STEVE BISCIOTTI wants consistency. His goal is to have the Ravens in the playoff hunt every season, avoiding dips that plague some franchises.

The Ravens are one of only five teams (New England – 12, Green Bay – 11, Baltimore – 10, Kansas City – 10 and Seattle – 10) to earn at least 10 postseason berths in the last 15 years (2008-22), with Baltimore winning at least one game in seven of those 10 playoff campaigns. Additionally, during this span, the Ravens have compiled the NFL's third-most postseason victories (11, tied with Green Bay and San Francisco), trailing only New England (16) and Kansas City (12), and have advanced to three AFC Championship games (2012, 2011 and 2008), winning Super Bowl XLVII in 2012.

"We're proud of what we're giving to Baltimore," Bisciotti says. "You have to make the playoffs to have the opportunity to compete for championships, and championships are our goal. We want to be a consistent winner that avoids big lulls and not being in the playoffs for any length of time."

The Ravens are part of an elite group: They are one of 15 NFL teams with multiple Super Bowl victories. Five franchises have won one title. Eight others have earned a berth in the game and lost, while four teams have never advanced to the Super Bowl. More importantly, with the Super Bowl XLVII Championship, the Ravens (two), the Patriots (six) and the Buccaneers, Chiefs, Giants and Steelers (also two each) are the only teams that have won more than one NFL title since the turn of the century in 2000.

The passionate Bisciotti, who at 63 is the NFL's fourth-youngest owner (Kansas City's Clark Hunt, 58, Arizona's Michael Bidwill, 58 and Washington's Daniel Snyder, 58), bought a minority interest in the Ravens from Art Modell in 2000, completing the purchase of the franchise on April 9, 2004.

Steve's initial investment to the team provided funds to secure free agents for the 2000 Super Bowl XXXV Championship team. Today, his influence in the NFL continues to rise.

He served for several years on two important ownership committees: Broadcast and Digital Media.

When Bisciotti, now in his 24th year as an owner of the Ravens, hired Harbaugh as the team's head coach in January of 2008, some eyebrows were raised. Harbaugh had never been a head coach at any level. In fact, he had not been an offensive or defensive coordinator in the NFL. It was obviously the right choice. Along with the Super Bowl XLVII victory during the 2012 season, Baltimore advanced to the playoffs in its first five years with Harbaugh, who is the only modern-day (since 1970) head coach to win a playoff game in each of his first four and five seasons. He is also the only head coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in six of the first seven seasons, while his 11 playoff victories tie for the sixth most ever by a head coach in the first 15 seasons of an NFL coaching career.

"We all saw something in John. And, you have to be willing to separate yourself from the masses – take some chances – to achieve great success," Bisciotti says of Harbaugh, who in 2019 was named NFL Coach of the Year after guiding Baltimore to a franchise-best 14-2 record. "There's probably a little bit more perception that we took a risk with John. We don't think we did."

Since taking over as the Ravens' full owner (2004), Bisciotti's teams have earned the playoffs a total of 11 times, including the AFC's No. 1 seed in 2019 with a 14-2 mark and second-straight AFC North title. His 2004 (9-7), 2013 (8-8), 2017 (9-7) and 2021 (8-9) teams missed the playoffs by just one game. Baltimore has also captured five division crowns under Steve's leadership, and with Harbaugh at the helm (since 2008), has produced the league's fourth-most total victories (158, including playoffs).

Born in Philadelphia on April 10, 1960, Bisciotti moved with his family to Baltimore (Severna Park) in March of 1961 when Steve, the youngest of three children, was 11 months old. His

QUOTH THE RAVEN: STEVE BISCIOTTI

"My responsibilities are not only to my family and the people who work for the Ravens. There are over a million stakeholders in the Baltimore area who we have an obligation to. They're the fans who invest more than three hours on Sunday to watch, listen to or attend our games. That's a big difference from owning a non-sports company."
— Steve Bisciotti on owning the Ravens

"What really strikes me about Steve is his loyalty to the friends he's had forever. A lot of people, when they become very successful like Steve, they move on. His friends are the same ones he grew up with. That's one of his strengths."
— Longtime Maryland basketball coach Gary Williams

"[Steve] is a great leader. The players love him. They love when he's around. He's an inspiration to all of our guys, to me, to this organization. He sets the tone here. It's a great organization because of his vision."
— John Harbaugh on Steve Bisciotti

father, Bernard, took the children to Orioles and Colts games. Sadly, Bernard died of leukemia when Steve was 8. His mother, Patricia, a huge Ravens fan, then raised the children.

After graduating from Salisbury (Md.) State University in 1982 with a degree in liberal arts, Bisciotti worked in the temporary help industry. In 1983 (at age 23), he started Aerotek with his cousin, Jim Davis. They offered aerospace and technology companies access to skilled temporary employees.

Aerotek is part of Allegis Group, the largest staffing firm in the United States and the largest privately held talent management firm in the world. The company, headquartered just outside Baltimore, has offices throughout North America, Europe and Asia Pacific. Allegis Group has over 18,000 internal employees and over 160,000 employees assigned to client locations. These include engineers, scientists, IT professionals, accountants, attorneys and industrial workers.

Before purchasing the Ravens, Bisciotti's business success was not well known to the general public on a national level, or even notable in the Baltimore area, where he and his partners kept a low profile. "I'm OK if I'm one of the least known owners in pro sports," Bisciotti says.

Steve, an energetic visionary, is quietly dedicated to several important causes and projects, some associated with his deep Catholic faith. He is a board member for Catholic Charities and created The Stephen and Renee Bisciotti Foundation. Most of Bisciotti's extensive charity work and generous giving are done without public notice, although, in 2020, it was announced that the foundation and the Ravens combined to donate $5 million to assist vital programs supported by Catholic Charities from more than 200 locations in Baltimore City and nine Maryland counties.

In August of 2020, the foundation and the Ravens also jointly distributed $1 million to support social justice reform in Baltimore, with a committee of current and former Ravens players determining the 28 programs chosen to receive funds from the contribution.

Additionally, at the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic, Steve and Renee's foundation and the Ravens combined to donate $1 million to support four nonprofit organizations – the Fund for Educational Excellence, the United Way of Central Maryland, the Baltimore Community Foundation and the Maryland Food Bank – in their efforts to combat the public health crisis.

In June of 2021, Steve and Renee honored Ozzie Newsome – the Ravens' longtime personnel executive and Pro Football Hall of Famer – by making a $4 million gift in his name to Maryland's Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs). Through their foundation, the $4 million donation created the Ozzie Newsome Scholars Program, which funds scholarships for Baltimore City Public Schools graduates who attend an HBCU in Maryland.

In January of 2023, The Stephen and Renee Bisciotti foundation and the Baltimore Ravens made a $20 million commitment to the Boys & Girls Clubs of Metropolitan Baltimore to create the Boys & Girls Club at Hilton Recreation Center. The previously closed center will undergo a comprehensive renovation resulting in a space where hundreds of children ages 6-18 will participate daily in youth development programs.

Bisciotti enjoys golfing and boating. He and his wife, Renee (Foote), are the parents of two sons: Jason and Jack, both of whom reside with their families in the Baltimore area.

(Bisciotti is pronounced: bih-SHAH-tee.)

PRAISE FOR BISCIOTTI

Sports Illustrated* on Bisciotti: "Bisciotti has become beloved in Baltimore as the local kid who made good and has turned the Ravens into one of the best-managed franchises in the NFL. He has become the epitome of the young, engaged owner who goes about his business the right way and puts a perennial winner on the field."

Longtime NFL writer Rick Gosselin on Bisciotti becoming one of the most influential NFL owners: "I think the obvious guy, if he wants that platform, is Steve Bisciotti with the Ravens. That's a model franchise. They win. They have continuity. They aren't making knee-jerk reactions, firing coaches right and left. They're probably one of the three or four model franchises in the NFL today. Now, he's a quiet guy, but if he wanted to have a voice and be a player in league matters, I think he's the guy that has the greatest opportunity to do it." (via The Athletic, July, 2020)

QUOTH THE RAVEN: STEVE BISCIOTTI

"I remember going to a couple of Colts games every season with my dad or mom and brother (Mike) and sister (Cathy Thomas). We were on the 10-yard line, lower deck. We'd go to O's games, too. My favorite player was Paul Blair, because my brother already claimed Brooks Robinson and would not let me take the same guy. We'd also go to Westminster for Colts training camp. We have pictures with various players, and I have one with me wearing Johnny Unitas' helmet. I would always ask the Colts players if I could wear their helmets."

SASHI BROWN
PRESIDENT

COLLEGE: HAMPTON / HARVARD LAW SCHOOL
BORN: 5/15/76, BOSTON, MA
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 15/2

On April 1, 2022, sports executive SASHI BROWN became the Baltimore Ravens' team president, succeeding Dick Cass, who retired after 18 years with the organization. Entering his second year with Baltimore, Brown, 47, oversees and manages all business areas of the organization, including finances, legal, budgeting, non-football personnel, corporate sales, operations, stadium activities, communications and business ventures. Brown was also appointed by Commissioner Roger Goodell to serve on the NFL's Stadium Committee.

"He's very smart and has good judgement," stated Cass upon Brown's hiring. "He's thoughtful, and what you really notice are his people skills, poise and presence."

ERIC DeCOSTA
EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

COLLEGE: COLBY
BORN: 4/10/71, TAUNTON, MA
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 28/28

ERIC DeCOSTA's loyalty, love and pride for the Baltimore Ravens are unmatched. A pillar of the organization's well-laid foundation, DeCosta has been with the franchise since Day One, first beginning as an intern during the inaugural 1996 season and then ascending to the personnel department's chief decision-maker in 2019.

Prior to being named executive vice president and general manager – succeeding the legendary Ozzie Newsome – DeCosta, 52, received GM interview offers annually from multiple teams over the years.

However, he never seriously considered leaving Baltimore. Simply put, Eric's respect for – and thorough understanding of – the Ravens' culture aligned perfectly with his pursuit of a dream job.

"I'm the kind of person who appreciates people who stick with things," DeCosta admits. "Even when I think about athletes I've admired, people I've admired, they've had long tenures in different places. But I love this community. My family is from this community. I love the people I work with day to day. Anyone who knows me knows that."

In 2007, Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti first approached DeCosta about becoming general manager one day. Years later, they decided Eric would continue to serve as Newsome's top lieutenant through 2018, helping groom him for the GM role and setting up a seamless transition.

"Did I have chances [to leave]? Yes," DeCosta shares. "Did I have a lot? Yes. Did I ever really consider it? Not really, because every time I'd go to bed thinking that maybe I would consider something, I'd wake up and say, 'What are you, crazy? You know you're going to have the job someday that you've dreamed about, so just wait and make it perfect.'"

From an outside perspective, the imminent ascension might have spawned challenges in DeCosta's relationship with Newsome. That was never the case, however, because the duo has always had a remarkable connection – one that forged a rare professional partnership and an extraordinary friendship.

"Ozzie basically took a 25-year-old kid who had no experience in the NFL, who was so different from him, and gave me a chance and accepted me," DeCosta says fondly. "He and I have always been very different in a lot of ways, but so aligned. It's a special relationship in my life. I've learned a lot of football, but honestly, just a lot more about being a good person."

A graduate of the Ravens' "20/20 Club," which includes members of the personnel staff who started with the team as young assistants and grew into evaluators with more input, DeCosta quickly moved up the ranks. He was first a personnel intern (1996), then area scout (1997-2002), then director of college scouting (2003-08), then director of player personnel (2009-11) and then assistant GM (2012-18).

It became evident early in DeCosta's tenure that he was destined for NFL success. Brimming with passion, resourcefulness, a relentless attitude and an advanced aptitude, he quickly earned his co-workers' respect.

"When Ray Lewis walked into camp his first day, he never really was truly a rookie," Ravens SVP of football operations Pat Moriarty recalls. "He was Ray Lewis, our starting linebacker. [That same year of 1996], I think Eric was never 'Eric the Intern.' He was more than a scout."

Raised in Taunton, MA, DeCosta set his sights on becoming an NFL GM from the age of 6. His interest first piqued in 1978, when, contrary to many of his friends who were Patriots and Broncos fans, he began to follow the Cowboys.

"I was fascinated by the Cowboys and Tom Landry, Gil Brandt, Tex Schramm – the whole notion of scouting and building a football team," DeCosta states. "Doing things differently than all the other teams did back then really appealed to me."

Throughout much of his upbringing, Eric would study the NFL – particularly the draft – in a detailed manner that continuously amazed friends and family members.

His passion for the game of football was also quite evident on the field. Though, admittedly, he was never the biggest, fastest, smartest or most talented athlete, DeCosta was undoubtedly the hardest worker – someone always seeking ways to make himself better and gain a competitive edge.

While attending Colby College in Maine, the undersized linebacker went on to become a three-year starter and senior captain. He knew every assignment on the gridiron, holding himself to the highest of standards, all while inspiring teammates to reach new levels.

