IN THE SUPERIOR COURT FOR THE STATE OF ALASKA AT _____ In the Matter of the Protective Proceeding of CASE NO.___ Respondent (person who needs a guardian) ORDER APPOINTING PARTIAL GUARDIAN A hearing in this matter was held on before Judge/Master Respondent was present. not present for the reasons stated on the record. Also present were: Respondent's Attorney Court Visitor Petitioner Guardian Ad Litem Expert(s): Others: The court has reviewed \(\Boxed \) the petition, \(\Boxed \) the visitor's report, \(\Boxed \) the expert's report, \square the master's findings and recommendations, and \square any objections from the parties. FINDINGS The court finds that: 1. Notice of the Hearing. The court gave notice of the hearing to the petitioner. b. The visitor gave notice of the hearing to the respondent. AS 13.26.296(a)(1). c. The petitioner served notice of the hearing on the persons listed in AS 13.26.296 (for the guardianship powers). the persons listed in AS 13.26.420 (for the conservatorship powers). 2. Subject Matter Jurisdiction. The court has jurisdiction under AS 13.27.110, because Alaska is the respondent's home state as defined in AS 13.27.180. the requirements of the following statute have been met: ☐ AS 13.27.110(2) ☐ AS 13.27.110(3) ☐ AS 13.27.110(4) 3. Venue. This judicial district is the proper location for the guardianship, because the respondent \square lives here. \square is present here. \square was admitted to an institution by order of a court in this judicial district. AS 13.26.216 and Probate Rule 14(g)(1)(B). This judicial district is the proper location for granting the powers of a conservator because the respondent \square lives here. \square does not live in Alaska, but has property in this judicial district. AS 13.26.411 and Probate Rule 14(g)(1)(C).

4.	Incapacity.
		It has been shown by clear and convincing evidence that the respondent is incapacitated as defined in AS 13.26.005(5). [Someone is incapacitated if the person's ability to receive and evaluate information or to communicate decisions is so impaired that the person cannot provide for the person's own physical health or safety without court-ordered help (including healthcare, food, shelter, clothing, personal hygiene, and protection).] AS 13.26.251(b).
		The respondent agrees to the finding of incapacity as defined above. AS 13.26.251(b).
		Partial Guardian . The respondent is able to perform some, but not all, of the functions necessary to care for the respondent's self, and alternatives to partial guardianship are not feasible or adequate to meet the respondent's needs. Therefore, the court will appoint a partial guardian . AS 13.26.251(e).
		The respondent lacks the ability to provide for the respondent's self in the following areas:
		☐ (1) Medical care.☐ (2) Mental health treatment (if any is required).
		(3) Housing.
		(4) Personal care, educational, and vocational services necessary for the physical and mental welfare of the respondent, and if possible, to enable the respondent to develop or return to full capacity.
		(5) Application for health and accident insurance and any other private or governmental benefits to which the respondent may be entitled.
		(6) Physical and mental examinations necessary to determine the respondent's medical and mental health treatment needs.
		\square (7) Control and management of the respondent's property and financial affairs in order to pay for the cost of services of $(1) - (6)$.
		AS 13.26.266(a)(2) & (b).
		Powers of a Conservator . The partial guardian should have the powers of a conservator, because it has been established that the respondent:
		(1) is unable to effectively manage the respondent's property and financial affairs, and
		(2) has property that will be wasted or used up unless someone manages it, or has funds that are needed for the support, care, and welfare of the

As required by AS 13.26.430(d), the court has investigated the alternatives to appointing a conservator, including the services of a special conservator, and concludes that the powers of a full conservator should be given to the partial guardian, because the alternatives under AS 13.26.440 are not adequate to protect the respondent's estate.

respondent or those entitled to be supported by the respondent.

AS 13.26.430(c) and AS 13.26.401(2).

		for the reasons stated in the attached written findings. AS 13.26.465(f).
6.	Consid	Consideration of the Respondent's Preference.
	☐ a.	Pursuant to the AS 13.26.251(g) requirement that the court consider the respondent's preference in selecting a partial guardian , the court has considered the respondent's preference.
		has not considered the respondent's preference in guardians for the reasons stated \(\square$ on the record. \(\square$ in the attached findings.
	☐ b.	Pursuant to the AS 13.26.430(d) requirement that the court, to the maximum extent possible, consult with the respondent in determining what action should be taken with respect to appointment of a conservator , the court has consulted with the respondent about whether the guardian should be given the powers of a conservator.
		has not consulted with the respondent concerning the conservator issue for the reasons stated \square on the record. \square in the attached findings.
7.	License. The partial guardian has the required professional license under AS 08.26.
		is the Public Guardian.
		is exempt from the license requirement under AS 08.26.180, because individual is employed by a regulated financial institution and will provide the guardian services in the course of this employment.
		is not required to be licensed, because the partial guardian is not engaged in the business of providing guardian or conservator services. The partial guardian has has not satisfied the one-hour mandatory education requirement on the basics of guardianship and conservatorship. AS 13.26.311(c) and 13.26.465(g).

8.	Personal Contact. The respondent appeared for court either in person or by video connection. The respondent did not appear in court, but the court visitor had personal or video contact with the respondent.
	The court visitor shall have personal or video contact with the respondent within the next one year and shall file notice with the court that the contact occurred.
	☐ The court finds good cause to waive the requirement for personal contact.

2.	Powers and Duties. The guardian has the powers and duties of a partial guardian as set forth in AS 13.26.316, and specific authority and responsibility to arrange for the respondent's:
	(1) Medical care.
	(2) Any mental health treatment that is necessary.
	 (3) Housing. Limitations: The guardian cannot move the respondent out of the respondent's current home without written permission from the court.
	(4) Personal care, educational, and vocational services necessary for the physical and mental welfare of the respondent, and if possible, to enable the respondent to develop or return to full capacity.
	(5) Application for health and accident insurance and any other private or governmental benefits to which the respondent may be entitled. ¹
	(6) Physical and mental examinations necessary to determine the respondent's medical and mental health treatment needs.
	(7) Asset and income management. The partial guardian will have the powers and duties of a conservator under AS 13.26.500575, except:
	the guardian cannot sell, transfer, destroy, or otherwise dispose of the following accounts, items, or property without the court's written permission:
	In exercising these conservator powers, the guardian must act as a fiduciary and must observe the standards of care applicable to trustees under AS 13.36.225290. AS 13.26.500.

¹ This includes, but is not limited to, obtaining any and all information and documentation about the respondent from the Social Security Administration, Veteran's Administration, state and federal agencies, and the federal civil service (as well as tax information from the Internal Revenue Service), unless the court order states otherwise.

	□ (8)	otherwise qualified.
	□ (9)) Large Expenditures.
		The guardian may manage the respondent's estate to benefit the respondent without getting court approval for large expenditures. However, the guardian must report annually on all expenses paid for the respondent's best interest.
		Other than payments for the respondent's medical and mental health treatment needs, the guardian may not use the respondent's funds for any non-budgeted expense greater than $ without first getting the court's permission.
	(10)	Regardless of any particular area of authority granted above, the guardian does not have the authority to make decisions reserved to the respondent under AS 13.26.316(e). These include decisions on placement in an institution for the mentally ill (without specific court order), registering to vote and voting, marrying and divorcing, terminating parental rights, obtaining a driver's license, and consenting to or withholding certain medical procedures.
