FAMILY SUNDAY

SUNDAY 26 MAY 2024

10am – 12.30pm

*Welcome to the Royal Opera House's Dots Day!
A festival for babies, crawlers, tots and their big people.*

Welcome to the Royal Opera House's Dots Day! A festival for babies, crawlers, tots and their big people.

It's never too early to enjoy the magic of the theatre, all of today's activities are suitable for ages 0-5 and have been designed to offer your little person multi-sensory, interactive opportunities to try music and dance in a safe and stimulating environment.

There is so much to see and do, with special performances by visiting companies: LOOK MUM NO HANDS by Daryl and Mimbre & Co, DUCKIE returns to the Paul Hamlyn Hall by Le Gateau Chocolat and in the Clore the English Touring Opera present, UNDER THE LITTLE RED MOON.

Head to the Crush Room and spend some time with storytellers LUKE SAYDON, for a special retelling of The Magic Flute or settle down for something a little quieter with ZOE PHILLIPS and ALICIA BRITT in an intimate interactive sensory story telling of Alices Adventures in Wonderland.

Send your little one off for nap time with a Lullabies recital with MARIA BROWN, ALAN GARNER and STEPHEN CLARKE in the Linbury Foyer. If you like to get moving, join former soloist of the Royal Ballet TARA BHAVNANI in Baby and Toddler ballet suitable for parents with babies in slings/carriers and toddlers. Or head up to the Paul Hamlyn Hall for Ballet Dots, a specially designed ballet session featuring DANI BATCHELOR and KATE HARTLY-STEVENS

Dressing up and a giant chalkboard for all the family to enjoy can be found up on level 5.

Please be aware we have a buggy park onsite, but the cloakroom will be closed during the event, please pack with this in mind.

*Family Sundays can be quite noisy. Ear defenders can be requested for you or your little person. Just ask a member of staff in a black t-shirt.

LOOK MUM, NO HANDS!

A combination of theatre, movement and acrobatics. Look Mum, No Hands! is a tender story about friendship and growing up. It playfully explores the idea of independence vs interdependence, vulnerability and strength, using striking physical imagery that will linger in people's minds.

The performance takes creative advantage of the fact that one of the characters uses a wheelchair to create new acrobatic shapes and choreographies that are original and unexpected.

Paul Hamlyn Hall
11.20am—11.50am

UNDER THE LITTLE RED MOON

Join Lulu, Monty and their friend Tom on a vibrant and colourful journey in English Touring Opera's opera for babies, Under the Little Red Moon. Made in consultation with paediatricians, the show explores the development of language with the help of music and movement. Written by TIM YEALLAND, composed by RUSSELL HEPPLWHITE and designed by ALISON ALEXANDER.

Lulu: NATASHA AGARWAL

Monty: BRADLEY TRAVIS/BEN KNIGHT

Actor/Stage Manager: GUSTA MATTHEWS

Percussion: HARRY LOVELL-JONES

After the performance there is a stay and play session where you have the chance to explore the world of Under the Little Red Moon and interact with the singers and props.

*age guidance: This piece is most suitable for children aged 0-2