After graduating from Colby in 1992, DeCosta took part in a graduate coaching fellowship for the football team at Trinity University, where he would also earn a master's in English. But as time passed, he became uncertain about where a coaching path would lead. Looking to maximize his options, Eric applied to law school and prepared to pursue a new career, rather than cling to his football passion.

However, a chance encounter reinvigorated DeCosta's football pursuits in 1995, when he met someone who had completed an internship with Washington's NFL team. Upon learning of such NFL opportunities, Eric immediately sent resumes and letters to all 32 clubs. In response, he received rejection notices from all but one team – Washington – which hired him to serve as a training camp intern.

Thanks to that experience, DeCosta had finally – and successfully – broken into the NFL. The following year (1996), he landed the Ravens' personnel internship during their first-ever season. Coincidentally, he accepted Baltimore's offer the same day he learned that he had been placed on the University of Connecticut Law School waitlist.

"I was willing to take a chance," DeCosta affirms, "because I knew that once I got to Baltimore, I'd do everything to make the most of my opportunity."

The rest, as they say, is history – something bolstered by loyalty, love and pride from a man who helped build an organization, just as much as the organization built him.

JOHN HARBAUGH
HEAD COACH

COLLEGE: MIAMI (OH)
BORN: 9/23/62, PERRYSBURG, OH
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 26/16

Super Bowl-winning head coach JOHN HARBAUGH is in his 16th season at the Ravens' helm. The 2019 NFL Coach of the Year has led Baltimore to a playoff berth in 10 (2008-12, 2014, 2018-20 & 2022) of his 15 previous seasons, and in 2012, captured the franchise's second World Championship.

Though he never wants it to be about him, it's impossible to ignore Harbaugh's significant success. Here's a look at the NFL's third-longest-tenured head coach (Bill Belichick – 24 seasons & Mike Tomlin – 17 seasons), entering the 2023 campaign:

- Since Harbaugh's 2008 arrival, the Ravens have posted the NFL's fourth-most total victories (158, including playoffs). He has also led the Ravens to 147 regular season wins (2008-22), ranking as the NFL's fifth most.

- Under Harbaugh, Baltimore is one of five teams (NE, GB, KC & Sea.) to earn a playoff berth in 10 of the past 15 seasons.

- The Ravens' 11 playoff wins since 2008 tie (GB & SF) for the NFL's third most, trailing only New England (16) and Kansas City (12). Of those Baltimore victories, an NFL-best eight have come on the road.

- Harbaugh's 11 playoff victories tie (Pete Carroll, Marv Levy & Bill Parcells) for the sixth most by a head coach in the first 15 seasons of an NFL coaching career (Joe Gibbs – 17, Bill Belichick – 15, Chuck Noll – 14, Bill Cowher – 12 & Mike Holmgren – 12).

- Harbaugh owns the most road playoff wins (eight) by a head coach in NFL history. Tom Landry (Dal.) and Tom Coughlin (Jax./NYG) are second with seven each.

- Harbaugh is one of 12 coaches to earn at least 10 playoff berths in his first 15 seasons (Pete Carroll, Tony Dungy, Bud Grant, Mike Holmgren & Marty Schottenheimer – 11; Harbaugh, Bill Cowher, Chuck Knox, Mike McCarthy, Chuck Noll, Andy Reid & Mike Tomlin – 10).

- The 2012 Ravens won Super Bowl XLVII, 34-31, over the San Francisco 49ers in one of the most dramatic games in NFL history. Baltimore jumped to a 28-6 lead, but needed a critical goal-line stand late in the fourth quarter to help seal the victory. The Ravens overcame a furious second-half comeback and a 34-minute power outage at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome in New Orleans to clinch the franchise's second World Championship.

- Under Harbaugh's guidance, the Ravens have appeared in three AFC Championship games (2008, 2011, 2012) and have won at least one playoff game in seven of their 10 postseasons with him as head coach.

- Harbaugh is the only head coach in NFL history (since 1970 merger) to win a playoff game in each of his first four and five seasons. He is also the only head coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in six of the first seven seasons of a coaching career.

- John and his younger brother, Jim (2011-13), the former 49ers' head coach, are the only NFL head coaches to reach three conference championships in the first five seasons of a coaching career.

- With Harbaugh, the Ravens have posted an 87-34 mark at M&T Bank Stadium over the past 15 seasons, ranking as the NFL's third-best winning percentage (.719) during that span (2008-22).

- In 2019, the Ravens recorded a franchise-best 14-2 record. Baltimore won a team-record 12-straight games to close out the regular season, also earning the franchise's first-ever No. 1 playoff seed.

- Coach Harbaugh has led the Ravens to four AFC North Division titles (2011-12, 2018-19).

- From his job interview with the Ravens, to his first press conference, to his consistent action and talk about Baltimore, it is all about "the team" for Harbaugh. Signs can be seen around the Ravens' complex:

"The Team, The Team, The Team."

Despite his continued success, "Harbs" diffuses accolades: "It's about us. It's about the team. It's about the players, the coaches, Steve [Bisciotti], Ozzie [Newsome], Eric [DeCosta] and the scouts. It's about Dick [Cass], Sashi [Brown] and the support staff. It's about all of us pulling together to win – to be the best."

Unlike other NFL head coaches, "Harbs" took the road less traveled. Most NFL field bosses graduate from pro jobs that include the word "coordinator" after "offensive" or "defensive," or they emerge from leading big-time college programs. Before becoming the Ravens' head coach in 2008, John was the Eagles' secondary coach (2007), and prior to that, Philadelphia's special teams coordinator (1998-2006) and a 14-year collegiate coach. (Harbaugh grew up learning about the game from his father, Jack, a longtime college coach.)

In 1998, then-Eagles head coach Ray Rhodes hired Harbaugh, who quickly established a reputation as one of the NFL's top special teams coaches. Subsequently, he was one of four assistants retained by Andy Reid in 1999.

Prior to hiring Harbaugh, the Ravens talked with over 40 people about the energetic coach. "Did we take a chance by hiring John? My belief is that you have to be willing to do things the masses don't, or you'll never separate yourself from the masses," team owner Steve Bisciotti stated. "We obviously picked the right person."

Simply put, Harbaugh strives to be the best. "We don't want to just win a championship. We want to be a championship team," he stated. "We seek the highest levels."

ADDITIONAL RAVENS NOTES DURING HARBAUGH ERA:
Maintaining a strong defensive tradition during his time in Baltimore (2008-22), Harbaugh's defense has allowed the NFL's fewest scrimmage touchdowns (462), the fewest points per game (19.2) and the second-fewest net yards per game (319.4). In 2018, Baltimore produced the NFL's No. 1 defense (292.9 ypg) and the No. 2 scoring defense (17.9 ppg). The Ravens finished four-straight seasons (2008-11) as the NFL's No. 3 scoring defense (fewest points allowed) – tying an NFL record for consecutive seasons ranking in the Top 3 (record has since been eclipsed by Seattle, 2012-16).

Additionally, from 2014-16, Baltimore's defense was one of three teams (Den. & Sea.) to rank in the NFL's Top 10 in yards allowed each season. Harbaugh's red zone defense has also finished in the Top 5 in eight of his 15 seasons, including first overall in 2011 and second in 2014, 2012 and 2008.

The Ravens' offense has also experienced record-setting success during the Harbaugh Era. In 2019, Baltimore finished No. 1 in the NFL in points (33.2) and rushing yards (206.0) per game, while it was No. 2 in total yards (407.6). In 2019, the Ravens also became the first team ever to average 200 passing and 200 rushing yards per game in a season. Baltimore also set a new NFL single-season rushing record (3,296 yards), besting the 1978 Patriots' 3,165. Additionally, in 2019, the Ravens set season team records for touchdowns (64), points (531), net yards (6,521), rushing yards (3,296) and first downs (386, eclipsed in 2021). This attack was led by unanimous NFL MVP QB Lamar Jackson, who accounted for a league-high 43 total TDs, including a league-best (and franchise-record) 36 passing scores. Jackson also rushed for 1,206 yards, setting a new NFL single-season record by a QB. A year later, in 2020, Baltimore's attack registered the second-most total TDs (55), points (468) and rushing yards (3,071) in franchise history. The 2020 Ravens also produced the NFL's No. 1 rushing attack (191.9 ypg), with their 3,071 rushing yards standing as the third most in a 16-game NFL season. (The Ravens own two of the Top 3 marks.) Producing a revolutionary rushing attack over the past several seasons, the Ravens have rushed for an NFL-high 14,007 yards (170.8 ypg) since QB Lamar Jackson's rookie campaign (2018).

On special teams, an impressive seven Ravens have earned 16 combined Pro Bowl honors while playing for Harbaugh: ST Brendon Ayanbadejo (2008), K Billy Cundiff (2010), RS Jacoby Jones (2012), K Justin Tucker (2013, 2016 & 2019-22), LS Morgan Cox (2015-16 & 2019-20), P Sam Koch (2015) and RS Devin Duvernay (2021-22). A byproduct of the Ravens consistently producing one of the NFL's top special teams units during Harbaugh's tenure, senior NFL writer Rick Gosselin ranked the Ravens in the Top 6 of his annual comprehensive ratings system in seven-consecutive seasons (2012-18). (This includes a No. 1 ranking in 2015.) In 2021, Baltimore's special teams unit finished No. 1 in both Gosselin's rankings and Football Outsiders' DVOA ratings.

NFL ASSISTANT COACH: 1998-2007 (with Philadelphia)
Harbaugh's special teams in Philadelphia were consistently ranked among the NFL's best. From 2000-05, the Eagles' units finished in the Top 10 in five of those seasons in The Dallas Morning News' special teams rankings. In 2001 and 2003, Philly ranked No. 1, according to senior NFL writer Rick Gosselin's composite ratings (includes 22 kicking-game categories).

"What separates John from a lot of different coaches is that he watches every player. He has a tremendous work ethic, he has a passion for it, and he works well [with the scouts]. He has tremendous credibility with the scouts because they know he's done the work. That's what I love; that's a joy. He has a strong opinion, but it's always backed up by the tape and by what he wants on this team, and the scouts and coaches always respect that."
– EVP & GM Eric DeCosta on John's involvement with the draft process

JOHN HARBAUGH

"I like the message that John brings. He doesn't talk like a guy who has been here for over 10 years. It's amazing how he tends to rejuvenate himself and his message, and we're lucky to have a leader like him."

– Ravens Owner Steve Bisciotti

Following the 2001 campaign, Harbaugh was voted the NFL's Special Teams Coach of the Year by his peers. He was also named The Dallas Morning News Special Teams Coach of the Year that season. In just four seasons (1998-2001), Harbaugh elevated the Eagles' special teams from 29th to first in the NFL.

In 1999, the Eagles signed K David Akers, who had been working as a part-time waiter after brief kicking stints with Carolina, Atlanta and Washington. With Harbaugh's help, Akers earned three Pro Bowl honors. Harbaugh also worked with P Dirk Johnson, another "street" free agent, helping him record the then-Top 2 punting averages (38.4 in 2005 and 37.4 in 2004) in Eagles history. Under "Harbs," 15 Eagles earned Special Teams Player of the Week awards, while snapper Mike Bartrum was named to the Pro Bowl, and return specialist Reno Mahe led the NFL with a 12.8-yard punt return average in 2005.

COLLEGE COACHING CAREER: Among John's 39 years of coaching is a two-year stint (1995-96) as the assistant head coach at the University of Cincinnati, finishing 6-5 both seasons with the Bearcats. He coached 10 years on offense and four on defense at the collegiate level, launching his coaching career in 1984 at the age of 21 as a graduate assistant for his father at Western Michigan. In his second position at the University of Pittsburgh (1987), he was mentored by the legendary Sid Gillman, a Pro Football Hall of Famer. John also coached the tight ends at Pitt under head coach Mike Gottfried. While at Cincinnati (1989-96), Harbaugh coached special teams, tight ends, outside linebackers and running backs, and he served as the recruiting coordinator.

Over eight years, Harbaugh recruited 27 starters for the Bearcats and tutored both the NCAA's top return man (former Raven Robert Tate, 34.3 KOR average in 1995) and the second-ranked returner (current Ravens pass game coordinator/secondary Chris Hewitt, 31.5 KOR average in 1993). John was part of a staff that helped Cincinnati produce three out of four winning seasons (1993, 1995-96) for the first time in 20 years.

"Harbs" also coached one season at Indiana in 1997 as the defensive backs coach/special teams coordinator, under former Ravens offensive coordinator Cam Cameron, and one year at Morehead State in 1988 as the defensive backs coach/special teams and strength and conditioning coordinator.

