Funded by the Roquan Smith Foundation, the Baltimore Ravens and ILB Roquan Smith hosted the 18th Annual Holiday Helpers event on Monday (12/11) at the Target in Owings Mills. Smith was joined by teammates, including ILB Patrick Queen, K Justin Tucker and G Kevin Zeitler, to serve as personal shopping assistants for 60 pre-selected students from Bridges and the Police Athletic League. Adding to the entertainment, Ravens cheerleaders and Poe were in attendance to support the shopping experience.

Upon arrival, students received a Holiday Helpers t-shirt and pizza party, donated by Papa John's. Activities included an ornament decorating station and a floating magician who offered close-up magical illusions to further spread the holiday cheer.
