

PRESEASON KICKOFF

2023 Signature Project

On Friday, May 19, the Baltimore Ravens hosted an organization-wide volunteer day to build a state-of-the-art playground and provide significant upgrades at Morrell Park Elementary/Middle School and Recreation Center in Baltimore City. The construction and renovation project marks a $200,000 community investment fully funded by the Ravens Foundation, Inc., in partnership with KABOOM!, Heart of America, Baltimore City Public Schools and Baltimore City Recreation and Parks. Ravens executives, including team president Sashi Brown, along with players, the entire rookie class, and staff, comprise the nearly 175 volunteers to participate in the annual "signature project".

Said Sashi Brown: "The Ravens are committed to enriching the lives of children and the communities in which they live, particularly by focusing on education. KABOOM! and Heart of America have been tremendous partners, helping enact positive change for those who are most in need."

The Ravens Foundation, Inc. recently awarded $100,000 in grants to 18 nonprofit organizations in the Baltimore area. The Ravens' PLAY 60 Grant continues to provide financial support of up to $10,000 for both new and expanding programs or endeavors that promote physical fitness and/or nutrition education among youth. Over the past 17 years, the Ravens Foundation, has provided over $1.6 million in funding to support these deserving programs. The Ravens Foundation is committed to improving, encouraging and enabling the healthy development of youth in Baltimore and throughout Maryland.

The Touchdown for Teachers grand prize was awarded to Keisha Nandalal, a 29-year veteran teacher from Fountain Green Elementary School who currently teaches first-grade math, science, reading, writing, phonics and social studies. Nandalal received $5,000 in grant funds, payable to her school, a school visit by S Kyle Hamilton, Ravens Cheerleaders and Poe and a customized Ravens jersey. The finalists each received a personalized Ravens jersey and $1,000 in grant funds, payable to their schools. All grant funds are provided by M&T Bank and the Ravens.