COACHING HONORS: Leading the 2019 Ravens to a franchise-record 14-2 season and No. 1 seed in the playoffs, Harbaugh was named the Associated Press and PFWA NFL Coach of the Year. He was also named AFC Coach of the Year by the NFL 101 Awards and "Greasy" Neale Pro Coach of the Year (Maxwell Football Club) in 2019. In April 2014, Harbaugh was inducted into Miami (Ohio) University's "Cradle of Coaches Association" and was immortalized with an on-campus statue. Harbaugh's statue joins existing Cradle of Coaches statues for Earl "Red" Blaik, Paul Brown, Carm Cozza, Paul Dietzel, Weeb Ewbank, Sean McVay, Ara Parseghian, John Pont and Bo Schembechler. The Cradle of Coaches honors Miami graduates who have earned recognition as national collegiate or professional Coaches of the Year, who have been inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame or the Pro Football Hall of Fame, or whose teams won national collegiate or professional/Super Bowl championships.

HARBAUGH COACHING FAMILY: Harbaugh is from a football family. His father, Jack, is a 41-year coaching veteran who won the 2002 NCAA Division I-AA football championship as the head coach at Western Kentucky. His younger brother, Jim, who was the Ravens' starting QB in 1998, played 14 seasons in the NFL and was the San Francisco 49ers' head coach from 2011-14. (The University of Michigan hired Jim as its head football coach following the 2014 NFL campaign.) In a showdown that featured the first-ever NFL game between head coaches who are brothers, John's Ravens bested Jim's

HARBAUGH IMMORTALIZED WITH STATUE AT ALMA MATER

In April 2014, Harbaugh was inducted into Miami (OH) University's "Cradle of Coaches Association" and was immortalized with an on-campus statue.

"I don't think you can even express what something like this means. I've been trying to figure it out," Harbaugh said. "There's nothing like Miami. There's nothing like being back here. Words can't describe my gratitude for being part of this."

The cross-country visit from Jim (then head coach of the 49ers) was a surprise: "There have been a lot of proud moments, but I've never been more proud of [John] than I am today," Jim said. "I always prided myself on being the tallest Harbaugh, but that all changed today when they unveiled that statue."

COLLEGE: Harbaugh earned a degree in political science at Miami (OH), where he won the Football Scholar Athlete Award as a defensive back for the Redhawks. He earned his master's in physical education at Western Michigan.

COMMUNITY IMPACT: Devoted to his family and Christian faith, John is most active in helping the Baltimore area be better for families. He earned the 2011 "Power of Excellence Award" from the (Ben) Carson Scholars for "demonstrating excellence in life and being a role model." He served on the board of the Port Discovery Children's Museum and is a contributor to numerous Baltimore-area events and charities. Also a willing volunteer, his wife, Ingrid, contributes to the Helping Up Mission and Sarah's House, and she is on the Board of Trustees at The Maryland Zoo in Baltimore. In 2020, the couple made significant donations to help fund the distribution of meals to healthcare workers serving on the frontlines of the COVID-19 pandemic. John and Ingrid also support Compassion International, which is an organization that aims to positively impact the long-term development of children living in poverty globally. Additionally, the couple is heavily involved in FCA Baltimore and has sponsored several Baltimore City girls' lacrosse teams, helping make the sport more available to youth who don't traditionally have much access.

Harbaugh is a strong advocate of the U.S. Military. The NFL awarded him its 2013 Salute to Service Award, acknowledging exceptional efforts by those in the league who honor and support military members. (He was also a finalist for the award in 2011.) In 2012, the late Army Chief of Staff General Raymond Odierno presented him with the Outstanding Civilian Service Award. Harbaugh has also visited numerous military installations, including bases in the Persian Gulf as part of the inaugural NFL USO Coaches Tour (2009), the Naval Special Warfare Center in Coronado, Calif., (2011), Andrews Air Force Base – just two days after the capture of Osama Bin Laden (2011) – and undisclosed locations in Turkey and Afghanistan.

In 2008, Harbaugh helped institute Military Appreciation Day – an annual event that takes place during Ravens training camp. Since its establishment, over 11,000 service members have enjoyed preferred seating and opportunities to meet Ravens players and coaches. Once the season begins, Harbaugh then invites wounded warriors to be his guests at every Ravens home game. In 2017, he donated New Era hats to soldiers in Afghanistan. The hats represented all four of the major professional sports leagues and several from the NCAA as well. Additionally, he has purchased school supplies for children whose parents are serving in the military and has sent care packages to troops overseas.

PERSONAL: A history buff, Harbaugh has taken the Ravens to Gettysburg, during offseason team activities to learn about the Civil War. Near the end of the 2017 training camp, he surprised the entire team by cancelling practice on two occasions, loading everyone on buses to visit The Pentagon and Arlington National Cemetery and another day visit to the National Museum of African American History and Culture in Washington, D.C. The trips were opportunities for players, coaches and staff to receive behind-the-scenes tours of the historic locations and show appreciation for what each represents.

John attended Pioneer (Ann Arbor, MI) HS, where he and his brother, Jim, were inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 2016. John and Ingrid have a daughter, Alison, who is a junior lacrosse player at the University of Notre Dame.

HARBAUGH FAST FACTS

John Harbaugh has led the Ravens to a playoff berth in 10 (2008-12, 2014, 2018-20 & 2022) of his 15 seasons, and in 2012, captured the franchise's second Super Bowl title. In 2019, Coach Harbaugh became the first Ravens coach ever to win Associated Press NFL Coach of the Year Award.

Here are several more Harbaugh quick hits:

Harbaugh owns the most road playoff wins (eight) by a HC in NFL history. Tom Landry (Dal.) and Tom Coughlin (Jax./NYG) are second with seven each.

Under Harbaugh, Baltimore (10) is one of five teams (NE - 12, GB - 11, KC - 10 & Sea. - 10) to earn a playoff berth in at least 10 of the past 15 seasons (2008-22). Baltimore (4) is also one of five teams (KC - 5, Buf. - 4, Phi. - 4 & Sea. - 4) to make the playoffs in at least four of the past five seasons (2018-22).

In 2019, the Ravens posted a franchise-best 14-2 record. Baltimore won a team-record 12-straight games to close out the regular season, earning its first-ever No. 1 playoff seed.

Coach Harbaugh has led the Ravens to four AFC North Division titles (2011-12, 2018-19).

The Ravens' 11 playoff wins since 2008 tie (GB & SF) for the third most in the NFL (New England - 16; Kansas City - 12).

Under "Harbs," the Ravens have secured an appearance in three AFC Championship games (2008, 2011 & 2012).

"Harbs" is the only head coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in each of his first five seasons. Notably, no other NFL coach has won a playoff game in each of their first four seasons at the helm.

John and his brother, Jim (formerly of the 49ers), are the only head coaches to advance to three conference title games in the first five years as NFL bosses.

Harbaugh is the only coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in six of the first seven seasons of a coaching career.

In 2012, Harbaugh became the third coach (with Bill Cowher & Chuck Knox) since the 1970 merger to guide his team to the playoffs in each of his first five seasons.

With the Ravens' 2014 playoff berth, Harbaugh became one of eight coaches in NFL history to make the postseason in six of their first seven seasons coaching.

With his daughter, Alison, by his side, John celebrated the Ravens' 34-31 Super Bowl XLVII victory over the San Francisco 49ers at the Superdome in New Orleans (2/3/13). CBS Sports' Jim Nantz interviewed Harbaugh on the victory stage.

HARBS IN THE PLAYOFFS

As one of John Harbaugh's original coaching hires (2008), Ver Steeg has assisted Ravens' offenses in numerous capacities, including as a senior offensive assistant during their 2012 Super Bowl XLVII campaign. Most recently, Ver Steeg enjoyed a five-year (2018-22) stint leading Baltimore's running backs, implementing a ground game that ranked amongst the Top 3 in rushing yards each season, and in 2020, produced the third-most rushing yards in a 16-game NFL season (3,071). From 2018-21, Baltimore rushed for 100-plus yards in 43 consecutive games, tying for the longest streak in NFL history (Pit. 43 – 1974-77). Prior to entering the NFL ranks with Baltimore in 2008, Ver Steeg coached collegiately for 23 years, launching his career as a graduate assistant at USC (1984-85), where he earned his undergraduate degree from in 1983 and received his master's degree in education from in 1986. A native of Redondo Beach, CA, Ver Steeg played defensive back and wrestled all four years at Redondo Union (Redondo Beach, CA) HS, later assisting with the football program (1980-82) while studying just 20 miles north at USC. He and his wife, Lisa, have a son, Ian (20), who's a sophomore wide receiver at Wake Forest.

OZZIE NEWSOME
EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

COLLEGE: ALABAMA
BORN: 3/16/56, MUSCLE SHOALS, AL
EXP. (NFL/RAVENS): 46/28 (13 PLAYING, 33 FRONT OFFICE)

OZZIE NEWSOME's legacy is unlike any the game of football has produced. Simply put, "The Wizard" will forever remain in a class of his own.

Flourishing at every point of his football career, Newsome has not just followed a successful path, he has blazed the trail. Known throughout all of sports as a premier leader, Newsome is a Hall of Fame player, the architect of Baltimore's Super Bowl XXXV and Super Bowl XLVII championship teams and an elite personnel evaluator who became the NFL's first African American general manager in 2002.

(In 2019, Newsome's longtime top lieutenant, Eric DeCosta, took over as the Ravens' EVP & GM. However, Newsome maintains a significant role within the organization as its executive vice president.)

"If Ozzie wasn't already in the Hall of Fame as a tight end, they would be putting him in as a general manager," Hall of Fame GM Bill Polian stated.

"Ozzie is special as a person," head coach John Harbaugh states. "Obviously, he's great at what he does – that's proven. He's been great at everything that he's done. If you look at his history, he's a Hall of Famer; he's in every Hall of Fame there is and still counting. For me, it goes beyond that; it goes to who he is as a person – the type of husband he is, the type of father he is, the type of friend he is, confidant, advisor, just all-around good person with a great heart and a strong faith."

Newsome's remarkable football journey began in Leighton, AL, where he first stepped onto the gridiron with the hope of playing college football. That dream turned into a reality when he became a standout at Alabama under Bear Bryant from 1974-77. "Coach Bryant helped me grow up," states Newsome, who has a sideline portrait of the legendary coach and mentor on his office wall. "He pushed me further than I thought I could go, both on and off the field."

In 1978, Cleveland selected Newsome in the first round (23rd overall) of the NFL Draft. Playing 13 years for the Browns, he authored the most productive career for a tight end in the game's history. A three-time Pro Bowler, his 662 receptions for 7,980 yards and 47 TDs stood as NFL records by a TE until Hall of Famer Shannon Sharpe surpassed those marks in 2001 (HOFer Tony Gonzalez now owns the catches and receiving yards marks, while Antonio Gates holds the TDs record).

Following his storied playing days, Ozzie joined Cleveland's front office. His initial non-player position came as an assignment scout in 1991. Two years later, he was promoted to a comprehensive role – assistant to the head coach/offense/pro personnel. "I had to find out which direction my career would go," Newsome explains. "Art [Modell] gave me the opportunity to work with the coaches, and I enjoyed that. At the same time, I increased my experience with the personnel department and decided that's where I wanted my career to head."

In 1994, Newsome was named the Browns' director of pro personnel. Although he continued to help on the field, Ozzie provided detailed studies on other NFL players and recommended which players the Browns should try to acquire. When the franchise moved to Baltimore in 1996, Mr. Modell invited Newsome and promoted him to vice president of player personnel. From that point, Ozzie's reputation as a supreme talent assessor grew quickly.

In the Ravens' first-ever draft, Newsome tabbed T Jonathan Ogden and LB Ray Lewis (fourth and 26th selections, respectively). Combining to produce an amazing 24 Pro Bowl honors, Ogden became the first Ravens' draft choice elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame (2013), while Lewis was enshrined in 2018. Fittingly, the duo joined Newsome, who was inducted into the Hall as a Brown in 1999.

Another top Newsome draft pick, S Ed Reed (2002), received a gold jacket in 2019, giving the Ravens three first-ballot Hall of Famers – all selected by "The Wizard."

"He and I have always been very different in a lot of ways, but so aligned. It's a special relationship in my life. I've learned a lot of football, but honestly, just a lot more about being a good person. So, I am extremely happy that Ozzie is going to play such a significant role moving forward for this organization."

– Ravens EVP & GM Eric DeCosta on Ozzie Newsome

Starting with Ogden and Lewis, Newsome consistently compiled impressive draft classes for the Ravens. In the team's first 23 drafts (1996-2018) – all led by Newsome – Baltimore tabbed 24 first-rounders who have earned a total of 66 Pro Bowl honors. And when the Ravens had a high pick, they didn't miss. Of the eight players chosen in the Top 10 by Baltimore, five (Ogden, OLB Peter Boulware, CB Chris McAlister, RB Jamal Lewis, the 2003 NFL Offensive Player of the Year, and OLB Terrell Suggs, the 2011 NFL Defensive Player of the Year) earned Pro Bowl accolades. Additionally, Baltimore picked in the bottom half of the first round with uncanny success: Lewis was twice named the NFL Defensive Player of the Year; TE Todd Heap (31st) went to two Pro Bowls as a Raven; Reed (24th) was chosen an All-Star nine times and earned NFL Defensive Player of the Year in 2004; QB Joe Flacco (18th) was named Super Bowl XLVII MVP, leading the Ravens to their second World Championship in 2012; LB C.J. Mosley (17th) became the first Ravens rookie to garner Pro Bowl honors following an exceptional 2014 season (and again in 2016-18); and two-time Pro Bowler QB Lamar Jackson (32nd) was named the second-ever unanimous NFL MVP in 2019.

