Instructions for Requesting Records

The Fairbanks Trial Courts cannot perform research or take requests on a case over the phone. To obtain copies or information from a court case file, complete a records request form and send by fax to (907) 452-9330 or by email to 4FArecords@akcourts.gov. Prepayment is required. The court will notify you of the amount due and payment must be received before the records will be released to you. If an email address is provided, the clerk will send you a link to pay online by credit card.

Please complete the entire records request form. It is important that every section be filled out. If information is missing from your request it may take longer to process.

The processing time for a normal request is 2 to 4 weeks. Large requests, or requests that require research, may take longer to process. The court does not offer expedited service for records requests. All records are first come, first served. If records are needed immediately, you must come to the court to make copies.

If your case number starts with "4FA," it is a Fairbanks court case. If your case is not a Fairbanks court case, then the Fairbanks court does not have access to the files and cannot process the request. Your request must be sent to the particular court that has your case file. (For more information about requesting records from other courts, visit our website at: <https://courts.alaska.gov/trialcourts/#recs>.)

Please be aware that if you do not provide a case number, a research fee per hour will be included on your invoice. To find a case number for a case from 1990 to the current date, please visit our website at <https://records.courts.alaska.gov>.

If your case is confidential, or you are requesting a document that is confidential, we will need to verify your identity before releasing the copies to you. You will need to provide either a copy of a valid government-issued identification, or a notarized document stating you are a party to the case. If you are not a party to a confidential case, you will not be authorized to receive any copies from it.
