

INSTRUCTIONS

The purpose of this report is to tell the court why your service as conservator is ending and what has happened to the protected person's assets since you filed your last report. The court will review this final report within 30 days of receipt and send out either an approval letter or a deficiency notice requesting additional information. Please follow the directions in this form or your report may not be approved.

When filling out the form:

- If you got this form from the internet, download and save the blank PDF form to your local device. Then reopen it before filling it out. The form may not work or save correctly if you fill it out on your internet browser.
- Only file using single-sided printing.
- If filling out by hand, print clearly using black ink.
- Do not leave any question blank. If it does not apply, write "n/a" or provide an explanation.
- Be sure to attach the required documentation as explained on this form, such as bank statements. Bank statements should reflect the accounting you provide. If you charged for rent or room and board, this should be easily seen in the statement. If you had a lot of cash withdrawals, you should have receipts to back up accounting.
- If you need to add additional information to any area of the report, please use a separate sheet of paper. Only write on one side of the paper.

Your accounting must be accurate. You may not use estimates. You must have documentation of your accounting available for court inspection at any time.

You may wish to have a copy of your last annual report for comparison and to help you remember details while filling out this final report. Many questions on this form ask whether there have been any changes since the last report.

If you need help with this report, contact the Alaska Court System's Guardianship and Conservatorship Helpline at (907) 264-0520 or visit the Court's self-help page at ak-courts.info/gc.

This page is for your information only. It does not need to be filed with the report.