Amazingly, in the Ravens' brief history with Newsome at the helm, he drafted 25 players who earned Pro Bowl honors. When including 2006 Pro Bowl LB Bart Scott, Pro Bowl K Justin Tucker (2013, 2016 & 2019-22), Pro Bowl LS Morgan Cox (2015-16 & 2019-20) and Pro Bowl FB Patrick Ricard (2019-22), who signed as rookie free agents in 2002, 2012, 2010 and 2017, respectively, Baltimore produced 29 homegrown Pro Bowlers under Newsome's leadership.

In addition to his knack for evaluating talent on the field, Ozzie has also mastered the ability to develop and share insight with scouts who work under him. Over time, Newsome developed the Ravens' methodical and disciplined draft process, one that's foundation is laid years in advance. Now led by DeCosta, the "process" includes 30 members of the scouting department, but also has feedback from Ravens coaches. Much of Baltimore's staff has been with the team since the franchise started in 1996 or has graduated from the "20/20 Club," a group that consists of members who began with the Ravens as young assistants and grew into evaluators with more input. (The term "20/20" refers to hiring "20-year-olds for $20,000." "Actually, the guys started when they were a little older than 20 and for more than $20,000, but that's what we call them," Newsome adds.)

DeCosta and Newsome, who is on the NFL's Competition Committee and the NFL Player Care Foundation Board, encourage all scouts and coaches to have strong opinions, noting specifically that they want to hear what everyone in the room has to say. Because of this philosophy, one of the biggest strengths of the Ravens' personnel team is that "we respect and listen to each other."

"We've been fortunate to have guys who cut their teeth right here in Baltimore, and our methods and philosophies have become engrained," Newsome affirms. "We have had great guys with Phil Savage, 'Shack' [James Harris], George Kokinis, Eric DeCosta and other people who were helping these young scouts along the way. I think that's the secret. It's the way we do things, and the way these guys gravitate to the process of the Baltimore Ravens."

With leadership from Newsome, Baltimore also fosters an environment that breeds standout coaches. By bringing in individuals who embrace the "Raven Way," Baltimore creates a synergy that manufactures success among scouts, coaches and players. As a result, the Ravens have had many assistants move on to become or return as head coaches, both on the collegiate and NFL level: Jim Caldwell (Lions), David Culley (Texans), Jack Del Rio (Jaguars/Raiders), Vic Fangio (Broncos), Kirk Ferentz (Iowa), Thomas Hammock (Northern Illinois), Pat Hill (Fresno State), Hue Jackson (Raiders/Browns), Gary Kubiak (Broncos), Marvin Lewis (Bengals), Eric Mangini (Browns/Jets), Rick Neuheisel (UCLA), Mike Nolan (49ers), Chuck Pagano (Colts), Mike Pettine (Browns), Rex Ryan (Jets/Bills), Jim Schwartz (Lions), David Shaw (Stanford), Mike Singletary (49ers), Mike Smith (Falcons) and Ken Whisenhunt (Cardinals/Titans).

"[Ravens] guys love to play the game, and those are the guys you surround yourself with," states Ryan, who worked with Newsome from 1999-2008. "That's why you have a chance to be successful [in Baltimore]."

When Steve Bisciotti became the team's majority owner in 2004, his first hire was Cass as president. For the nearly two decades after, Cass provided a wealth of business knowledge, legal and negotiating expertise, philanthropic principles, and a calm and consistent leadership style.

Under his direction, Cass helped create the organizational culture for which the Ravens are known today. Most recently, he led the organization through challenges created by the COVID-19 pandemic and worked at the forefront of the team's social justice reform efforts, engaging local and federal legislators to enact policy change. With roots deeply entrenched throughout the Baltimore community, Cass has overseen countless initiatives with the goal of creating better opportunities and circumstances for those most in need. An impactful presence on the board of the Ravens Foundation, Inc., Cass has also served on boards for the Greater Baltimore Committee, Kennedy Krieger Institute and Baltimore Community Foundation.

Through these efforts, the Ravens have consistently ranked among the NFL's best in gameday experience, as recognized by the annual Voice of the Fan survey. Cass also led the construction and subsequent expansion, at a total cost of more than $90 million, of the Ravens' Under Armour Performance Center, which continues as one of the NFL's best training facilities.

From 2004-21, Cass helped guide Ravens teams that won five AFC North titles, clinched 10 postseason berths, appeared in three AFC Championship games and won one Super Bowl (XLVII in 2012). During his tenure, Baltimore produced the NFL's fifth-best overall winning percentage (.586), including the league's third-best mark at home (.713).

The Ravens moved into their Owings Mills, MD, training facility in mid-October of 2004. The building, which was named the Under Armour Performance Center in June of 2012, features a brick and stone exterior. The fieldhouse is 83,962 square feet and includes a strength-training area and a full-size indoor practice field. The facility's outdoor practice fields and fieldhouse sit on 32 acres. Almost all of the project's physical construction was provided by Baltimore-area companies and workers.

When the 2016 season concluded, the Ravens launched a $45 million project to upgrade and expand the Under Armour Performance Center. The massive construction undertaking was fully completed in the summer of 2018.

Over an 18-month project, the Ravens demolished the facility's original one-story north wing, which housed much of the organization's business operations. A new two-story wing was constructed, increasing the area from 9,095 square feet to 23,000 square feet. That expansion created more space for the business side while also providing additional room to enhance the football team's facilities, including the players' locker room, team auditorium, position meeting rooms, scouting/coaching offices and cafeteria.

The Ravens have held training camp at their facility since 2011, and part of the recent renovation project included purchasing more land that surrounds the UAPC. The added space is used for parking and allows the organization to safely host nearly 2,000 fans per day during training camp. In all, there are 775 parking spaces at the facility (525 paved and 250 grass spots).

The Under Armour Performance Center's total building measures 232,864 sq. feet.

In the spring of 2018, the Ravens renovated player meeting rooms and the team's locker room (new version shown above) as part of the facility's recent overall expansion.

The Under Armour Performance Center's new north wing (middle right) achieved the prestigious LEED Gold level certification, further recognizing the Ravens' commitment/dedication to sustainability and environmental stewardship.

UNDER ARMOUR PERFORMANCE CENTER

The facility includes an updated full-service kitchen/cafeteria, player support functions, basketball and racquetball courts, TV/radio studios, plus state-of-the-art requirements for NFL training. Also included at the facility are executive offices, meeting rooms, three outdoor fields and media areas that offer high-speed Internet capability.

"Everything a team needs to help prepare it to win is available to us. Steve [Bisciotti] delivered a first-class, state-of-the-art training facility and office complex."
— Ravens Executive Vice President Ozzie Newsome

The Ravens' have a world-class weight room and conditioning and recovery center, providing players everything they need to train at peak performance.

The Ravens have three Bermuda grass fields on the grounds of their training complex at the Under Armour Performance Center in Owings Mills.

The Under Armour Performance Center houses a state-of-the-art production studio the team utilizes for in-house digital and TV broadcasting purposes.

The Ravens' indoor facility has a full, 100-yard field made of Shaw Sports Turf that the team uses for offseason training purposes or when the weather becomes inclement.

PARTNER SUPPORT

In 2022, the Baltimore Ravens worked alongside 24 different sponsors to plan 73 unique activations impacting and supporting the extended Baltimore community. The Ravens work closely with partners to increase corporate and community awareness of the Ravens Foundation, player foundations and local charitable organizations. Through a wide variety of activities and events, the Ravens and various partners make a positive impact in the Maryland area while strengthening ties between the team, their partners and the community. Below, S Kyle Hamilton presented the 2023 Touchdown for Teachers award, presented by the Ravens and M&T Bank, to Keisha Nandalal from Fountain Green Elementary School. The award recognizes and honors local teachers for their leadership, dedication and commitment to education and for outstanding service to their schools, students and community.

On May 19, the Baltimore Ravens hosted their annual organization-wide volunteer day to establish new educational and recreational spaces at Baltimore City's Morrell Park Elementary/Middle School.

There were 225 Ravens organization volunteers, including 43 players and the entire 2023 rookie class, who joined representatives from KABOOM!, Heart of America, Baltimore City Public Schools and Baltimore City Recreation and Parks to build a state-of-the-art playground and provide significant upgrades at Morrell Park Elementary/Middle School and Morrell Park Community Center.

Throughout the day, volunteers flocked together to construct a brand new KABOOM! playground inspired by the school's students' drawings of their "dream playspaces," transform the recreation center's computer lab by adding new furniture and graphics, beautify outdoor landscaping and school grounds and organize the school's library while also donating 750 new books.

BALTIMORE RAVENS BOYS & GIRLS CLUB

Ravens president Sashi Brown announced the combined (Stephen & Renee Bisciotti Foundation and Baltimore Ravens) $20 million donation toward the creation of the Baltimore Ravens Boys & Girls Club at Hilton Recreation Center. The team is partnering with The Boys & Girls Club of Metropolitan Baltimore (BGCMB), Baltimore City Recreation and Parks, Ravens Legend Torrey Smith's LEVEL 82, Green Street Academy and the surrounding community on this endeavor. Plans for the club include a multi-purpose athletic field with sports lighting, a teen center, activity and games spaces and tutoring spaces. FEMALE LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

The Ravens annually host their L.I.F.T. (Leading and Inspiring Females to Thrive) Conference, a leadership seminar for female student-athletes from local high schools. Freshmen, sophomores and juniors are invited to participate in a day of leadership workshops, guest speakers and a team-building workout at the Ravens Under Armour Performance Center. Student-athletes who serve as both an "untitled leader" and "unsung hero" for their sports programs can apply through the team's website to be considered for the event. The program is designed to empower the next generation of female student-athletes and develop their leadership skills both on and off the field. In 2023, students heard from head coach John Harbaugh and NFL Network reporter Stacey Dales.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

Ravens RISE is the team's football outreach program that provides all youth and high school athletes opportunities to "Play Like A Raven." The program offers football clinics and 7-on-7 tournaments throughout the state, Ravens home game ticket donations, monetary donations to area football programs, opportunities to play at M&T Bank Stadium and recognitions including High School Coach of the Week and Year as well as Team Mom of the Year. The Ravens also have made monetary and time investments in Girls Flag Football including hosting annual football clinics and supporting Frederick County Public Schools with grant funding to create girls flag as an official high school sport.

PLAY 60

Each year, the Ravens continue their commitment to prioritizing and promoting healthy nutrition and active lifestyles among today's youth through the NFL PLAY 60 Campaign. The team delivered virtual and in-person programming through instructional fitness activities and insight. Traditionally, through special partnerships with the American Dairy Association North East, Carroll County Project ACES (Active Children Excel in School) and Baltimore and Howard County Public School Systems, the team delivered the PLAY 60 message to more than 199,000+ local youth across the Baltimore metro area. In April, the Ravens recognized 60 local students at the UAPC for going above and beyond through the PLAY 60 rewards program.

BALTIMORE RAVENS LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

The Baltimore Ravens and T. Rowe Price partnered once again to facilitate the High School Leadership Institute. In its fourth year, the program continued its mission to develop and empower high school students to become collaborative leaders. The program works with ADDO, a leadership organization, to encourage students to learn valuable leadership lessons, introduce them to local industry leaders, expose them to leadership insights and equip them with tools needed to make an impactful difference in their communities. The 2022 programing included over 100 students from Baltimore County, Baltimore City and other select Baltimore-area high schools as they participated in a customized and unique leadership experience.

MILITARY APPRECIATION

In association with the NFL's Salute to Service Campaign, the Ravens honor veterans and active duty members of the military all year in many ways, including welcoming military members at training camp and practices, hosting an annual youth football camp for children of military members, hosting families from Tragedy Assistance Program for Survivors (TAPS) at the Under Armour Performance Center (UAPC) through the team's annual Flags with the Flock event (right) and showing support through care packages, letters and daily communication. At each home game, the Ravens honor groups that include military representatives, first responders, veterans and/or wounded warriors through the CSX Seats for Service program.

SOCIAL JUSTICE EFFORTS

Since 2016, the Ravens have donated over $13.6 million to local organizations promoting social justice while encouraging players to be at the forefront of change. In addition, in the summer of 2021, the Stephen and Renee Bisciotti Foundation honored Ozzie Newsome by donating $4 million to Maryland's four Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU) to fund scholarships for Baltimore City Public Schools graduates. A gift of $1 million was presented to each of Maryland's four HBCUs: Bowie State University, Coppin State University, Morgan State University and the University of Maryland Eastern Shore. In June of 2022, the inaugural class of scholars (right) were welcomed to the UAPC to watch a mini camp practice before joining Steve Bisciotti and Ozzie Newsome for lunch.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- QB Lamar Jackson (119 rushing yards) eclipsed the century mark for the 11th time, surpassing Michael Vick for the most 100-yard rushing games by a QB in NFL history, also becoming the first player to throw a TD of 75-plus yards and rush for a TD of 75-plus yards in a single game.

