1903(4).

1. PETITIONER. I am the child’s Parent Indian custodian Tribe

NOTICE TO ALL PARTIES

- 1. If you want to file a response to this petition, you must do so within 20 days after you receive it. If you are a parent or Indian custodian, you can use form CN-345, Notice of Parent's/Indian Custodian's Position on Proposed Transfer of Case, available online at ak-courts.info/cn345 or in paper copy from the state court clerk.
- 2. If either parent opposes (disagrees with) the transfer to tribal court, this petition will be denied unless the parental rights of the parent have already been terminated by a court with the authority to do so. See 25 U.S.C. § 1911(b).
- 3. If the tribal court declines jurisdiction at any time before an order granting the petition to transfer is signed, this petition will not be granted.
- 4. If any party in the state court case shows good cause for why the case should not be transferred, this petition will not be granted.
- 5. If the case is transferred to tribal court, and the tribal court exercises jurisdiction, any lawyer or guardian ad litem (GAL) appointments made by the state court will terminate (end).
- 6. To accept or decline jurisdiction, the tribal court may file form CN-340, Order Regarding Jurisdiction over ICWA Case, with the state court. The form is available online at ak-courts.info/cn340 or in paper copy from the state court clerk.
- 7. State court forms are available at <https://courts.alaska.gov/forms/index.htm>.
