SONGS FOR UKRAINE

CHRISTMAS CONCERT

INTRODUCTION

Songs for Ukraine is a creative exchange between the Royal Opera House and displaced Ukrainians produced by ROH Learning & Participation. The project has created a space for 150 Ukrainians to make music and connect with one another, and with the Royal Opera House. Beginning in September 2022, the project has continued to grow and evolve, with the group performing for the first time at the Royal Opera House in March 2023.

The power of music to unite us in times of great difficulty has been a theme throughout and today's programme celebrates over 1,000 years of Ukrainian Christmas music, from ancient pre-Christian carols to the well-loved "Carol of the Bells". As is customary in Ukrainian song culture, this includes "Kolyadka" which signifies the birth of Christ and "Shchedrivka" which brings wishes for well-being, a rich harvest, and family happiness.

TRANSLATIONS

OH, GOD

Oh, how it was from time immemorial. Oh God.
Oh, how there was no heaven and earth, Oh God.
And there was only a blue sea, Oh God
There were fires burning in the sea, Oh God.
Saints sat around those fires. Oh God.
They advised who should be sent down into the sea. Oh God. Oh, go, Peter, to the bottom of the sea, Oh God.
And Peter, bring the yellow sand, Oh God.
And we will sow it all over the world, Oh God.
To give birth to heaven and earth, Oh God.
The sky with stars, the earth with flowers, Oh God.

A PEAHEN WALKS

A peahen walks, dropping its feathers,
A bountiful evening to all the folks!
Behind her, a beautiful maiden follows.
Gathering the feathers, hiding them under her arms.
She takes them and makes a garland.
Carrying the garland to the dance.

THE CROWN PRINCE ASKED

The Crown prince inquired, is there such a wife so admired,
a wife like our lady, so gentle and rare,
like our maiden, noble queen with such flair?

In her courtyard, each day's a grand fête,
she rules the land, councils deliberate.
The first council speaks of vineyards, you see,
where to plant them, and make wine so free?

The second council is for caroling sound,
how to receive them, with gifts all around?
And the third council for her offspring's grace,
how to guide them, teach and embrace.

Sons to wed princesses, majestic and bright,
daughters to lords, in power's great light,
Daughters to lords, that's the grand plan,
And with this wish, we'll be hearty and grand!

Let it be so! Let it be so!

OH, THE GREY CUCKOO

Oh, the grey cuckoo,
A bountiful evening, a good evening, good health to good people!
I fly around all the gardens...
There is one I have not yet visited...
Where there are three towers...
In the first, the sun is beautiful...
In the second, the moon is clear...
And in the third, there are small stars...
The clear moon, is the master of the house...
The red sun is his wife...
The little stars are his children...

A WONDROUS BIRTH

What is this miracle
What is this news that,
The Virgin Mary gave birth to a Son.
When he was born
She looked upon him and said
"My child is Jesus".

Old Joseph,
Is standing by the manger,
Laying out cloth for Jesus Christ,
While the Virgin Mary sings and holds her baby close.

A NEW JOY

A New joy has been revealed,
That has never been seen before
Above the manger, a bright star shines throughout the world.

Where Christ was born,
Son of a Virgin,
Like a man in a shroud,
Humbly swaddled.

Shepherds with their lambs,
Before the child,
Fall on their knees,
And praise our Lord and King.

We ask beseech thee, Oh Lord
We beseech you this day
Grant freedom, fortune and a happy destiny
To our dear Ukraine!

IMMACULATE VIRGIN

And all the people rejoiced at Christ's birth.
She gave birth to a son on the hay.
The Holy Virgin gave birth to a Son, rejoice!

And a man came to seek the Son, to seek him
Holy Virgin, where is the work of your Son?
The Holy Virgin gave birth to a Son, rejoice!

She carried the Son into the darkness of the forest, carried her Son into the blue sea.
The Holy Virgin gave birth to a Son, rejoice!

The sea sparkled, the Son was taken away.
And all the people rejoiced at Christ's birth.
The Holy Virgin gave birth to a Son, rejoice!

CLEAR STARS COVERED THE SKY

The sky was covered with clear stars,
Lighting our land.
A bountiful evening, a good evening to you.

Good evening, master of the house,
We have brought you gifts.
A bountiful...

Our gifts are beautiful and new
Like the New Year renews itself.
A bountiful...

WOH, THE GREY CUCKOO

Oh, the grey cuckoo
She flew around all the gardens,
But did not sing in any,
She flew to the cherry orchard:
And sat down saying:
"Oh, my garden, my garden,
Did I not please you?
Did I not sing in the early morn,
Did I not shake the dewdrop?"

Young Maryusia
Walked all around the gardens,
She didn't cry in any of them.
But when she came to her parents' garden, she stood there and cried.
"Oh, my garden and my yard,
Did I not please you?
Didn't I get up early in the morn,
Did I not notice you?
Didn't I get up early
Didn't I notice you?"

DO NOT WEEP, RACHEL

Don't cry Rachel, don't cry,
Look, the children are safe.
And alive.
Those children are now in heaven.
For God's son, their error,
Don't cry Rachel.

Blood poured like water on Herod's order,
Children killed, searching for Christ,
Although the children are gone, their souls remain,
For loss of life, they accepted eternity.

SILENT NIGHT

Silent night, holy night,
All is calm, all is bright,
'Round yon virgin mother and child; Holy infant, so tender and mild,
Sleep in heavenly peace,
Sleep, in heavenly peace.

JERUSALEM BELLS

The bells in Jerusalem rang out.
The Virgin Mary gave birth to a Son.

TWO FALCONS FLEW BY

Oh, how those two falcons flew by,
And they looked into the light.
A bountiful evening, A good evening,
To all good people for the whole evening.

But it's yet light and still unswept,
But the girl is still with tousled hair

Her hair is tousled, her face unwashed
And she was angry with her father.

That the dressmaker shortened the dress,
The shoes were sewn and tightened.

CAROL OF THE BELLS

Good news I bring!
Swallow flew in,
Started to sing,
Called out aloud
"Come to the door, hear while I tell,
What lies in store, look in the barn,
There in the hay, sweet little lambs,
New-born today.
Life will be good, you will do well,
Plenty to buy, plenty to sell.
Grain in the barn
Coin in the jar,
Good looking wife, Happy new Year!

AULD LANG SYNE

Should old acquaintance be forgot and never brought to mind?
Should auld acquaintance be forgot and auld lang syne?

For auld lang syne my dear
for auld lang syne
we'll take a cup of kindness yet
for auld lang syne.
And surely you'll buy your pint cup
and surely I'll buy mine!
We'll take a cup of kindness yet
for auld lang syne.

For auld lang syne my dear
for auld lang syne
we'll take a cup of kindness yet
for auld lang syne.

And there's a hand my trusty friend!
And gi'es a hand o' thine!
We'll take a right goodwill draught for auld land syne.

For auld lang syne my dear
for auld lang syne
we'll take a cup of kindness yet
for auld lang syne.
We'll take a cup of kindness yet
for auld lang syne.