- S Marcus Williams had a game-high 10 tackles and 2 INTs, marking his second-career multi-INT game and first since 12/31/17 at TB (w/ NO).

- WR Devin Duvernay registered a 103-yard KOR-TD to open the game, marking the league's first KOR-TD of the 2022 season and the second (93 yards on 9/28/20 vs. KC) of Duvernay's career. It also marked the first opening-game kickoff for a TD in Ravens history.

- TE Mark Andrews' receiving TD was the 30th of his career, passing WR Derrick Mason (29) for third most in team history. Andrews also joined Mike Ditka (32), Antonio Gates (43), Tony Gonzalez (30), Jimmy Graham (51), Rob Gronkowski (54) and Kellen Winslow Sr. (35) as one of seven TEs in NFL history to reach that mark in the first five seasons of a career.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- Head coach John Harbaugh has led the Ravens to 150 total wins since his 2008 arrival, ranking as the league's fifth most. (He has compiled an impressive 150-97 overall record.)

- QB Lamar Jackson became the first player in the Super Bowl era with 10+ pass TD and 100+ rush yards in the first three games of a season.

- TE Mark Andrews recorded a team-high 8 receptions for 89 yards and 2 TDs. In his seventh-career multi-TD performance, the second most by a Raven (Todd Heap – 9), Andrews also surpassed WR Torrey Smith for the second-most TD receptions (31) in team history (Heap – 41).

- CB Marcus Peters, who posted 2 takeaways (1 INT & 1 FR), has 41 total takeaways (32 INTs), which are both good for the NFL's most since entering the league in 2015.

- With 1 INT, CB Marlon Humphrey (10 INTs) became the third Raven in franchise history to register double-digit INTs and double-digit FFs (12) throughout a career. In doing so, he joined Hall of Famers LB Ray Lewis (31 INTs & 19 FFs) and S Ed Reed (61 INTs & 11 FFs) as the only Ravens to accomplish that feat.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- S Marcus Williams recorded his fourth takeaway of the season on a FR following an OLB Odafe Oweh FF in the first quarter. Williams' 4 takeaways (3 INTs & 1 FR) are tied with CB Chris McAlister (2008 – 3 INTs & 1 FR) for the most by a player through four games of a season in franchise history.

- Oweh recorded a season-high 7 tackles (6 solo), including 1 sack (-12 yards), while adding 1 FF. The second-year veteran totaled his sixth-career sack and fourth-career FF.

- RB J.K. Dobbins rushed for 41 yards on 13 carries and 1 TD, also recording 1 TD on a shovel pass from QB Lamar Jackson for the game's first points. It marked Dobbins' first-career receiving TD and his first score since the 2020 season, after missing the entire 2021 campaign due to a knee injury.

- CB Marlon Humphrey recorded an INT on Buffalo's opening possession, marking his second-consecutive game with a pick and the second time in his career he's accomplished that feat (also W15-W16 of 2018). His career-high 26-yard INT return brought Baltimore inside the Bills' 10-yard line and led to the Ravens' opening TD.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- RB Kenyan Drake posted 10 carries for 119 yards (11.9 avg.) and 1 TD, marking the eighth 100-yard rushing game of his career and his first as a Raven. Drake capped a balanced 8-play, 89-yard Ravens drive with a 30-yard TD run for the game's first points. It marked Drake's first TD as a Raven and his longest rush since Week 14 of 2020, when he was a member of the Cardinals. He posted another 30-yard run on the following possession, marking his first-career performance with multiple 30-yard rushes.

- QB Lamar Jackson completed 17-of-32 passes for 210 yards, 1 TD and 1 INT (71.1 rating), while adding 77 rushing yards on 7 carries (11.0 avg.). Jackson has now recorded the only two instances (2019 & 2022) of 1,200 passing yards and 400 rushing yards through the first six games of a season since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.

- ILB Patrick Queen posted a team-high 7 tackles (5 solo), 1 sack and 1 FF. It marked his second-straight game leading the defense in tackles.

- With 1 FR (S Chuck Clark), the Ravens have now registered at least 1 takeaway in eight straight games, marking the NFL's longest active streak. The Ravens' 16 takeaways during that span (since Week 17 of 2021) are also an NFL high.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- LB Malik Harrison blocked a 60-yard Cleveland FGA with 2:09 remaining in the game to help preserve Baltimore's 23-20 lead. It marked Harrison's first-career block and the Ravens' 17th overall dating back to the 2014 season, marking the NFL's fifth most during that span.

- OLB Justin Houston registered a season-high 2 sacks on consecutive plays in the second quarter, including a strip-sack that stalled a late Cleveland drive. He's the fourth NFL defender this season (Maxx Crosby, Myles Garrett & Khalil Mack) and first Raven since OLB Matthew Judon (11/25/18 vs. LV) to notch a sack on back-to-back defensive plays.

- Playing in his first regular season game since 2020 (1/3/21 at Cin.), RB Gus Edwards produced 16 rushes for 66 yards and 2 TDs, marking his second-career (also 12/14/20 at Cle.) multi-TD outing.

- With his 105th multi-FG outing, K Justin Tucker surpassed K Stephen Gostkowski for the most such performances through the first 11 seasons of an NFL career. Tucker connected on the 53rd 50+ yard FG of his career, surpassing Jason Hanson (52) for the third-most makes from 50+ yards in NFL history. He now trails only Matt Prater (66) and Sebastian Janikowski (58).

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- Led by RBs Gus Edwards (65 yards on 11 attempts) and Kenyan Drake (62 yards on 7 attempts), as well as QB Lamar Jackson (43 rushing yards on 9 attempts), Baltimore rushed for a season-high 231 rushing yards on 33 attempts (7.0 avg.), extending the NFL's longest active streak of at least 150 rushing yards to seven.

- OLB Justin Houston posted his second-straight game recording a sack on two consecutive defensive plays and has now produced 6 sacks in five games this season. He's the first Raven since 2017 (OLB Terrell Suggs – W11-W12) to notch back-to-back multi-sack games.

- WR Devin Duvernay capped a 9-play, 83-yard drive with his first-career rushing TD on a 15-yard scamper. Duvernay totaled a single-game best 163 all-purpose yards (33 rushing, 31 receiving, 72 KORs and 27 PRs). Duvernay is the first player in franchise history to post a KOR-TD, receiving TD and rushing TD in a Ravens' career. He's also the NFL's only player in 2022 through Week 8 with a TD in each of those three categories.

GAME HIGHLIGHTS

- QB Anthony Brown completed 19-of-44 passes for 286 yards and 2 INTs in his first-career start. Brown's 286 passing yards mark the most in the first start of a career by a Ravens' QB in franchise history.

- TE Isaiah Likely recorded a career-high 8 catches for 103 yards (12.9 avg.). His 103 receiving yards mark a Ravens' single-game record by a rookie TE and a single-game high among NFL rookie TEs in 2022.

- OLB David Ojabo recorded a strip-sack of QB Joe Burrow to give Baltimore possession at Cincinnati's 9-yard line. He became the third Ravens' rookie in as many years (Patrick Queen in 2020 & Odafe Oweh in 2021) to record a strip-sack.

- With FGM from 26, 27 & 51 yards with 1 extra point, K Justin Tucker set a new single-season high in points scored (142 points), surpassing his previous career-best 141-point seasons (2016-19). He now owns 69 career games with double-digit points scored, marking the second most among active kickers (Robbie Gould — 77).

HISTORY

An emotionally-charged and thrilling six weeks kicked off the Baltimore Ravens' 2012 campaign. Despite playing their first four games in an 18-day span, the Ravens produced a 5-1 record, marking the best start ever under John Harbaugh. Highlighted by a season-opening victory on Monday Night Football against division foe Cincinnati and an exhilarating, last-second triumph over AFC rival New England, the Ravens immediately demonstrated the type of heart and resolve that would allow them to conquer anything in an NFL season.

Climbing to 9-2, Baltimore tied (2006) the then-best record to begin a season in franchise history. Following their Bye Week, the battle-tested Ravens won four-straight games – three of which occurred in hostile road clashes. Though a rash of injuries to key contributors left them shorthanded, the Ravens remained relentless and emerged victorious in hard-fought contests at Cleveland and Pittsburgh. Baltimore's grit was never more on display than in Week 12 at San Diego, when Ray Rice converted a fourth-and-29 catch – later voted "NFL Play of the Year" – to send the game into overtime and help capture the comeback win.

While able to secure the AFC North Title with a decisive victory over the New York Giants in Week 16, the Ravens closed out the regular season by dropping four of their last five games. This stretch included three-consecutive defeats – two by three points – to begin December, all against emerging playoff contenders. Many outsiders perceived the run of losses to be Baltimore's late-season demise, but the Ravens felt otherwise. As each wintry week passed, the team's resilient chemistry never faded, nor did its genuine belief that the best was yet to come.

On Wild Card weekend, before a sellout M&T Bank Stadium crowd that celebrated and saluted Ray Lewis in his final home game, Baltimore pummeled the Colts, 24-9, kick-starting an incredible playoff run. Holding Indy without a touchdown, the Ravens' defense was led by Lewis, who returned to action for the first time since tearing his triceps in Week 6.

"I think we're all appreciative, grateful for the opportunity to be here and to witness this historic moment in sports," head coach John Harbaugh said after the win. "And, it wasn't just about one guy [Lewis]. Nobody understands it more than the one guy we're talking about. It was about a team. It was about a city, a fan base, a great sport, about a great career."

Fresh off an emotional victory over Indianapolis, Baltimore traveled to No. 1 seed Denver for a Divisional Playoff bout. Riding an 11-game win streak, the heavily-favored Broncos had beaten the Ravens, 34-17, in Charm City four weeks prior.

But despite its underdog status, Baltimore approached the game with the brazen attitude of a champion. It was a boldness reinforced by strength gained while facing adversity throughout the season. It was also a resiliency the team had developed and a brotherhood that leaders such as Harbaugh, Lewis, Terrell Suggs, Joe Flacco, Anquan Boldin and Rice had cultivated from Day One.

In what became the fourth-longest game (4:11) in NFL history, the Ravens outlasted the Broncos, 38-35, in double OT, producing an electrifying victory-turned instant classic.

LB Ray Lewis emerges from the M&T Bank Stadium tunnel for the final home intro of his career prior to the Wild Card win over Indianapolis (1/6/13).

WR Jacoby Jones secures QB Joe Flacco's deep pass, connecting for a 70-yard TD to send the Divisional Playoff at Denver (1/12/13) into overtime.

As part of 21 unanswered points by Baltimore, WR Anquan Boldin scores a fourth-quarter TD in the 28-13 AFC Championship victory at New England (1/20/13).

Facing third-and-3 with 31 seconds remaining in regulation, Flacco found Jacoby Jones, who had blazed past defenders down the right sideline, to manufacture an improbable 70-yard touchdown bomb. The crowd-silencing connection cut the deficit to 1, with Justin Tucker then quickly tying the game at 35 to force overtime. Near the end of the extra period, Corey Graham intercepted Peyton Manning, ultimately setting up a 47-yard game-winning field goal by Tucker in double OT and sealing the Ravens' 38-35 win.

"Thanks for bearing witness to one of the greatest football games you're ever going to see," stated Harbaugh after the victory, which sent Baltimore to the AFC Championship for a second-straight season and third time in five years. "That football game did the game of football proud."

Next up was an AFC Title bout with the No. 2 seed Patriots, who just 12 months prior had knocked out Baltimore in the exact same setting. Though the Ravens' hearts were battered following the 2011 playoff loss, the defeat served as an influential lesson and a unifying force. It was an outcome that simultaneously marked the bitter end of a poignant journey, but also some inspiration for a determined 2012 Ravens team.

All season long, as they grinded away for a chance to finish what they had started the year before, the Ravens got what they wanted. And this time, they didn't disappoint.

The Patriots, who owned the NFL's No. 1-ranked and highest-scoring offense, were shut out in the second half by a dominant Ravens "D" that found ways to constantly frazzle Tom Brady and pummel his normally-potent attack. In defeating New England, 28-13, Baltimore clinched a berth in Super Bowl XLVII, seizing the franchise's second conference title.

"Congratulations to our players, to our coaches," Harbaugh said. "[Tonight] was about a football team playing really good football in one of the biggest moments that football has to offer, and that's what I am so proud of as a football coach."

On Feb. 3, 2013, the AFC Champion Ravens battled the NFC Champion 49ers in Super Bowl XLVII. It was the first time in NFL history that two brothers, John and Jim Harbaugh, faced each other as head coaches in a championship game.

"We've seen it all this year," Harbaugh stated before the game. "We've had injuries; we've had adversity; we've had exhilaration; we've had great moments. That's what a season is made of. The team that navigates all these things the best, in the end, will be the one true champion."

And in the end, no team navigated its voyage better than the 2012 Ravens. In what would become a timeless NFL masterpiece – one bursting with drama at every turn – Baltimore defeated San Francisco, 34-31, becoming the NFL's one true champion.

After taking an early 28-6 lead, the Ravens produced a valiant goal-line stand to clinch their second Super Bowl title. Overcoming a feverish 49ers' second-half comeback and a bizarre 34-minute power outage in the third quarter, Baltimore started fast and finished strong, all while entertaining millions of spectators around the globe.

Spurred by Flacco, who was named the game's MVP after completing 22-of-33 passes for 287 yards and three touchdowns, the Ravens capped a remarkable journey – one that will forever live in football lore.

"We've got a lot of resolve. That's why we won the game," stated Harbaugh, who with the victory set an NFL record for most playoff wins (nine) in a head coach's first five seasons. "It wasn't perfect, it wasn't pretty, but it was us."

John Harbaugh hoists the Lombardi Trophy following the Ravens' thrilling 34-31 victory over San Francisco in Super Bowl XLVII (2/3/13).
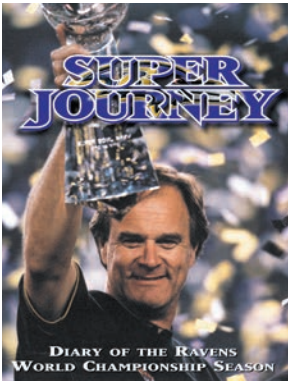

The young and brash Baltimore Ravens began the 2000 NFL season talking playoffs and ended the year as World Champions, thanks to one of the most dominant defenses in pro football history.

The Ravens' "Super Journey" began with an ominous regular season schedule that included five road games in seven weeks. In the middle of it all was a five-game streak without a touchdown. Thankfully, the drought never divided the team.

The race toward the Lombardi Trophy was not without its hurdles: Ray Lewis rebounded from a trying offseason; Trent Dilfer, now a Raven, returned to Tampa Bay for the Super Bowl; an emotional Jermaine Lewis dedicated a superb performance to the memory of his stillborn son. Still, the team rallied through the season, and it made the hard-fought victory that much sweeter.

The journey was about the coming of age for talented young players like Jamal Lewis, Chris McAlister and Duane Starks. It also belonged to tough veterans like Rod Woodson, Ray Lewis, Rob Burnett, Shannon Sharpe, Matt Stover, Michael McCrary and Jonathan Ogden.

And the journey also belonged to the fans of Baltimore. The fans numbered in the thousands at the downtown sendoff at Harbor Place. Banners and promises hung in the air, and none would be broken.

While the hometown fans would celebrate with seven-straight days of purple pride, the team took off for Tampa for a week of preparation before the ultimate contest. On Sunday, Jan. 28, 2001, the Ravens kept their promise and defeated the New York Giants, 34-7.

Ray Lewis earned Super Bowl XXXV MVP honors, as well as Defensive Player of the Year. The Ravens tied a then-Super Bowl record with four INTs, and their +5 overall turnover margin ranks as the second-best mark in a Super Bowl. The most exciting new record? Perhaps three successive scores on three seesaw plays. The back-to-back kickoff returns for TDs were yet another new record.

Following the game, owner Art Modell lifted the Lombardi Trophy in the air and said: "To the people of Baltimore City, Baltimore County and the State of Maryland, this belongs to you. From the bottom of my heart, thank you."

When the Ravens flew home on that beautiful, blue-sky Monday after the Super Bowl, they heard about the parade scheduled in their honor for the next day. The icy downpour that Tuesday phased no one. Hundreds of thousands of fans ignored the rain and cold and waited for their heroes to ride by on Baltimore's crowded city streets.

Later, the entire organization was invited to the White House in June to meet President George W. Bush.

Francine Lubera and Kevin Byrne of the Ravens' public relations office chronicled the run to the Super Bowl in the book "Super Journey: Diary of the Ravens World Championship Season" (above left), published in July of 2001.

1/1 - Baltimore finished 2005 with a disappointing 6-10 record, going 6-2 at home and netting zero wins on the road. The 67 games lost to injured starters were third most in the NFL, with 10 games to Ray Lewis (thigh), six to Ed Reed (ankle) and seven to Kyle Boller (toe). Season highlights included two nationally-televised games, a 48-3 win over Green Bay (12/19) and a 30-23 win against Minnesota (12/25) on Christmas night that knocked the Vikings out of the playoffs. He joined Hall of Famers Fran Tarkenton and Steve Young in that group.

In addition to family and former teammates, he was joined by Steve Bisciotti and Art Modell. Boulware, genuinely moved, spoke to the crowd of 69,143 Ravens fans. Baltimore defeated Cincinnati, 26-20, and carried a 6-2 record into the second half of the season.

12/22 - Three Ravens were named as starters in the Pro Bowl: T Jonathan Ogden, LB Adalius Thomas and S Ed Reed. CB Chris McAlister and LB Terrell Suggs received Pro Bowl nods as reserves. LB Ray Lewis and QB Steve McNair were named as backups, but were replaced [because of injuries] with LB Bart Scott and the Titans' QB Vince Young, respectively.

12/31 - The Ravens finished 13-3, earning the AFC North Division title and a Bye Week prior to the AFC Divisional Playoffs. The Ravens' No. 1-ranked defense was elite: first in points allowed (201, including just 64 [9.1 per game] in the final seven games – 26 teams allowed 300 or more points for the season); first in total defense (264.1 ypg); first in red zone (33.3% TDs allowed); fewest third downs converted (28.8%) and fewest first downs permitted (236); first in turnover margin (+17) and second in takeaways (40 to Chicago's 44); first in INTs (28, including five for TDs); and second in sacks

In 2006, Baltimore swept the Steelers, 27-0 (M&T Bank Stadium) and 31-7 at Heinz Field, for a 58-7 point differential. LB Bart Scott posted 1.5 sacks of QB Ben Roethlisberger.

(60 to San Diego's 61). The offense led the NFL in time of possession (32:49) and sack ratio (+43); the 17 sacks allowed set a franchise record and were No. 2 in the NFL to Indy's 15.

1/13 - In a Divisional Playoff game that provided great angst for Baltimore's loyal fans, the Ravens were on the wrong side of a 15-6 decision vs. Indianapolis. Not a single TD was scored in this kicking contest between Baltimore's Matt Stover and the Colts' Adam Vinatieri.

Despite an injury report that would have paralyzed most teams, the Ravens never quit. In 2007, the number of games missed by starters was 77, up from just 24 in 2006. By the final game, the Ravens had started three different QBs, including rookie Troy Smith. Baltimore had 12 rookies and one first-year player on the roster, which (13) was the third-most in the NFL to close the year. 2008

1/19 - Steve Bisciotti hired his first head coach – and just the third in Ravens history – John Harbaugh, former special teams/defensive backs coach for the Philadelphia Eagles under Andy Reid. Harbaugh's special teams ranked in the Top 10 of special teams rankings every year from 2000-06, including two first-place finishes. From 2000-06, no team had a higher overall ranking (attribution: The Dallas Morning News). Harbaugh was originally hired in Philadelphia by Ray Rhodes in 1998 and was then retained by Reid.

9/14 - The Ravens' Bye Week was unexpectedly moved to Week 2 after Hurricane Ike ravaged Texas' Gulf Coast area and forced the postponement of Baltimore's game at Houston until Week 10. Due to this schedule change, Baltimore would play 18-consecutive games, including three in the playoffs, before the season concluded.

10/26 - Longtime Ravens T Jonathan Ogden was inducted into the Ravens Ring of Honor during a win over Oakland just four months after his retirement from football.

12/20 - In the last NFL game to ever be played at the Cowboys' historic Texas Stadium, the Ravens defeated Dallas, 33-24, with FB Le'Ron McClain recording the longest run in Texas Stadium history with a career-long 82-yard TD scamper.

The Ravens beat Jacksonville in the season finale, 27-7, to earn their fifth-ever postseason appearance. After starting the year 2-3, the Ravens rallied to end the regular season with an 11-5 record to earn second place in the AFC North and a Wild Card Playoff berth. The 11 regular season wins set an NFL record for the most by a rookie QB (Joe Flacco) and a first-year head coach (John Harbaugh) tandem. Including the playoffs, Harbaugh and Flacco ended 2008 with 13 wins, a new NFL rookie benchmark.

1/4 - In the 27-9 Wild Card win at Miami, the Ravens' 4 INTs off Dolphins QB Chad Pennington (who threw only 7 during the regular season) tied for the most in team playoff history. S Ed Reed stole two from Pennington, returning the first pick 64 yards for a TD.

1/10 - The Ravens defeated the top-seeded Tennessee Titans at LP Field, 13-10, getting Joe Flacco his second playoff win – the most for a rookie QB in NFL history. A last-minute, 43-yard field goal by K Matt Stover gave Baltimore the win.

1/18 - In the AFC Championship, Baltimore suffered a narrow 23-14 loss to the Pittsburgh Steelers at Heinz Field in a hard-hitting defensive battle, ending the Ravens' playoff run. John Harbaugh solidified himself as one of 12 first-year head coaches in the Super Bowl era to lead his team to the conference championship game.

The Ravens finished the season No. 2 in the NFL with 19 players on IR, the most in team history (at the time). According to Rick Gosselin of The Dallas Morning News, Baltimore lost 64 games by starters.

Baltimore's defense concluded the 2008 season ranked No. 2 in the NFL. In addition to not allowing a 100-yard rusher for the second-straight season (an NFL-best 35 games dating back to 2006), it set three team records: opponent QB rating (60.6), rushing TDs allowed (4) and rushing first downs allowed (58). A league-high 9 INTs by S Ed Reed contributed to the team's NFL top-ranked status for INTs with 26.

1/3 - To cap the 2009 regular season, the Ravens produced their sixth playoff team of the decade (2000-09), which ranked third best (tied with Pittsburgh) in the AFC behind Indianapolis (9) and New England (7).

With a 21-13 win at Oakland (1/3), John Harbaugh and Joe Flacco, who set the NFL record for most wins ever (13, including playoffs) by a rookie head coach starting a rookie QB in 2008, achieved the league mark for clinching the playoffs in their first two seasons by such a tandem.

Harbaugh also became the 10th coach since 1990 to reach the playoffs in his first two seasons as a head coach, while Flacco became the fourth starting QB since the 1970 merger to reach the playoffs in his first two NFL seasons.

The Ravens' "D" finished third in the NFL in total yards (300.5) and third in points allowed (16.3). It was the seventh-straight season Baltimore's defense finished in the NFL's top six.

For the first time in team history, Baltimore had a 3,000-yard passer (Joe Flacco - 3,613), a 1,000-yard rusher (Ray Rice - 1,339) and a 1,000-yard receiver (Derrick Mason - 1,028) in the same season.

1/10 - In the Wild Card game at New England, Baltimore beat the Patriots, 33-14, serving the team its first home playoff defeat since 1978. Baltimore snapped New England's 11-game home playoff winning streak and halted QB Tom Brady's 23-game overall winning streak at home.

The Ravens forced QB Tom Brady into four turnovers (3 INTs and a fumble), finishing the game with a +2 ratio. Baltimore scored 20 points off its 4 turnovers on the day.

Baltimore scored 33 points against the Patriots, the then-second most in Ravens playoff history (34 vs. NYG in Super Bowl XXXV). Twenty-four of the Ravens' points came in the first quarter, tying for the second-most points in the opening quarter of any playoff game in NFL history.

1/2 - To finish the 2010 season, Baltimore tied Pittsburgh for the best record in the division at 12-4, but lost the AFC North on the division-record tiebreaker (5-1 to 4-2). Baltimore, Indy (a then-NFL record nine in a row) and Philadelphia became the only teams to make the playoffs from 2008-10.

The 2010 campaign also marked the first time the Ravens ever clinched the postseason three years in a row.

This was the third year in a row – the best run in team history – that the Ravens finished third in the NFL in fewest points allowed (16.9 ppg). S Ed Reed missed the first six games of the season rehabbing a hip injury, and despite that, still led the NFL with 8 INTs and 183 INT return yards.

Joe Flacco became the third starting QB since the 1970 merger to make the playoffs in his first three seasons, joining Dan Marino and Bernie Kosar. Flacco posted a Ravens' then-season best 93.6 QB rating and established then-career highs with 3,622 yards and 25 TDs. RB Ray Rice posted 1,776 yards from scrimmage, third most in the NFL, while WR Derrick Mason became the third player in NFL annals to post 11 consecutive seasons with at least 60 catches (Jerry Rice and Tony Gonzalez).

one playoff game in each of the last three seasons (2008-10). Harbaugh also became the first head coach in NFL history to win a playoff game in each of his first three seasons (2008-10).

In the victory, the Ravens set then-franchise playoff single-game records for the following offensive marks: total net yards (390), first downs (26) and passing yards (248). Baltimore's stingy defense allowed just 161.0 yards of total offense. The Chiefs recorded just 53 net passing yards, which set a Ravens' postseason record.

Flacco set Ravens playoff records (since broken) with 25 completions, 265 yards passing and 2 TDs (on 34 attempts), also producing a then-franchise postseason-record 115.4 QB rating. He earned his fourth-career playoff win and tied Dan Marino for the most combined victories (36) by a QB in his first three seasons.

3/12 - NFL owners lock out the players – creating the NFL's first work stoppage since 1987.

7/25 - Following an offseason that contained no minicamps, OTAs or workout programs due to the lockout, the NFL Players Association and the league's owners reached an agreement in principle on their 10-year labor deal, creating a new CBA. After a 31-0 vote by the owners to approve the deal on July 21 (the Oakland Raiders abstained), the NFLPA would later ratify the CBA on Aug. 5.

9/11 - Marking the 10th Anniversary of the Sept. 11, 2001 terrorist attacks, the Ravens honored all military and those whose lives have been lost in the home opener against Pittsburgh. Baltimore prevailed, 35-7, in a contest that saw the Ravens force a franchise-record 7 takeaways.

QB Joe Flacco, who started every game under head coach John Harbaugh, produced his 44th regular season win as a starter, marking the most ever (at the time) by an NFL QB in his initial four seasons (2008-11).

The Ravens, who finished No. 3 in the league in fewest points permitted (16.6 ppg) for the fourth-straight year, tied an NFL record for consecutive seasons of being in the Top

3 for points allowed. Overall, Baltimore's "D" ranked third in both yards allowed (288.9 ypg) and sacks (48).

Despite playing eight games against defenses ranked in the NFL's Top 8, the Ravens were 12th in scoring (23.6 ppg), seventh in third-down offense (42.4%) and 10th in rushing (124.8 ypg). RB Ray Rice produced a career-high and NFL-best 2,068 yards from scrimmage, ranking second in the league in rushing. Rice also set a team mark with 15 total TDs and was second in the NFL among RBs with a team-high 76 catches (704 receiving yards). 1/22 - The Ravens' Super Bowl hopes came to a devastating end in New England with a 23-20 loss in the AFC Championship game. It came down to Baltimore's final drive in the fourth quarter, when the Ravens had a chance to win or tie the game. Flacco and Montana did not throw an INT during those respective postseasons. Flacco finished the game 22-of-33 for 287 yards to produce a 124.2 rating.

In 2012, Flacco also became the first starting QB in NFL history (since 1970 merger) to make the playoffs in each of his first five seasons. Also winning at least one playoff game in each of those postseasons, he compiled nine playoff victories, which tie (Tom Brady) for the most among QBs in the first five seasons of a career.

dropped four of their last five regular season games. That score came when Joe Flacco, who led the game-winning, 5-play, 80-yard drive, hit rookie WR Marlon Brown with a 9-yard TD strike. WALTER PAYTON MAN OF THE YEAR

The Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award recognizes an NFL player for his excellence on and off the field. The award was established in 1970 and then renamed in 1999 after the late Hall of Fame Chicago Bears running back, Walter Payton. Each team nominates one player who has had a significant positive impact on his community. In 2011, Ravens C Matt Birk (left) won the prestigious NFL honor.

Note: The all-time alphabetical roster lists the last-known in-season jersey number worn by a player. The roster includes every year a player was on the team, whether active, IR or PUP list. Additionally, if a player was on the Ravens' 53-man roster at any time, he appears. (However, the roster does not include players who solely spent time on the practice squad or in training camp.)

The all-time numerical roster on the following pages lists all of the jersey numbers worn by a Raven in a game. An example would be NT Kelly Gregg, who wore both 73 and 97 jerseys.

GAMEDAY

M&T Bank Stadium is where NFL excitement begins any given gameday. And that's because Baltimore Ravens home games and M&T Bank Stadium have become synonymous with winning.

Since earning their first Super Bowl title in 2000, the Ravens have posted an impressive home record of 133-52, the NFL's third-best winning percentage (.719), entering 2023.

Located at the south point of Camden Yards, M&T Bank Stadium stands as a premier NFL sports facility. Fans – proud of their Baltimore heritage – enjoy the latest technology, including stunning 4K ultra-high definition displays on the RavensVision video boards, a high-density Wi-Fi network, state-of-the-art concourse designs and LED Sports Lights. Combined with these exclusive amenities, the game's excitement gives fans, friends and families an opportunity to enjoy the day together. With a capacity of 70,705, this impressive structure draws its distinctive design from the best of Baltimore's architecture.

Completed in 1998 at a cost of $220 million, the stadium has 128 suites and 8,196 club seats. HOK architects designed both Oriole Park at Camden Yards and the Ravens' home. The latter was completed in less than two years and funded through a combination of proceeds generated from debt service paid by lottery proceeds, the sale of tax-exempt revenue bonds and the Ravens.

M&T BANK STADIUM ENHANCEMENTS

The stadium, which originally cost $220 million to build, opened in 1998. Since then, the Ravens have spent approximately $220 million on overall enhancements.

In 2019, the Ravens completed a three-year, approximately $120 million self-funded investment that enhanced the fan experience at M&T Bank Stadium. Demonstrating a continued commitment to create an exceptional gameday atmosphere, the improvements included new 4K ultra-high definition video displays, escalators and elevators to the upper deck, a new sound system, upgraded kitchen facilities, a redesigned club level, updated suites and LED Sports Lights.

"Our constant improvements help provide our fan base the gameday experience, convenience and service they deserve," Ravens president Sashi Brown stated. "We strive to uphold our tradition of creating one of the most exciting gameday atmospheres in sports."

In 2015, the Ravens completed a two-year $45 million project to install Wi-Fi capabilities, advanced LED video displays, redesigned concession stands and upgraded concourses.

PHASE ONE

Phase One of the three-year project was completed prior to the 2017 season and was highlighted by two dramatic, 4K ultra-high definition video displays (see photo above), which doubled the width of the stadium's previous standard HD boards. The boards, measuring approximately 200 feet wide and 36 feet high, feature one the highest resolution and clearest picture of any stadium video display in the U.S.

The Ravens also expanded the audio/video control room and installed 4K cameras, lenses and control equipment. An investment was also made in 11 manned cameras and additional robotic cameras, which provide fans with more angles of live action, statistics and replays than ever before.

New LED ribbon displays were also installed around the seating bowl's suite level. In total, the Ravens installed more than 28,000 square feet of video displays.

PHASES TWO & THREE

Phases Two and Three of the M&T Bank Stadium enhancements project continued following the 2018 season and were completed prior to the 2019 season. These improvements included the following:

Escalators & Elevators:
Escalators and elevators to the 500 level were installed to improve crowd flow and ensure convenience for fans accessing seats in the stadium's upper level. (The first escalator to the upper concourse opened in November of the 2018 season.)

"Corner Notch" Suites & Video Boards:
New suites were built into each open notch of the stadium's upper bowl. Large 4K ultra-high definition video boards (see photo below), measuring approximately 33 feet wide and 44 feet high, were installed atop each of the four suites, providing fans with additional in-game content, NFL highlights/scores, statistics and fantasy information.

Club Level:
All concessions stands and bar/lounge areas on the stadium's club level received upgrades. These developments enhanced the area's general design/comfort, audio/visual capabilities, quality of service and food options.

Improved Kitchen Facilities:
The stadium underwent kitchen renovations to include new equipment, improving the quality of food and providing more options at concessions stands throughout the entire venue.

Sound System:
A new sound system in the seating bowl was installed prior to the start of the 2018 NFL season.
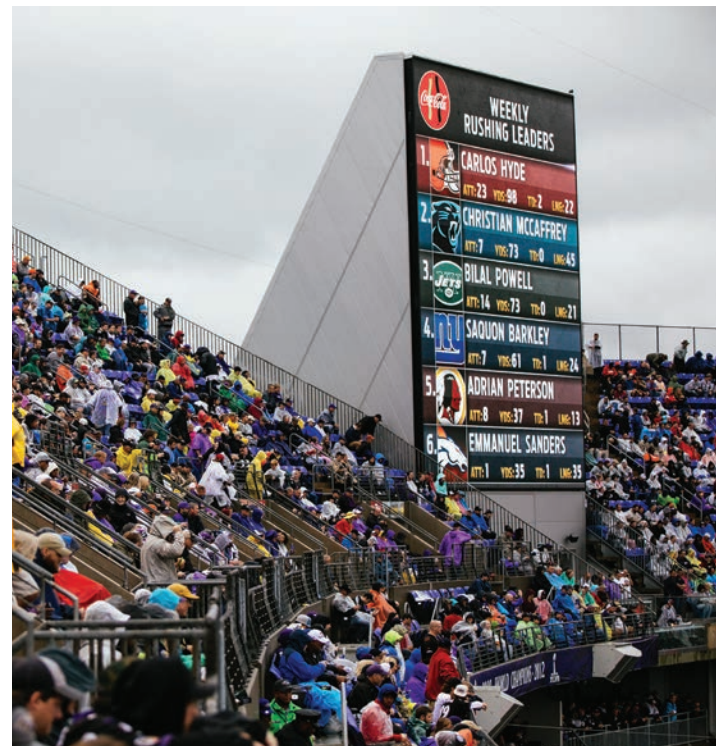

VIDEO SCREENS, WI-FI AND NEW LED SPORTS LIGHTS

• In 2017, the Ravens made an investment to create a more immersive gameday experience for their fans. Designed and created by Prismview, a Samsung Electronics Company, the updated and enhanced RavensVision ultra-HD 4K video screens each measure 36 feet high and 201 feet wide. Each display is the equivalent of a 2,448-inch flat panel television. It would take over 1,000 40-inch flat screen TVs to equal one of these giant LED (light emitting diode) displays. Each display has extreme contrast face plastics combined with over 6 million individual LED pixels providing brilliant images in bright sunlight and during night events.

• The high definition resolution allows for some of the best graphics and game action video in the league, live game highlights from around the NFL, instant replays, scores, statistics, plus player updates and features.

• The two giant screens are made up of modular LED panels – 13 inches wide by 6.5 inches tall. Each of these premium LED modules contain 512 pixels, spaced only 10mm - 0.39" - apart. Due to the massive size of these displays, these panels were assembled from 50 sections. Each display weighs in at an amazing 76,500 pounds.

• In a historic launch of in-venue video technology, in 2017, the Ravens became the first team to have a permanently installed SkyCam. Typically reserved for the NFL's largest broadcasts, including the Super Bowl and other primetime games, SkyCam delivers its immersive and signature "Quarterback View" for every home game. Its nearly invisible support cables can withstand over 800 pounds each, while the camera system can reach speeds over 25 miles per hour.

• In addition to the main video boards, in 2018, the Ravens installed four new corner displays to add to the fan viewing experience. Each of the four LED video displays measure over 34 feet wide by 44 feet high – a bonus of over 6,081 square feet of screens.

• In cooperation with WJHW, VPC and the Ravens' production team, BeckTV, a leader in broadcast design and installation, created a leading-edge production facility for M&T Bank Stadium. The control room, which was upgraded again in 2022, includes state-of-the-art systems for 4K/HD replay, graphics and cameras to help produce world class programming. In addition to 11 manned cameras, the Ravens have 15 robotic cameras contributing to the gameday production.

• The 2017 addition of four LED ribbon boards on the Club Level and Suite Level fascia further elevated the in-stadium atmosphere. These dynamic displays measure a combined 2,373 feet with almost three times the pixel resolution over the previous ribbon boards, providing amazing clarity throughout the stadium. This improvement adds excitement and aims to increase fan engagement.

• With over 28,000 square feet of total display area, the RavensVison displays, corner displays and LED ribbons combine over 20 million pixels to create one of the most captivating experiences in the NFL.

• Two high definition video boards measuring 8 feet high and 30 feet wide were installed at the concourse entrances of Gates A and D in 2013. (Approximately 60 percent of fans enter Gate A for all stadium events.)

• Prior to the 2015 season, the Ravens invested $5 million in a project to install Wi-Fi access for fans at M&T Bank Stadium. From 2015-17, the throughput capability was 2 gigabits per second (GBPS). In 2018, the stadium boasted a throughput capability of 10 GBPS, an increase in capability that is five times greater than the previous three seasons.

• Additionally, in 2015, the Ravens installed the capability to show 360-degree replays with a newly-implemented and upgraded Intel freeD system. By using 38 cameras placed around the stadium, fans can view angles of action previously impossible to see. The Ravens were the first NFL franchise capable of providing 360-degree shots, and the technology won a Sports Emmy Award for best in Technical Achievement from Super Bowl 50.

• Lastly, in 2019, the top of the stadium was furnished with new LED Sports Lights. These lights provide more energy efficiency and the capability to instantly switch on and off. In all, Musco Sports Lighting installed 416 new light fixtures atop the stadium that produce a brighter light with less glare and the ability to create dynamic light shows.

M&T BANK STADIUM

SIGHTLINES

• Front row seating in the lower level is 6 feet above the grass playing field, high enough to eliminate any issue with obstructed views. In addition, the front row is only a short distance of 50 feet from the playing field sidelines and 20 feet from the back of the end zones.

SEATING

• With a seating capacity of 70,705, the stadium is substantially larger than its sister baseball park to the north. At 1.6 million square feet, it is nearly double Oriole Park at Camden Yards' size. ADA seating is located on every level.

• The 8,196 club seats at M&T Bank Stadium offer extra-wide comfort, plus VIP parking, access to the club lounges serving specialty foods, fully-staffed bars, concierge services and scenic views of downtown Baltimore.

• Each of the stadium's 128 suites are between 20-24 ticketed premier areas. Each features upscale lounge furniture, a private kitchen, high-definition TVs, Wi-Fi, a private restroom, VIP parking and personal catering. Many other exclusive amenities and events are also available to suite owners.

AMENITIES/DESIGN

• As part of a two-year, $35 million investment in 2013, the Ravens enhanced the fan experience with improvements to video boards, concessions stands and all concourses.

• All 16 lower concourse concessions stands were upgraded, with these enhancements improving the speed of service, and also the freshness and quality of food, much of which is prepared directly in front of fans.

• Additional concession stand improvements included digital menu boards and full upgrades to all condiment counters. Renovations to the 24 upper concourse concessions stands were completed prior to the 2014 NFL season.

• Additionally, in 2013 and 2014, all concourses were redesigned with a "Ravenized" theme, influenced by the brick and steel look of M&T Bank Stadium's exterior and buildings on the Camden Yards complex. These features include support columns wrapped in brick, purple accent lighting and enhanced directional signage throughout each of the venue's concourses.

• Extra-wide concourses (44-64 ft.) allow easier fan movement. Eight public elevators, numerous ramps and two escalators (to club level) assist the fan traffic. Two additional escalators (to upper concourse) opened in 2018 and 2019, respectively, to provide guests with easier accessibility to the upper level of the stadium.

• There are 44 concessions stands, including 601 total points of sale, in the upper, lower and club levels with gameday fare, including Baltimore's signature favorites, such as crab cakes.

• Club level decor features a historical perspective of football in Baltimore highlighting great games, teams and players from the area's rich football history.

TRANSPORTATION AND STADIUM SITE

• Located at 1101 Russell Street, M&T Bank Stadium is surrounded on all sides by the following elevated roadways: I-95 and the Hamburg St. bridge to the north; I-95 and I-395 (plus Light Rail line) to the east; the Ostend St. bridge to the south; and the Russell St. viaduct to the west.

• Fans can easily access the stadium using mass transit. The Light Rail has a drop-off point located directly outside Gate B and the transit system has stops within walking distance.

• Parking in stadium lots is limited to permit holders, but downtown garages are available for gameday parking, just a short walk away. Parking in offsite lots can be reserved in advance with SpotHero at www.baltimoreravens.com/stadium/directions-parking.

• Suggested areas for exiting guests to possibly pick up a rideshare provider include north of the stadium (past Oriole Park), south of the stadium (Horsheshoe Casino) and east of the stadium (Federal Hill). For more information, visit: www.baltimoreravens.com/stadium/rideshare.

• Tailgating is welcomed in select lots at M&T Bank Stadium. For complete Tailgate Lot information, call the Ravens' Ticket Office at (410) 261-7283.
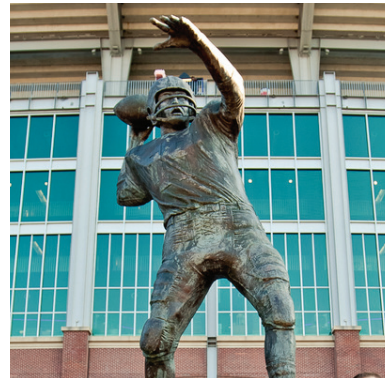

• In October 2002, after the passing of iconic QB Johnny Unitas, the Ravens erected a statue (left) of the Colts' legend outside Gate A. The piece was sculpted by local artist Frederick Kail, who was commissioned by a grassroots group that included donations from the Steve Bisciotti family, the Art Modell family, the Baltimore Orioles and numerous others. One of the signature elements of the bronze work is the famous black high tops – John's favorite football shoe. Many Ravens fans touch the left shoe of the statue for good luck prior to every game.

• In 2014, the Ravens unveiled in this plaza area a second statue (left) – one of former LB Ray Lewis, another Baltimore icon and perhaps the greatest defender in NFL history. Original PSL season ticket holders also have the opportunity to locate their names etched in one of two PSL Walls of Honor. These names are a tribute to the great Ravens football fans who have supported the team that has brought Baltimore and Maryland two Super Bowl Championships (2000 and 2012).

ENTERTAINMENT DISTRICT

The Walk at Warner Street is the name of South Baltimore's newly formed entertainment district already home to M&T Bank Stadium, the Horseshoe Casino and TopGolf. Other plans for the 250,000-square-foot district include the Paramount Baltimore – a 4,000-seat concert venue – a 320-key hotel, a 30,000-square-foot Yards Social Bar and nearly 35,000 square feet of retail space.

Officials from Horseshoe Baltimore, the Ravens, TopGolf, Paramount Baltimore, City of Baltimore and Maryland state government were on hand to make the announcement for the re-brand and surrounding plans on Oct. 25, 2022.

RENEWED LEASE

The Ravens renewed their lease at M&T Bank Stadium on Jan. 4, 2023, keeping them in Baltimore playing home games at "The Bank" through at least the end of the 2037 NFL season. The agreement between the Ravens and Maryland Stadium Authority, which will provide opportunities to expand the economic impact of games and other year-round activities at the stadium, was presented to the Maryland Board of Public Works and received unanimous approval. The deal also includes two five-year options to extend the lease beyond 2037. Through funds from state-issued bonds, the lease agreement paves the way for significant M&T Bank Stadium enhancement projects over the next several years.

On April 20, 2023, M&T Bank and the Ravens announced an extension to their strategic partnership for another 10 years beyond the current contract that was set to expire after the 2027 season. The latest agreement, which comes almost 20 years to the day after the organizations originally entered a partnership, extends their collaborate efforts through 2037.

Just like the initial agreement in 2003 and extension in 2014, the latest deal ensures a partnership that reaches far beyond putting the bank's name on the stadium. It includes an array of joint community-focused programs and additional investments to provide financial literacy education to Greater Baltimore students.

"When I first met [former M&T regional president] Bob Sadler in 2003, it quickly became apparent that M&T Bank is a special organization and that we could be tremendous partners," said Ravens owner Steve Bisciotti. "From that moment, I knew we were aligned in the objective to serve our community, and it was clear that this wouldn't be a short-term partnership. Their commitment is so much deeper than the name on a stadium. They have impacted countless individuals and organizations with exceptional compassion, and I couldn't be happier with our relationship. We take great pride in our collaboration with M&T Bank, because our efforts are built on mutual respect and a meaningful connection to the community."

Along with several joint initiatives, such as Honor Rows and Touchdown for Teachers (see next page), employees of M&T Bank and the Ravens have rolled up their sleeves together to volunteer in communities throughout Baltimore during the past two decades. Those projects have included neighborhood landscaping and beautification, stream clean-ups, food drives, school supply distribution, playground construction and more. In 2019, M&T and the Ravens partnered with the Boys & Girls Clubs of Baltimore to renovate the Webster Kendrick Club at Callaway Elementary School in Baltimore. In 2022, more than 100 volunteers from M&T and the Ravens picked thousands of pounds of potatoes at First Fruits Farm in Baltimore County for distribution to food banks and pantries throughout Central Maryland and parts of Pennsylvania and Virginia. More than 100 employees from both organizations also have participated in Earth Day clean-up activities over the past two years, including the most recent project at Greenmount West Community Center in Baltimore on April 18, 2023.

"The partnership between M&T and the Ravens has worked so well for so long because the organizations share similar values of integrity, determination and teamwork and a common mission to make Baltimore better," said Augie Chiasera, M&T Bank's regional president for Greater Baltimore. "We take a lot of pride in seeing the M&T Bank name on our football team's stadium. It's a symbol of our commitment to serve the Baltimore community."

M&T BANK HONOR ROWS

Since 2003, M&T Bank and the Baltimore Ravens have honored over 15,000 young people from a range of organizations, recognizing their outstanding volunteer work. For each Ravens home game, 100 young people receive tickets, Honor Rows T-shirts, a pre-game on-field visit and official in-game recognition on the RavensVision HD video screens (below).

M&T BANK TOUCHDOWN FOR TEACHERS

The Touchdown for Teachers program recognizes local teachers for outstanding service to their schools and communities. Three finalists are chosen annually based on their involvement in the school or community, degree of positive impact and their demonstrated commitment to education. The 2023 grand prize was awarded to Keisha Nandalal (top right), who is a first grade teacher at Fountain Green Elementary School in Bel Air, Md. The two other 2023 finalists each received a personalized Ravens jersey and were awarded $1,000 in grant funds for their respective schools, while Fountain Green Elementary was surprised with a check for $5,000 in grant funds in Ms. Nandalal's name. Additionally, in June, Ravens mascot Poe and cheerleaders, along with S Kyle Hamilton, made a surprise visit in which Hamilton presented Ms. Nandalal with the jersey and check during a field day event at the school.

RAVENS FOUNDATION PARTNER

The Ravens Foundation, Inc. is the team's charitable arm committed to the healthy development of youth in Baltimore and other parts of Maryland.

Since the inception of the partnership with M&T Bank in 2003, more than $1 million has been allocated from M&T Bank to the Ravens Foundation to support a range of community initiatives.

Each year, M&T Bank employees volunteer to help at Ravens community events, including food drives, Habitat for Humanity builds, playground builds, back-to-school supply distributions and Earth Day clean-ups.

FINANCIAL LITERACY JOINT INITIATIVE

As part of their strategic partnership, the Ravens and M&T Bank are committed to making investments in providing financial education programs to Greater Baltimore students.

M&T AT "THE BANK" & BEYOND

On gameday, M&T Bank is featured on an array of interior and exterior stadium signage and branding, seen by over 70,000 fans and millions more on TV. As the Ravens' official bank, M&T Bank provides banking services with five Reverse ATMs located throughout the stadium, in an effort to go cashless. The partnership is based on shared values and reaches far beyond the stadium and into the community through a range of joint initiatives, combining the strengths of the two organizations to build a better, stronger Baltimore.

M&T BANK STADIUM: THE GOLD STANDARD

LEED GOLD RECOGNITION

In 2013, the Ravens, in partnership with the Maryland Stadium Authority (MSA), earned a LEED-certified Gold designation for M&T Bank Stadium from the U.S. Green Building Council (USGBC). The venue then received LEED Gold re-certification in 2019.

LEED (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) strives to deliver energy- and water-efficient, healthy, environmentally-friendly, cost-savings buildings, homes and communities.

M&T Bank Stadium became the first existing outdoor professional sports facility in the United States – including all NFL and Major League Baseball stadiums – to receive USGBC's Gold rating. A LEED certification is recognized across the globe as the premier mark of achievement in green building.

SAFETY & SECURITY RECOGNITIONS

In June of 2022, M&T Bank Stadium received the National Center for Spectator Sports Safety and Security (NCS4) Facility of Merit Award. The Facility of Merit Award recognizes a facility that has performed above and beyond normal operations to demonstrate an innovative approach to enhancing safety and security.

M&T Bank Stadium was recognized for its leadership in addressing safety and security issues as part of the 2022 National Sports Safety and Security Conference & Exhibition from June 28-30 in Orlando, Fla.

In April 2020, the Ravens announced that M&T Bank Stadium had been recognized by the United States Department of Homeland Security (DHS) with a SAFETY Act Designation, acknowledging excellence in gameday security practices.

The Ravens received the SAFETY Act Designation for the M&T Bank Stadium Security Program, a comprehensive program that includes the screening of visitors and packages, emergency plans, threat assessments, physical and electronic security equipment, and trained personnel. The security program applies to the entire stadium property, including the seating bowl and suites, gates, loading dock, inner and secondary perimeters, field, locker rooms, utility and mechanical systems, and command center.

SUSTAINABILITY FACTS FOR M&T BANK STADIUM

M&T BANK STADIUM PLAYING SURFACE

In May of 2016, the Ravens switched from artificial turf to natural grass at M&T Bank Stadium. As former team president Dick Cass stated, "The players really wanted to play on grass, and that was a key consideration." Baltimore had natural grass in the stadium when it first opened in 1998, but the Ravens changed to an artificial turf from Sportexe Momentum Turf for the 2003 season, and then replaced that with a newer Shaw Momentum 51 turf prior to the start of 2010. The Ravens now play on this new strain of grass, developed on a sod farm in North Carolina, that is a mixture of Bermuda and some rye. Officials believe it is more robust than what was previously played on in the stadium. The Ravens also use special artificial lights/lamps to keep grass growing where the field is shaded, particularly during the winter months.
